V.1

CONSTITUTION.

We, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, and other citizens of the State of Pennsylvania, who are associated together as members of a Society called "The Jewish Foster Home Society," are desirous to acquire and enjoy the powers and immunities of a corporation or body politic in Law with the following Constitution.

PREAMBLE.

Deeply impressed with the necessity of providing a home for destitute and unprotected children of Jewish parentage, the Ladies of the several congregations of Philadelphia have associated to form an institution denominated "the Jewish Foster Home," wherein, orphans or the children of indigent Israelites may be rescued from the evils of ignorance and vice, comfortably provided for, instructed in moral and religious duties, and thus prepared to become useful members of the community. For the government of this Society the following constitution has been adopted.

Article 1.

Every person becoming a member shall pay an annual contribution of two Dollars, or by paying the sum of thirty Dollars shall be a member for life.

Article 2.

The Society shall meet on the second Tuesday of February of every year, at which meeting fifteen members shall be competent to transact business; at this meeting thirty Managers shall be elected in whom the whole concerns of the Society shall be vested.

Article 3.

The Managers shall meet, (being duly notified by the officiating Secretary) within three days of their election, and shall choose a first and second Directress, a Secretary and Treasurer; they shall make by-laws for their own government, prepare and adopt rules and regulations for "the Home," make an annual report of their proceedings and the condition of "the Home;" they shall meet statedly once a month and oftener if the business of the Home require it.

Article 4.

Every alteration of the Constitution must be proposed at a meeting preceding that of its adoption.

Article 5.

The Secretary shall give two weeks notice of the meeting of the society.

Article 6.

The Board of Managers shall have power to fill all vacancies occurring in their body.

Article 7.

A Board of Council consisting of six gentlemen shall be elected by the managers for consultation and advice.

BY-LAWS
FOR THE GOVERNMENT
OF THE
JEWISH FOSTER HOME SOCIETY.

Rules and Regulations for the Board of Managers.

1st. Seven members shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

Every meeting shall be opened with reading a portion of Scripture, succeeded by a pause for mental supplication.

No person shall be at liberty to withdraw from the Board without permission, and no conversation but such as relates to business shall be allowed.

A fine of twenty five cents shall be incurred for non-attendance at each meeting unless a satisfactory reason be given.

All reports of Committees shall be in writing.

2nd. Business shall commence precisely half an hour after the time appointed for meeting.

3rd. Every motion when made shall be stated from the chair; when seconded the Directress shall invite discussion upon the subject; after which she shall ask if the members are ready for the question; which being assented to the votes shall be taken, first in the affirmative, next in the negative. No other business shall be taken up by the Board, or discussed by any of the members, until that which has been laid before them be decided or postponed.

4th. No former resolution shall be reconsidered unless called for by one of the majority, and shall in all cases be deferred to the next meeting, either special or stated, for decision.

5th. When the votes are called for, no person shall be allowed to decline voting.

6th. The First Directress shall have a vote as manager, and give a casting vote when the Board is equally divided.

7th. No person shall decline acting on a Committee, unless another member approved by the First Directress be willing to serve in her stead.

8th. The member first named on a Committee shall preside over it, shall give notice of the time and place of meeting, and make the report of their proceedings.

9th. The first Directress shall call extra meetings as often as she may think proper, but shall not be obliged to call them contrary to her own judgment, unless five of the members concur in requesting it.

10th. When extra-meetings are called, the object of the meeting shall be mentioned in the notices, and no question shall be decided at a special meeting, unless special notice of the object has been given to every manager.

11th. The seal of the Society shall not be affixed to any paper, without the vote of the Board having been taken on it.

12th. The business of each stated meeting shall commence with the Secretary's reading the minutes of the preceding meeting, reports of the Committees, (which if not presented, must be called for by the Directress), and the Treasurer's report. The weekly Committees for the ensuing week shall be named, and the orders on the Treasurer voted.

13th. The Board shall not rise until the time and place of adjournment be distinctly made known.

14th. At the first meeting of the Board, the standing Committees shall be appointed, viz. : the weekly Committees of three for the year, which shall be inserted by the Secretary in the Minute Book of the Committee ; the purchasing Committee, the Committee of Admission and the School Committee.

Duties of the Managers.

The First Directress shall preside at the meetings of the Managers, preserve order, appoint all Committees unless otherwise directed, and call special meetings of the Board. She shall furnish every new Manager with a book, containing in print, the constitution, the rules for the regulation of the Board, the duties of the managers, and the rules for the government of the Home. When a Manager resigns her seat in the Board, she is to return this book to the First Directress, who will make it over to her successor. In the absence of the First Directress, the second shall preside, and if both be absent, a person shall be chosen from among the members present, to preside at the meeting.

The Secretary shall summon the meetings of the managers, keep a fair and correct record of all the proceedings, a register of the children, and do all other writing not connected with the office of Treasurer or the business of Committees. She shall be, ex officio, one of the Committee of Admission.

The Treasurer shall hold the evidences of property belonging to the society, receive all moneys, and deposit the same at a bank in her name as Treasurer, make payments agreeably to the orders of the Managers, keep a fair account of all receipts and expenditures, which account shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Managers. She shall furnish a monthly abstract of her receipts and expenditures, and of the balance remaining in her hands, and prepare a statement to be laid before the Society at their annual meeting.

The Weekly Committees shall visit the "Home" not less than three times during their week, shall endeavor to be present once at each meal, and if possible, during one morning and one afternoon's school hours. They shall observe if the children and the concerns of the house generally are properly regulated, and report their observations in the Minute Book; which book on the last day of the week is to be given to the succeeding Committee, for which purpose a list of the Committees is to be kept in the Book. The Committee shall act upon their own judgment in all cases requiring immediate attention, but any permanent alteration in the rules of the family must be by the vote of the Board.

The Purchasing Committee shall make all purchases necessary for the family, pay all bills, and present a monthly account of their proceedings to the Board.

The Committee of Admission shall be regulated by the following rules :

No child shall be admitted into the Home, who has any deformity of person without consulting the Board.

No child under two or above eight years shall be admitted without consulting the Board.

No child shall be admitted without having been examined by the regular physician of the institution, and no child having any incurable or infectious disease shall be admitted,—nor shall the matron admit any child without an order from one of the committee. The committee shall make their report every month, and all admissions with such information as can be procured, shall be registered in a book kept by the Secretary for that purpose.

The School Committee shall attend particularly to the business of the school, examine quarterly into the progress of children, reward those who are deserving, and report quarterly to the Board.

RULES FOR THE REGULATION OF THE HOME.

1. The children and family shall rise at daylight.
2. After being washed, dressed and combed in the bath-room, they shall assemble in the school-room, where the matron shall read a family prayer, including the "Shemang," after a form given to the Matron by the Managers.
3. They shall breakfast as soon as the meal can be prepared, which shall consist of sweetened milk and water, or milk and sliced bread—in winter the milk shall be boiled and poured over the bread, varied with rice and milk, or mush and milk.
4. The dinner shall consist of beef, veal or mutton alternately, with one or two dishes of vegetables and a slice of bread, with an occasional variety of soup or salt meat. On the Sabbath they shall have an addition of stewed or fresh fruit, or cold pudding of rice or bread. Supper shall consist of mush and milk, or bread and milk. Should the food thus directed be found to disagree with any of the children, the matron may substitute any other which she finds more suitable to their constitution.
5. Before each meal the children shall have their faces and hands washed and their hair brushed. The matron shall say the blessing before and after each meal; the children shall not be allowed to speak during the meals.
6. The children shall go to bed at early candle-light; before retiring, an evening prayer including the "Shemang," shall be said by them and the Matron.
7. No light shall be left in the sleeping rooms after the children have retired.
8. The school hours shall be during the summer from eight and a half to eleven and a half in the morning, and from two to five in the afternoon; during the winter from nine to twelve in the morning and from two to four in the Afternoon.

The play hours shall be from breakfast until school hours, and the intervening hours from supper till bed-time.

9. No child shall be permitted outside of the premises without special order from the Matron.

10. No person employed in the family shall on any account inflict punishment except the Matron or the teacher.

11. The children's linen, aprons and pocket handkerchiefs shall be changed twice a week, their heads combed every day, and their whole persons bathed every day in summer in cold water, and twice a week in winter in tepid water.

12. The Matron shall have a list of the weekly committee's, and in all cases requiring immediate advice and assistance, shall apply to the Committee of that week.

13. The lanterns in the chamber-entry are to be lighted as soon as it is dark, and to remain burning all night; and no other light is to be taken into that story.

14. Prayer, meals, study and recess hours shall be regulated by the ringing of the bell.

SABBATH REGULATIONS.

On Friday previous to the Sabbath, the children shall be bathed, combed and dressed,—the children shall then be assembled, when the Matron shall read to them the prayer for the Eve of the Sabbath; after supper they shall sing ‘Ayn Kalohaynoo.’

In the morning, a portion of the Sabbath morning service and a chapter of the Bible from the portion of the day, shall be read by the Matron; to conclude with a hymn chanted by the Matron and children.

Form of a Bequeath to the Jewish Foster Home Society.

I give and Bequeath unto "The Jewish Foster Home Society of Philadelphia" the sum of _____ to be paid to the Treasurer for the time being, for the use of said Society.

Devise of Real Estate and Ground Rents.

I give and devise unto the Jewish Foster Home Society of Philadelphia (here describe the Property and Ground Rent) together with the appuntenances, in fee simple.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

JEWISH FOSTER HOME

OF

PHILADELPHIA:
L. R. BAILEY, PRINTER, 26 NORTH FIFTH ST.

C A R D.

Any person disposed to contribute to this charity, though not residents of Philadelphia, may become subscribers or donors, by remitting to the Treasurer, No. 261 Locust Street, any amount they may desire to give. This being the only Institution in the United States for the exclusive protection and support of indigent orphans and destitute Jewish children, may recommend it to the patronage of benevolent Israelites throughout the country.

REPORT.

The First Anniversary Meeting of the Jewish Foster Home Society was held at the Portuguese Synagogue, Cherry St., on Tuesday, Feb. 12th, 1856; the following Reports were read.

BEFORE claiming a place, among kindred established charities, we would invoke the Sanction of the Almighty God, whose breath is love and whose voice is charity, acknowledge our gratitude that He has thus far prospered our enterprise, and humbly beseech a continuance of His favor and support.

Although the foundation of this Society bears but recent date, the expediency and usefulness of the project has long since been recognized, and by the exertions of the ladies of the Benevolent Society, was, in the year 1850 in actual progress. Either from the want of auxiliaries, or other obstacles, the undertaking was not carried into effect; its revival is therefore a cause for gratulation to its early patrons, whose co-operation we earnestly solicit.

A circle of months has been completed since the "Jewish Foster Home," was permanently organized, a code of laws decided upon for its government, and a charter obtained from the State Legislature. After this unanimity of action, some time necessarily elapsed before a suitable house and location could be obtained for its purposes, which, although sufficiently ample to accomodate as many, inmates as the means of the Society would justify, is of very limited dimensions. Since then, the Institution has progressed slowly but steadily ; difficulties were encountered, but perseveringly overcome ; patient confidence and the most indefatigable energy have been its sustaining agents. The seeds of a noble undertaking have been sown, and have rooted deeply and firmly, but now require constant sustenance and care that it may strengthen in its growth, and its sphere of benevolence be extended. And shall it not be forthcoming? Shall an infant existence with such promise of future usefulness be suffered to languish? Assuredly not, while there are hearts ready to serve and labor, and able hands ready to give and uphold.

With much satisfaction we present the members of this youthful household, twelve in number, to their friends and patrons ; their beaming faces radiant with health and happiness, appeal more strongly and eloquently to your benevolence than any utterance of words in their behalf. Entirely deficient in moral or mental discipline, no less than in religious culture, the labor to prepare their minds to receive good wholesome truths, by uprooting the evil habits of neglect and effacing the contaminating impressions of early associations was indeed often discouraging ; but the labor has not been in vain ; much improvement can be observed in their deportment and the development of their mental capacities, several of the children being now able to read both English and Hebrew, with tolerable accurateness and fluency. Much yet remains to be done ; with confidence however, we consign them to the judicious authority of the Matron, aware that her deep conviction of the responsibility she has assumed will render her fidelity honorable to herself, and salutary to the best interests of the charge she has undertaken.

The funds of the Society, including $ 140 87, the amount of subscription collected in 1850, which involving both principal and interest, was transferred to the Treasury of this Society, consists of $ 1500 invested in City 6 per cent. loan, and a balance in hand of $ 523 36 ; the subscribers do not exceed three hundred and eighty-two in number, creating a revenue of about $ 764. We would urgently request that all interested in the cause, would exert their influence in procuring new ones, in order that the subscriptions may defray the current expenses amounting to $1152 74 per annum, independent of the house rent which has been provided for three years by the generosity of J. L. Florance, Esq.; this would enable us to reserve the present foundation of capital now in investment, with the view of purchasing or erecting at some future period a more ample and commodious building for the Foster Home.

The Treasury has recently been replenished by the reception of $229 02 from the proceeds of the Fifth Annual Ball of the Hebrew Literary Institute; we repeat our acknowledgments to the Society, with the sincere wish that the blending of their pleasurable and philanthropic plans may ever meet with equally happy success.

The Society is also indebted to Dr. A. C. Bournonville, for his professional services, kindly volunteered and thankfully accepted in the early institution of the Society, and for the careful interest he has manifested in guarding and promoting the health of the Home.

We again implore the conservation and blessing of the Most High, with full and abiding faith in the assurance that if we "Commit our ways unto the Lord, He will surely bring it to pass."

EVELYN BOMEISLER,

Secretary.

REPORT.

THE Second Anniversary Meeting of the Jewish Foster Home Society was held at the School House of the Hebrew Education Society, on Tuesday, Feb. 10, 1857; the following Reports were read and adopted:—

God has blessed with his holy guardianship the institution founded and established as the Jewish Foster Home Society of Philadelphia—may this sustaining power ever be its strong support.

The Society has entered upon the third year of its existence, and with what degree of utility we trust that this annual record will satisfactorily prove to its members and interested friends. All that the most careful consideration and judgment could suggest to the managers has been most scrupulously acted upon—every comfort that could be consistently granted has been furnished, and every expenditure not in conformity with the most rigid economy, has been avoided. “The Home” has so far prospered as to sanction an increase of the number of the inmates within the last year, of from twelve to eighteen. Regularity and neatness characterize the household arrangements; the trial of harmonizing peculiarly undisciplined, wayward temperaments has been hopefully encountered and happily overcome. The development of their moral, mental, and religious capacities has been assiduously cultivated. Our acknowledgments are due to the “Hebrew Education Society” for their co-operation in admitting promptly and gratuitously to the school under their supervision, all the children for whom application has been made. With much pleasure the Board has witnessed the happy influence of the Matron upon the hearts of her charge—their respectful attachment is the main-spring upon which the domestic peace and harmony of the Home depends.

We cannot refer to the loss of one of the most estimable and useful members of the Society, Miss Rachel Pesoa, without feelings of the most sincere regret. In her ascent heavenward may her mantle of charity have fallen upon a successor, who will emulate her virtues, and follow in the long-trodden path of her charities.

A handsome donation of a lot of ground, 54 by 130 feet, has been presented to the Society by Daniel Gans, Esq., providing that a building suitable to the purposes of the Institution, be erected upon the premises. We hope the Society will so far sustain the action of the Board in its acceptance, as to enable them to justify the laying of the corner-stone with as little delay as possible. The Society has received from the Portuguese congregation of this city an appropriation of $100. From several gentlemen of Santa Fé, New Mexico, through the influence of L. J. Leberman, Esq., we acknowledge the reception of a handsome donation. To those friends of the distant West, who have so kindly recognized and responded to the claims of their Philadelphia co-religionists, may suffering and destitution long remain unknown; may the land of their adoption be to them "a land flowing with milk and honey." The Society return their acknowledgments to Dr. A. C. Bounonville, for his continued medical services during another year. In cases that required treatment, his kind care has been most happily successful. The thanks of the Society are also due to Dr. Myer Asch, for his valuable dental services, rendered gratuitously to the Institution.

The funds of the Society consist of an investment of $2,000 City Loan (6 per cent.), and a balance of $401 26 in the Treasury. The entire expenditures of the year, exclusive of investments, amount to $1,315 07.

May our exertions in extending the benefits of the Society by the establishment of a permanent Home, meet with ready and efficient co-operation, and the continued blessing and favor of the Eternal God of Israel.

EVELYN BOMEISLER,

Secretary.

Louisa Gratz, Treasurer, in Account with the Jewish Foster Home.

REPORT.

THE Third Anniversary Meeting of THE JEWISH FOSTER HOME SOCIETY was held at the Cherry Street Portuguese Synagogue, on Tuesday, February 9th, 1858; when the following Address was delivered by Rev. S. Morais.

PRAYER.

Almighty Father! It is with deep emotions of gratitude, that we approach thy throne. When we consider how fleeting are our days upon earth, and yet, how regardless we are of our end, we thank Thee, that thou has permitted us to gather provision, wherewith to keep our souls alive: We have sown in charity, and hope that we have reaped in righteousness. Thou knowest, O God! that, not to acquire for ourselves a name, have we reared and fostered a home for the indigent and the orphans, for, what are we, finite creatures, that we should boast of our actions? but solely because we desired to find grace in thy heavenly sight. Verily, thy mighty hand, which is ever stretched out to help, could have rescued those innocents from the peril that surrounded them, but Thou delightest in charity, and therefore strengthenest them that practice it. Thou wast with us, when we humbly betook ourselves to the task, and thy benignity was visibly manifested in the fruit of our labor. We supplied ailment, and Thou didst render it conducive to health; we imparted knowledge, and Thou didst imprint it on the mind; we instilled morality, and Thou didst prepare the hearts to imbibe its lessons. From the day that we sought thy protection, on behalf of this Asylum, even to the present hour, Thou didst shelter it beneath the pinions of thy mercy, so that neither sorrow nor destruction came nigh unto it. And now, O Lord of Israel! vouchsafe unto us the continuance of thy blessing. Inspire all our brethren with a spirit of benevolence, that they may give stability to our enterprize. Illumine them with a ray of thy wisdom, and they will co-operate in exalting the lowly of the earth from an abject to a lofty condition—from mendicity to independence—from ignorance to knowledge—from vice to virtue. Guide us with thy counsel, that we may never err in our judgment, nor falter in our duty. Grant us, O Eternal! the power of endurance, that we may bear with the faults inherent to the tender age of our beneficiaries. Grant us the ability of promoting their happiness, alike materially and spiritually. Grant us life, that we may rejoice in the accomplishment of our design, and draw upon ourselves thy celestial favor, here and hereafter. Amen.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—It is seldom that the privilege of addressing an audience affords me the satisfaction, which I experience at each recurrence of this occasion; for, whereas the purport of my speech, under general circumstances, is an exhortation to the exercise of goodness, on this advent I am summoned to recount the happy effects of that virtue.

Three years have just been completed, since the Asylum for the forlorn children of our faith—long but vainly craved for—was finally established, and this day we assemble to celebrate that propitious occurrence. It is not presumption that stimulates us to invite the public to witness our progress, but the consciousness that we have labored with zeal to promote a beneficent design, and an earnest desire, withal, to obtain the approval and countenance of our brethren in the prosecution thereof. I deem it, however, supererogatory to detain you for that purpose, with the exposition of facts, on which I have already twice descanted.

The motives that gave origin to the Philadelphia Foster Home, are sufficiently known. With its history you are partially conversant, and to be truthful, I cannot, in a material point of view, add much to that which has been formerly narrated. I cannot affirm that since we last met, the sympathies of all Israelitish communities, have given a stronger impetus to it, for, the gift wherewith we have been munificently endowed, has hitherto proved unavailable for the lack of means. Doubtless, the commercial revulsion which affected every grade of Society, has, in a great measure, impeded our rearing upon the ground generously bestowed, a commodious dwelling for the needy and the fatherless; but who can tell what a well-directed spirit of beneficence might have achieved? True, it has been sought to supply the defect, by directing public attention to an attractive sight; and if ever ingenuity, combined with unwavering perseverance, elicit encomium, the ladies who devised the fair, and their coadjutors in accomplishing the arduous task, amply deserve it. Yet, the success not alone was inadequate to the object in contemplation, but it was obtained—suffer me to speak with candour—in a manner unadapted to a scheme so noble as that which we desire to promote. They who, to secure it, engaged labor and affection, were surely actuated by the purest instincts of the heart; but I cannot forbear deploring the necessity of resorting to such a medium, in order to arouse the feelings of Hebrews, in favor of a sublime charity.

Yet, if touching the project before named, I cannot record that the result has been equal to its claims; I may, nevertheless, demonstrate that our exertions, in other respects, have been commensurately required. I may prove that, although the ladies who assumed the onerous charge of directing this Institution, cannot boast of a speedy realization of their intent, they may still rejoice over the removal of various obstacles, which they encountered in the execution of their duties. In fact, my respected hearers! when we maturely reflect on the aim of an establishment like ours, we must become convinced that a slow advancement does not militate against its interests, for, it is incidental to its peculiar nature. Beneficial Associations which purpose to provide for man's wants, or to alleviate his suffering, will readily command the co-operation of vast multitudes, for, we are always alive to the immediate requisitions of our fellow mortals; but that which has for its object principally the future welfare of the latter, must needs recommend itself to the patronage of the charitable, by its own remarkable issues. It will not suffice to enumerate the advantages which will accrue therefrom; unmistakably tokens must be exhibited to view, whereby to substantiate our arguments. And this we are, providentially, enabled to do upon this occasion. The youthful inmates of the Foster Home, exemplify our words, when we assert that this charity is entitled to universal favor. It may not be deemed becoming to exalt them in their presence, but to further their well-being, by enlisting in their behalf the sympathies of all my hearers, I will relate a truth which is incontrovertible. These children, who, when they were committed to our guardianship, needed incessant correction, now evince a laudable deportment. The assiduity in their studies by those who frequent the Hebrew Education Society School, and their uniform discipline, have not alone promoted them above their companions, but captivated also the affection of their several Instructors.

Inquire of the latter, and they will reiterate what they have frequently stated to me, that whatsoever knowledge is imparted to those orphan boys, their attention and application are ever brought to bear upon it. Nor, are the junior portion of our beneficiaries less diligent in striving after learning. Their tender age incapacitates them for a higher tuition than elementary branches, but their acquirement therein, is by no means inferior to that of many of their co-evals who are more fortunately situated. And still, it is not on account of the comparative proficiency attained by its recipients in their learning, that our charity commends itself to the public at large; its utility, Ladies and Gentlemen! is chiefly discernible in the preservation of their morals, and in the gradual development of those soft feelings of the hearts which ennoble human nature. Whence is it, that while complaints are, at times, lodged against various pupils, the Preceptors of the inmates of our Asylum, unite in speaking of them in laudatory terms? Whence is it, that while the manners of some youths, alienate the good-will of their superiors, those of the forlorn children under our tutelage, impress every person favorably? Why: it arises from the fact, that they are taught a proper regard for those who evince interest in their prosperity. It is because their steps are vigilantly watched, and prevented from becoming entangled in the meshes of vice, which, alas! too frequently and too early corrupt the youth of our age.

Respected hearers! Many among us, have been wont to class the Foster Home in the same category with existing beneficial Societies! What a prodigious error! The Foster Home differs very materially from any of those charities. They strive to mitigate an evil; the Foster Home strikes at the root of that evil, and endeavors to eradicate it. They are but a temporary shelter from the storm; the Foster Home averts the ruin that follows its train. The Foster Home, moreover, with sedulous care, transfers the tendrils of a plant from a pestilential to a pure and exhilarating atmosphere. If it merely supplied its beneficiaries with their daily necessities, it could not claim pre-eminence over other Associations, for, that succour might be equally bestowed beyond its precincts. If it even afforded a collegiate instruction, it could not stand in the position it holds in our estimation, for, that would be communicating knowledge, but not education. But it is by reason of the elevating moral influence it exercises; it is because it fashions the heart, as well as it improves the body and mind, that this Institution excels all others.

I shall not tax your patience by repeating sentiments to which I have formerly given expression. I shall not picture the squalid appearance which many an abode of our needy brethren exhibits, and contrast it with the Foster Home. Nor will I trespass on your time, by exposing the difficulties under which the necessitous labor to constantly supervise the actions of their tender offspring, constrained as they are to plod for a pittance; but I will earnestly crave your attention to the condition of our Asylum, wherein the children of the destitute, alike with the fatherless, obtain sustenance and education; and as you shall discover that I have faithfully described it, you will, I trust, be incited to liberally support an Institute, which, under Providence, will supply Society with individuals morally and mentally nurtured. For, truly, they who have hitherto displayed so much alacrity in conducting it, cannot ignore that their obligation will have been but partially fulfilled, if they neglect studying the various tendencies of their youthful wards, and in conformity therewith, opening to them a path to lucrative positions. They must not and will not relinquish their charge, until all these beloved children, have grown proficient in the art which they will select for their future avocations. But to achieve that most essential object, they solicit your generous co-operation. My dear friends! let it not be said that so noble a charity has been palsied in its effects, through an unpardonable apathy; let not this Establishment totter, for, with its fall, the reputation of the Hebrews of Philadelphia for acts of beneficence, would also to a surety be brought low. Commune with your hearts, and each of their pulsations will appeal more loudly than my feeble voice, in favor of the Foster Home. Remember, that according to the interpretation of an ancient teacher in Israel, they are said to “execute righteousness at all times” who rear the orphans, and efficaciously provide for their well-being; and as the inspired shepherd in his hundred and sixth Psalm, styles such, “Blessed.” I can but counsel you to strive for the attainment of a title that surpasses, in value, the most glorious of human appellations, for, these may elicit the respect of perishable beings, but that shall have placed upon your heads a crown of everlasting glory—which is the love of our God and Father, here and hereafter. May each of us become deserving of a reward so great. Amen.

THE FOLLOWING REPORTS WERE READ AND ADOPTED.

The Jewish Foster Home Society assembles on this, its Third Anniversary, to present to the members of the Society, and the public generally, a statement of its affairs, condition and progress. Since the dependence of the needy has never been so utterly prostrate, nor their earnest exertions in engaging in honest labor so powerless to provide against life's wants, as during the present, it must naturally follow, that their demand upon the more happily favored of the community, should be constant and heavy; thus, an All-wise Ruler practically illustrates and impresses the laws He has ordained, in providing for all the inequalities of condition, not alone apparent to our understanding, but appealing, in all our walks by the way-side of life, to our heart's most just and liberal impulses.

It has been shown that during the season, the harvesting amounted to more than three times a sufficiency to supply every being of the habitable world; the creature of want, then, must have many benefactors; but when the appeal is made, invoking assistance and support for unprotected orphans, or equally sad claimants, neglected, destitute children of living parents, it is not sufficient that your contributions have been numerous, that other Societies are required and in perspective; let us sustain our living and useful Institutions; and in behalf of innocence and childhood we earnestly trust that the unity of purpose, and the energy which actuate our members, may ever be the strength and progress of this Society; although it interests all indiscriminately, yet, to the heart of every mother in our midst, must the fostering of our Jewish children speak with most solemn and tender concern.

The Home of the Society is an Asylum for 17 children, breathing an atmosphere of health and contentment, under the constant surveillance of the Matron, with the co-operation of the Managers and our ever kind Physician, Dr. A. C. Bournonville. May their maturer years bless their early guardianship; the fruits they reap will be of the seed now planted. One child, a little boy of four years of age, who was in the Home but a short term, and was affected with a cutaneous disease, has been removed to his mother's home, where he will receive the continued attendance of Dr. B., and the constant care that the Home could not supply.

We have been considerably aided by "The Hebrew Education Society," at whose school seven of the children receive daily instruction, and where their religious and mental discipline are most happily combined; their improvement has been very satisfactory. Our thanks are due the Society and the Teachers, from whom we have received gratifying reports of their conduct and progress; the age of the remaining children disqualifies them from seeking its advantages, for the present.

To Wm. Wheatley, Esq., of the Arch St. Theatre, we repeat our acknowledgement, for the reception of $50. May prosperity attend him, ever permitting him to indulge the liberal spirit manifested in his appropriation to this and numerous other charities of our city.

To the Congregation Mickve Israel, we return our thanks, for a donation of $90. Also, to Hardwig Newhouse, Esq., for collections made by him in California, to the amount of $125.

Quite disproportioned to the wants or wishes of the Society, is the contracted size of our present house. Having received a donation of a lot of ground for that purpose, we earnestly desire and solicit the means to proceed in the erection of a more ample and commodious building. The Committee, composed of the Board of Council of the Society, will be pleased to receive all contributions to this object.

With a view of adding to the Building Fund, and stimulated by the necessity of urging it forward, a Fair was held by some of the members of the Board, assisted by several friends, who, with much spirit and kindness, interested themselves. Considerable credit is due the ladies for their exertions and laborious efforts, which alone could have conducted to its success. The amount realized was $1,276 16.

The receipts amount to $3,334 04, including a balance of $401 26. The expenses of the year amount to $1,343 42; leaving in the Treasury, $589 46. $2,000 are invested in City Loans; and $1,401 16 are the Building Fund.

May the Holy One of Israel be with us, inspiring His children with renewed trust and energy—and may the successful advancement of their labors redound to His praise.

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF COUNCIL.

The Board of Council who were appointed at the last annual meeting to solicit subscriptions towards a Building Fund for the erection of a Foster Home, beg to report that from various unforeseen causes, and more recently from the mercantile crisis, they have deemed it expedient to await a more propitious period for the continuation of their labors. They have thus far received subscriptions towards the Building Fund of *$230 00 in cash; and three subscribers of five hundred dollars† each, payable as soon as the Building Fund with the foregoing subscriptions shall amount to the sum of $10,000 00. Of the $230 00 there has been paid to the Treasurer on the 30th of June, 1857, $125 00. The balance is this day delivered to the Society, less expenses, for printing one ream of circulars, and three hundred postage stamps, all of which is respectfully submitted.

R E P O R T.

THE Fourth Anniversary Meeting of the JEWISH FOSTER HOME SOCIETY. was held at the School House of the Hebrew Education Society, in Seventh Street above Vine, on Tuesday, February 8th, 1859. The meeting was opened by the Rev S. Morais, who offered up the following Prayer.

SOVEREIGN GOD, to whom every secret thought is revealed! Were it not that Thy Divine assurance infuses fresh courage, we should often despond. For, lo! the shadow of our sun-dial swiftly goes down, and our noblest designs remain unaccomplished. Tardy are we, and inapt to vigorous actions. Now, we suffer the fumes of passion to veil the path of duty; anon, we recede from it, terrified at imaginary obstacles, and our hearts, once glowing with ardent hopes, grow spiritless and vapid. Alas! O Omnipotent Lord, that human infirmities will thus overrule the instincts of spiritual goodness. But we, thy supplicants, are conscious of our frailty, and fearful of its effect, which may be to palsy our virtuous intents, we trustingly look for that celestial aid, promised in the book of truth, "Commit thy works unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established." Father of orphans, and protector of the afflicted, into THINE HAND we commit the FIRM establishment of a "Home," sacred to mental and physical culture. Behold our longing after that righteous goal these many days, and impute not to sin our inadequate efforts, for Thou knowest the foibles that a mortal is heir to, and the earthly objects which will also distract him from higher callings. But Thou canst supply our inefficacy. The memory alone of Thy holy name, can raise midst the faithful unflinching supporters. And, as in olden time, the wisdom wherewith Thou didst endow two men, completed the erection of a sublime structure in honor to Thy Divinity, so Thou mayest deign now to incite such to whom Thou hast laid open Thy treasures, to sanctify their opulence by rearing therewith an edifice dedicated to Thy celestial handmaid, even to Charity. Be with us, O God, and the "Foster Home" shall become a monument of glory to Israel that abide in these favored regions, and a blessing to mankind; for, within its walls, a religion of love, a religion of light, shall prepare the minds of the lowly to pursue a career of benefit to themselves, and of usefulness to others. And may our own feeble endeavors to exalt our needy brother, that "he may inherit a throne of everlasting glory," draw upon each of us the prophetic benediction "The Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and thou shalt be like an irrigated garden, and like a perennial spring, whose waters fail not." May this be Thy gracious will. Amen.

After which the following Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer were read.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Four years have been numbered with the past, since the Israelites of our city were invited to co-operate in the establishment of a society for the purpose of rescuing from want, and its sorrows, the children of our suffering, destitute brethren; if any system of philanthropy can be established sufficiently broad and practical to banish poverty and its miseries from the homes of their natural protectors, certainly this want would not be experienced; but, with all the activity and usefulness of our various charities, one strong, heart-touching appeal, could yet be heard from the most helpless source—the voice of childhood, seeking sympathy and protection from penury, and its too inevitable consequences—temptation and sin. At the meeting in 1853, it was decided that this plea could be most effectually responded to by the formation of a society, whose care should be the guardianship of the children intrusted to them. The foundation thus laid, the managers have endeavored to carry out faithfully the principles of the society, and with much satisfaction they present to the public their little family. Removed from temptation, they are subject to uniformly firm, but gentle restraint; the much-dreaded constraint of dependence is unseen and unknown, and at the Institution all friends are cordially invited, who would witness the happiness and activity of body and mind that characterize the children of the Jewish Foster Home.

Within the last year we have removed to a more commodious house, situated No. 1424 N. 7th St. above Master St., at an advanced rent, which we scarcely could have met, had we not received the rent donation of $150 from J. L. Florance, Esq., which we have received annually, since the institution of the society, and $100 from J. L. Moss, and G. D. Rosengarten, Esqs. In the change, however, we still experience serious inconveniences. The lot for a new house has already been presented to us by D. Gans, Esq.; the means to erect a plain, substantial dwelling, we most earnestly solicit. Our building fund, as per Treasurer's report, audited by a committee of Council, consists of $1700 City 6 per cent. Loan, and $150 84 in cash. We would greatly desire that the annual subscriptions would defray the current expenses of the year, but the report of the Treasurer proves the inadequacy of this income; the low state of our finances, we hope speaks effectively to the kind liberality of our friends, the balance in hand being but $13 24.

To the Matron of the Home we are happy to acknowledge our appreciation of the interest and credit with which her arduous duties are fulfilled, and the affectionate respect evinced towards her by the children, prove that affection with judgment is all-powerful in influencing even the most undisciplined minds; from the seed thus sown, we hope in faith that "angel hands may put the sickle in, and reap for God, and gather to His garner."

To our early friend and physician, Dr. A. C. Bournonville, we repeat our sincere acknowledgments. Dr. Wm. Moss, whose kind services have also been received during the past year, will accept our thanks.

To the Hebrew Education Society we are indebted for the education of the eldest children of the Home, eight in number; their progress in Hebrew and English studies are alike satisfactory.

In anticipation of an annual fair, a handsome donation was received from the Misses Lindo, of Curacao; the articles were disposed of, and realized $30.

We repeat our acknowledgments for several useful and welcome gifts received during the year, including fuel, food, clothing, books, &c.

To the Supreme Being we offer our grateful thanks for His providence; May He ever look down from heaven His dwelling-place, hear our prayer, and maintain our cause.

EVELYN BOMEISLER,

Secretary.

REPORT.

The tenth anniversary meeting of the JEWISH FOSTER HOME SOCIETY was held on Tuesday, February 14, 1865, at the Hall of "The Harmonie," on Coates street, below Franklin. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer for the past year, were read as follows :

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The revolution of another year suggests another re-union of the friends of The Jewish Foster Home Society—ten years have passed away since its organization, an era that should be recorded in enduring letters as a period creditable alike to the justice and humanity of the Hebrew population of Philadelphia. We have the history of no marvelous achievements to relate—each year has been marked with positive, yet not startling lines of progress—what has been accomplished has been by slow and patient efforts, by that faith that constantly remembers that drops of water turn the mill, and that—

"One by one the stones are laid,
By which the massive arch is formed,
And one by one the tints are made,
Which Raphael's heart and pictures warmed."

We have endeavored that the arch established shall be firm and enduring—with your aid we have endeavored and trust still to maintain a Home, where the unfortunate and destitute may find shelter and protection, and where wholesome counsel may prepare them to enter the world under favorable auspices, that may lead them to the enjoyment of a higher life than they otherwise may have known, and open to them the path of eternal beauty. Eleven of our inmates, seven boys and four girls, are actively engaged in the field of useful labor—with one exception, their new homes and vocations are but new blessings. Our acknowledgments we heartily accord to those to whom the children of the Home have been apprenticed—they have secured positions, where with strong integrity of purpose, they will be fitted to fill stations of responsibility and usefulness. One of our boys, who has for the last two years been a subscriber to the Home, has lately sent a donation of $20—this had been left him by his mother, and he desired to present it to the Foster Home. Since his apprenticeship had ceased, a fair proportion of his moderate earnings he had nobly devoted towards the support of this parent, a most happy instance of the gratifying results of the early inculcation of filial duty—"Cast thy bread upon the waters, and it shall return after many days."

A pleasing acknowledgment was received for a box of useful articles sent by the children of the Home to the Central Sanitary Fair of this city.

The funds of this Society not warranting the expenses of a teacher, the managers united, by subscription, in creating a separate fund for that purpose. The services of a lady have been engaged, under whose auspices, we trust, the girls will make satisfactory mental advancement. Miss S. C. Peixotto most kindly volunteered her valuable services to teach Hebrew, and the girls are now reaping the advantages of instruction in our holy tongue from this gifted daughter of Israel. The boys continue to enjoy the benefits of "The H. E. Society." Our Home is still under the same faithful and judicious matronship as when our last report was submitted.

Impressed with the necessity of making some decided efforts towards replenishing our treasury, application was made to each of the different Congregations, soliciting an annual appropriation, which met with the following responses:— from the Mikve Israel, $200 ; Rodef Sholem, $100 ; Beth Israel, $50 ; Beth El Emeth, $50 ; B'nai Israel, $25.

The expenses of the year amount to $3,980 50 ; the receipts, $4,768—leaving a balance of $788 30.

Five hundred dollars were added to our funds from the estate of Dr. Benneville Brown, deceased ; $500 through Messrs Biddle & Williamson, executors of Dawson estate ; $300 from the estate of Hannah Parke, deceased ; $500 from the State Legislature ; and $86 from the Concordia Association. We have received most welcome donations of vegetables, fruits, dry goods, caps, clothing, &c., a complete list of which will be appended to the report. To Dr. A. C. Bournonville, and also to Dr. D. Roberts, D. S., we would express our kindest acknowledgments.

To the Ruler of all, the Guide and Guardian of Israel, we return thanks for his protecting care and continued mercies.

We trust we have been heard with a feeling of interest by those who will pour into our treasury those gifts of which they are the almoners of Heaven.

Respectfully submitted,

EVELYN BOMEISLER, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF EDWARD LEVY, OF THE HOME.

Ladies and gentlemen, patrons and well-wishers of the Jewish Foster Home, I am glad of the opportunity which enables me to perform a delightful duty. A former inmate of this charitable Institution, whose tenth anniversary you have met to celebrate, and a receiver of its benefaction, even at this hour, I wish publicly to acknowledge my debt of gratitude. When the will of the Great Judge was that I should become an orphan, and my mother a destitute widow, many dangers encompassed me around. A natural desire for the comforts of life, which my situation then denied me, might have induced me at best to procure some of them at the sacrifice of my general education. Starting about in search of some means of livelihood, I might most likely have fallen in with bad associates. They could easily have led an experienced boy astray from the right path. My surviving parent would have grieved to see her child grow up in ignorance and irreligion, but she scarcely could, in her unfortunate condition, have saved me. Whence did then my help come? It came under God from the Foster Home Institution. To it I owe my deliverance from the dangers I have described, and from others which I have not named. Therein I found, for a number of years, the comforts I so much needed. Therein I was also taught those great and good lessons that will guide me through life. By its instrumentality, I was admitted into a school at which I gratuitously obtained the little knowledge I possess. And now that I have reached an age when I must learn to eat bread by the sweat of my face, the same beneficent Institution has opened to me the way in which I can procure my daily support with honor and independence. A calling has been chosen for me that suits my taste, and in which, under a kind instructor, I make progress. I have been placed in charge of a private family, at whose fireside I feel at ease. The watchful eye of my natural father can no more watch over my steps, my careworn mother is unable to superintend my training, but the Lord hath raised for me many counsellors and protectors. The Lord, whose name may ever be blessed, inspired the ladies, who devote their time to benefit the Foster Home, with unfailing goodness towards me. To their exertions especially, and to those of the kind matron of the same Institution, I am indebted for the blessings I have so far enjoyed, and for the happiness which I hope is in store for me. I would not therefore allow a feeling of timidity to deter me from making a public acknowledgment of my obligation. I am thankful to all of you here assembled who have lent our Institution your countenance and aid, but those at whose hands I have immediately received so many favors, I must more particularly offer a tribute of heart-felt gratitude.

Ladies, the lad whom you have so much benefited stands now in your presence. From the bottom of his heart he thanks you. He feels that he will never be able to repay your personal kindness, but he knows that you will consider his advancement in the path of righteousness a sufficient recompense, and he promises to follow that goodly path. Fortunately, he has already before his eyes a pattern that he thinks he will do well to copy. The report which the Secretary read this day mentions with praise one who was placed under circumstances exactly like his own, and who now shows his gratitude in a most clear and unmistakable manner. The lad who now has the honor of addressing you, ladies, will endeavor to imitate the actions of his former school-mate. He will omit no exertion in order to deserve your favorable opinion. He will conduct himself as it becomes an Israelite. He will keep the religion of his fathers, as inculcated into his mind in his early years. He will follow honesty and truth in all the walks of life; and when his success in his undertakings shall prove the wisdom of those who have been instrumental to it, he will raise a prayer to the Most High on behalf of his benefactors. He will pray that you may enjoy every happiness on earth and eternal bliss in Heaven.

After the reading and adoption of the reports, &c. the annual election of officers for the ensuing year took place, and the following Managers were duly elected: Mrs. Anna Allen, Mrs. J. M. Asch, Mrs. L. Berg, Mrs. I. Binswanger, Mrs. H. Cohen, Mrs. E. J. Etting, Mrs. A. Finzi, Mrs. J. L. Florance, Miss R. Gratz, Miss L. Gratz, Mrs. A. Hart, Mrs. P. Hart, Miss L. B. Hart, Mrs. L. J. REPORT.

The twelfth anniversary meeting of the JEWISH FOSTER HOME SOCIETY was held on Tuesday, May 14th, 1867, at the Hall of "The Harmonie," in Coates Street, below Franklin. The following Reports were presented and read.

REPORT OF BOARD OF COUNCIL.

The Board of Council of the Jewish Foster Home Society beg to report—

That on receiving the eloquent appeal of the Society to the Board of Council, they at once took action and summoned to their aid the Parnassim of all the Jewish congregations of the city, and the following resolution was adopted on the 30th of December, 1866, viz:

Resolved, That a committee from each congregation have books of subscription prepared, and that said committees present them to their individual members and seat-holders, soliciting from them most urgently a subscription for five years of as large a sum as each desires to contribute annually, so as to place this benevolent, praiseworthy and useful institution upon an independent and firm foundation for five years.

Since that time up to last Sunday, the Board have held several meetings, and the committees have used their individual exertions in calling personally on their seat-holders, and by printed notices to such as they did not find at their residences, and thus far the result is as follows:

Subscriptions from the Portuguese congregation "Mikve Israel," annually, for five years,.....	$2005 00
Donations for one year,.....	610 60
	$2615 00
Subscriptions from the congregation "Kenesseth Isreal,"	$1260 00
Also one hundred and seventy-nine subscribers, of which one hundred and fifty are new subscribers to the Society,.....	790 00
	$2050 00
Subscriptions from the congregation Rodef Sholem,.....	$500 50
One hundred and ten new subscribers, $5,.....	550 00
	$1050 50
*Subscriptions from the congregation Beth-El-Emeth,.....	$225 00
I. Binswanger,.....	100 00
Jacob Kahnweiler,.....	25 00
J. D. Ellis,.....	100 00

The subscribers, with a few exceptions, who have positively bound themselves for five years to contribute the sums set opposite their respective names, are from the Portuguese congregations Mikve Israel and Beth-El-Emeth; but the Board are assured that although the subscribers from the other congregations have not bound themselves for more than a year, they will not fail to continue their contributions annually for the farther term, so as to really place the Society, for that period, in a position that will not require any further appeal, or the getting up of any concerts, lectures, &c. It may be possible that those parties who have put their names to the list without any term of years, may intend to continue yearly during life.

The Council having recommended to the Society a representation in the Board of Managers from each congregation, according to the amount of their donations, the managers referred it to the Board of Council, and they trust the ticket prepared will be universally approved of by the members.

* The new subscriptions from the congregation Beth-El-Emeth for 5 years, amount to $295, and six new members.

The Board feel satisfied that the Society will, in the ensuing year, move in the good work in which they are engaged with less trouble in their financial resources than for the previous eleven years.

The Board also call attention of the members to the kind consideration of Henry Marcus, Esq., member of City Councils, in procuring an appropriation from the city of $500, for the present year, in aid of this Society, a resolution of thanks having already been duly sent him by the managers.

The Board expect to have the Home exempted from City and State tax for the present and future years, and trust their endeavors in behalf of the welfare of the Society will meet the approval of the members.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Reverently we return thanks to our Father in heaven for His protection during the last year—humbly we trust to be blessed with His merciful providence for the future, that every effort shall be strengthened that would promote successful useful continuance. We meet on this, the twelfth anniversary of the "Jewish Foster Home Society," to present to members and friends a review of its proceedings and progress since the last annual May meeting.

And what of its progress? Sedulously the managers have endeavored to carry out the one great purpose—to guard carefully the little ones entrusted to their care, to train them in the path of light and life eternal. During our sacred and national festivals we doubt there existed a happier household. Purim was celebrated with all the mimic festivities the history of that period would suggest—the anniversary of our freedom; the season of the Passover was welcomed with a zest that, at its every annual recurrence, cannot but deepen their attachment for the practice, as well as the principles, of the faith of every true child of Israel. With pride and pleasure we can refer to those who have taken their places as men in the world, as having nobly realized the hopes and wishes of those entrusted with their early guardianship—these are the mile-stones that mark our moral progress.

Our financial condition is our next consideration. It is true that almost every report of our Society has been characterized with a reference to the low tide of our funds—far more agreeable would it be if we were able to represent our enterprise with steady sails floating with its valuable freight down the smooth current of a liberally lined treasury. Accidental fluctuations, indeed, might occasionally relieve us from the pressure of the hour, yet the necessity would again occur, when a compromise must be made between a heavy demand and slender exhausted means, when strong effort must be made to meet the exigency by soliciting aid from whatever charitable source we might hope to obtain a response. When the Society was organized the subscription was placed at $2 per annum, which even then was insufficient to meet the current expenses. Now that every outlay, taxes, fuel, food, &c., is at a cost double or three-fold the amount at that period, it is scarcely reasonable to expect the Home could be maintained at the same rate. In view of these circumstances a special meeting (to which all the members were invited) was held in January, 1866, at which an advance in the price of subscription was decided upon. This resolution was ratified at the subsequent anniversary May meeting; membership was therefore determined henceforth at $5 per annum. Regarding this advance, some misapprehension exists in the minds of a few members—reference to the By-laws and this statement will prove the constitutionality as well, we trust, as the wisdom of the change. Still, in order to place the Institution on a firm basis, that it might be upheld without these inevitable unwelcome appeals, application was made to the Board of Council for such action as they might deem advisable. For the prompt measures adopted, and the very zealous labor of the Chairman, the Society are under deep obligation.

The Institution is the home of twenty-nine children, all in health and under educational training, eleven of the boys receiving the benefits of the Hebrew Educational Society, the remainder in daily attendance in the school-room at the Home, under the satisfactory care of Miss Cohen. This expense has, during the past year, been transferred from the managers to the Society, who make new acknowledgements to those managers whose private subscriptions has hitherto maintained the school.

The family have required more than usual medical attendance during the past year—one child suffered from an extremely dangerous and tedious attack of pneumonia, but with careful nursing and the constant devoted care of Dr. Bournonville, he is again, by the will of God, restored to his usual health.* The matronship has, since their last meeting, devolved upon Mrs. Levy, who exercises over the children a kind motherly influence. The managers have been endeavoring to procure a situation for one of the boys since some time prior to the last meeting, but without success. The Board would be very happy to have the assistance of members or friends in securing eligible situations for the boys.

To Miss S. C. Peixotto for her gratuitous labor in teaching Hebrew at the Home, the Society acknowledge their sense of obligation. To Dr. Jastrow, for his lecture in behalf of the Institution, which realized $601, we again publicly return our thanks; also to Signor Blitz for his two entertainments which realized $234.50. Our acknowledgements to the members of the Harmonie, for the use of this hall to-day and on previous occasions; also to Dr. David Roberts who kindly acts the dentist to our Institution, and the managers of the Jewish Hospital who have taken charge of one of the boys who needed surgical treatment as stated above. To the efforts of H. Marcus, Esq., of the City Council we are indebted for an appropriation $500. We thankfully acknowledge the reception of $400 from the Hebrew Charity Ball, and $22.22 from the Hebra Bickur Holim. From the congregation Mikve Israel the Society received an annual appropriation of $200. Our kindest thanks to Dr. A. C. Bournonville and to Dr. Roberts, D. S. From the estate of Mrs. F. H. Cohen, deceased, a legacy of $79.06, has been received by the Society. To all and every contribution received the Society tender acknowledgements. The managers commend the Institution to the kind offices of their friends, and solicit a continuance of their favor.

* One of the children required a surgical operation, and the ease demanding special constant attendance it was referred, with the sanction of our physician, to the Jewish Hospital, which kindly and promptly received the patient who is still under their care.

If at any time thou cease such bounty to provide,
 The very founts of love for this will soon be parched and dried;
 For we must share if we would keep that blessing from above,—
 Ceasing to give, we cease to have—such is the law of love.

EVELYN BOMEISLER, Secretary.

J. FINZI, Treasurer.

Philadelphia, May 14th, 1867.

May 12th, 1867. The Committee of the Board of Council to audit the Treasurer's accounts find the same correct, showing a balance in the hands of the Treasurer, on this date, of $728.54.

A. HART, Committee.

The Reports were unanimously approved and ordered to be sent to the "Occident," and "Jewish Messenger" for publication.

The inmates of the Home were present, were examined as usual, and recited creditably several pieces.

Amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws were proposed and laid over for consideration, until the second Tuesday in September.

A resolution was also adopted, to appoint a committee to revise the Constitution and By-Laws, and to report for the action of the Society at the meeting in September. Mess. Alfred T. Jones, A. Hart, J. L. Moss, Jos. Einstein and S. Hecht, were appointed said committee.

The following officers were then elected: Mrs. A. Allen, Mrs. H. Cohen, Mrs. L. J. Leberman, Mrs. I. Binswanger, Mrs. A. Hart, Mrs. M. Goldman, Mrs. Elias Wolf, Mrs. A. Finzi, Mrs. Leon Berg, Mrs. A. Goldsmith, Mrs. Rebecca King, Mrs. Isaac M. Asch, Miss Louisa Gratz, Mrs. Joseph Einstein, Mrs. Geo. Cromelien, Mrs. M. Dormitzer, Miss L. B. Hart, Mrs. S. Hecht, Mrs. T. Mindil, Mrs. E. J. Etting, Mrs. Myer Rheinstrom, Mrs. J. L. Florance, Mrs. Louis Lang, Mrs. J. L. Moss, Mrs. S. Dreyfuss, Mrs. August Cohen, Mrs. M. Simon, Mrs. P. Hart, Mrs. Jacob Espen, Miss E. Bomeisler. Mrs. A. Finzi and Mrs. T. Mindil subsequently resigned, when Mrs. M. Rosenbach and Miss Ellen Phillips were elected to fill the vacancies.

OF THE
AND
PHILADELPHIA.

1875.

PHILADELPHIA:
POTSDAMER & CO. PRINT,
No. 321 Chestnut St.

An Act,

Relating to The Jewish Foster Home of the City of Philadelphia, giving to the Managers the guardianship of certain children, and power to bind them out as apprentices.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the managers of the Jewish Foster Home of the City of Philadelphia shall have the guardianship of the children placed under their care and management during their minority ; and the said managers shall have power and authority, whenever, in their opinion, they may deem proper, to bind the said children, as apprentices, during their minority, to such persons, and at such places, whether within or outside of this Commonwealth, and to learn such trades and employment as, in the judgment of the said managers, will be most conducive to the benefit and advantage of the said children : Provided, that such charge and power to bind out given to said managers, shall not, in the cases of females, extend beyond the age of eighteen years : Provided, further, that in the indentures of said binding out, the said managers shall provide that said minors shall receive not less than three months' schooling in each and every year, during the term of said indentures.

JAMES R KELLEY,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

DAVID FLEMING,

Speaker of the Senate.

Approved this Twelfth day of March, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

A. G. CURTIN.

DECREEE BY THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that at a Court of Common Pleas held at Philadelphia, on the second day of September, 1874, the foregoing petition and instrument of writing was presented to the Court on behalf of the Corporation therein named, in order that the alterations and amendments therein set forth might be approved, and that the same might be deemed and taken to be part of the charter of the said Corporation.

Whereupon, on motion of Edward H. Weil, Esq., the Court ordered that said petition and instrument of writing be filed, and that publication of notice of said application be made according to law.

And now, this twenty-first day of September, 1874, due proof having been exhibited of such publication, and that notice of the application for the amendment of the name, style and title of the Corporation has been given to the Auditor General of the Commonwealth, the Court having examined the said instrument of writing, and being of opinion that the alterations and amendments are lawful and beneficial, and do not conflict with the constitution and law, do direct and decree that the alterations and amendments therein contained, shall be deemed and taken to be part of the charter of the said Corporation, and that the said instrument of writing be recorded according to law.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Court, the twenty-first day of September, 1874.

JAMES R. LUDLOW,

Judge.

Recorded in the office for Recording Deeds, &c., in and for the City and County of Philadelphia, in Charter Book F. T. W., No. 1., page 470, &c.

Preamble.

Deeply impressed with the necessity of providing a home for destitute and unprotected children of Jewish parentage, the ladies of the several congregations of Philadelphia have associated to form an institution denominated THE JEWISH FOSTER HOME, wherein orphans, or the children of indigent Israelites may be rescued from the evils of ignorance and vice, comfortably provided for, instructed in moral and religious duties, and thus prepared to become useful members of the community. For the government of this Society the original Constitution was adopted ; and

WHEREAS, Since the adoption of the Constitution of this Society, it has been found expedient to make alterations and amendments thereto, in order to more fully carry out the objects for which the Society was formed and to enlarge its sphere of usefulness ; it is now

Resolved, According to the provisions of the existing Constitution, that the following Constitution, in which are incorporated the desired alterations and amendments, be and the same is hereby declared to be the Constitution, upon its approval according to law.

Constitution.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The name of this Society shall be THE JEWISH FOSTER HOME AND ORPHAN ASYLUM OF PHILADELPHIA.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. Any citizen of Pennsylvania, who shall pay an annual contribution of Five dollars in advance, shall be a member; and this sum shall be charged annually thereafter, until a written resignation shall be tendered and accepted.

Section 2. Any member who shall pay the sum of One hundred dollars shall be a Life member, and subject to no further dues.

Section 3. Any citizen of Pennsylvania, who shall pay annually Twenty-five dollars, shall be a Patron of this Society, and may assume the privileges of membership, at any time, upon signing this Constitution.

ARTICLE III.

MEETINGS.

Section 1. The Annual Meeting of the Society shall be held on the last Sunday in April of each and every year unless it be a holyday, when it shall take place on the succeeding Sunday.

Section 2. The President may call Special Meetings of the Society whenever he may deem it expedient ; and he shall do so upon the written request of ten members within two weeks after the presentation of such request.

Section 3. Thirty members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS.

Section 1. The officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary and twelve Managers, to be elected from the male members, who shall constitute the Board of Officers, and eighteen ladies who shall constitute the Associate Board, and shall be elected in the following manner : The President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary shall be elected annually for one year ; and at the first election after the adoption of this Constitution, twelve Managers and eighteen members of the Associate Board shall be chosen, who shall divide themselves by lot at their first meeting after the election, into three equal classes, whose term of office shall be one, two and three years respectively ; and at every subsequent election four Managers and six of the Associate Board shall be elected for three years.

Section 2. The first election for officers under this Constitution shall take place at a meeting of the members to be called within one month after its approval according to law, and every year thereafter at the annual meeting in April.

ARTICLE V.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Section 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Society and Board of Officers ; he shall sign all orders drawn on the Treasurer, duly authorized by the Board and countersigned by the Secretary ; and shall have under his especial charge all title deeds, papers, books &c. of the Society, not especially entrusted to other officers.

Section 2. The Vice-President shall act as President in case of the absence of the President or his inability to serve.

Section 3. The Treasurer shall take charge of all moneys and securities belonging to the Society and shall keep a correct account of his transactions.

Section 4. The Secretary shall keep correct minutes of all the proceedings of the Society and Board, and shall perform such other duties appertaining to his office as the Society or Board may require.

Section 5. The Managers, in conjunction with the President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary, who shall constitute the Board of Officers, shall have full charge, control, direction and management of all the affairs of the Society and of the Home, and shall adopt and carry out all measures necessary to further the objects for which the Society was organized; and all investments of the funds belonging to this Society shall be made by their direction.

Section 6. The Associate Board of Ladies shall have the general supervision of the children in the Home; they shall assist the Board of Officers in the management of its internal affairs, and perform such other duties as shall be more particularly defined in the By-laws. They shall meet within one week after the annual election and organize by electing a chairman and Secretary from their number.

ARTICLE VI.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

The Board of Officers shall have power, if in their judgment they may deem proper, to establish an Industrial School for the purpose of instructing such children in the Home as may be selected, in the different branches of trade, of manufacture or of mechanical arts.

ARTICLE VII.

INVESTMENTS.

Section 1. The moneys derived from life memberships shall be invested and the income only shall be used; and all property, real or personal, given, bequeathed or devised to this Society for specified purposes, shall be held by the Society and be used according to and upon the trust specified or declared in the donation, grant, bequest or devise.

Section 2. All investments shall be in the corporate name of the Society and shall be designated by at least two-thirds of the Board of Officers; and no such investment shall be changed, assigned or altered except by the consent of a similar number. All transfers and sales of securities shall be signed by the President and Secretary, with the corporate seal of the Society affixed.

Section 3. The Treasurer shall, in his annual report, give a detailed statement of all such funds, stating the name and amount of each investment, the purpose for which it is held, and any other necessary particulars.

ARTICLE VIII.

AMENDMENTS.

The Constitution shall not be altered or amended, unless the proposition be made at an annual meeting and adopted at a subsequent special meeting, or at the next annual meeting, and by consent of two thirds of the members present at the meeting, and its approval according to law. The Secretary shall insert in the notices for the meeting that proposed alterations or amendments are to be acted upon.

By-Laws.

I.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The President, or in his absence, the Vice-President, or in the absence of both, a member selected from those present, shall take the chair half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting.

2. A quorum being present, the minutes of the preceeding meeting shall be read.

3. Reports of officers or committees may be read, though, by leave, the same may be received at any later stage of the proceedings.

4. Communications addressed to the President or Society shall be read.

5. Unfinished business.

6. New business.

7. No motion shall be received unless seconded, and the mover, if required, shall commit it to writing, with his or her name attached thereto.

8. When a member shall desire to speak, he or she shall rise and respectfully address the chair; should more than one rise at the same time, the presiding officer shall determine who is entitled to the floor, and from the decision in this case there shall be no appeal.

9. No member shall speak more than twice, and at no time longer than fifteen minutes, on any one subject, unless by permission of the Society or Board, which shall be decided without debate.

10. Any member may call for a division of the question when the sense will admit of it.

11. The yeas and nays shall be called at the request of six members of the Society, or if at a Board meeting, of two members of the Board.

12. When a blank is to be filled, and different sums, numbers or times shall be proposed, the question shall first be taken on the highest sum or number, and the longest and latest time.

13. Motions for reconsideration must be made and seconded by members who voted with the majority; and no reconsideration shall take place after the meeting next following that in which the business may have been finally acted upon.

14. The member first named on a committee shall be its chairman and make report of its proceedings, unless otherwise ordered.

15. All reports shall be made in writing, and those of committees shall be signed by a majority of such committee; provided, however, the minority shall in all cases be permitted to present their views in writing

16. All votes shall be given viva voce, unless a division be called for; and all elections of officers shall be by written or printed ballots.

17. At special meetings of the Society no business shall be transacted except that for which the meeting was convened.

18. No member shall leave the meeting, when organized, without permission from the chair.

19. The order of business may be suspended at any meeting by a vote of three-fourths of the members present.

II.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Section 1. Nominations for the various offices to be filled shall be made immediately after the reading of the minutes on the day of election, and the names to be voted for shall be on one printed or written ticket.

Section 2. The election for officers shall be conducted in the following manner: The President shall, previous to the day of election, appoint three tellers, who shall cause polls to be opened for such election on the day of the annual meeting and at the place appointed for such meeting, for one hour after being called to order.

The Secretary shall furnish the tellers with a correct list of members not in arrears, and the vote of no other person shall be received. As soon as the polls shall be closed, the tellers shall proceed to count the votes, and the persons having the highest number of votes cast for the respective offices shall be declared elected.

III.

THE PRESIDENT.

Section 1. The President shall appoint all committees not otherwise provided for.

Section 2. He may call special meetings of the Board or of the Society whenever he may deem it expedient, and shall do so upon the written request of five members of the Board or ten members of the Society; and the request shall state the object of such proposed meeting.

Section 3. He may vote at the meetings of the Society on the following subjects, viz.: At the election of officers, on alterations of the Constitution or By-laws, and upon the expulsion of a member, but in no other case, except when the meeting shall be equally divided, when he shall have the casting vote.

Section 4. He shall visit the Home at least once a week.

Section 5. He shall sign all orders on the Treasurer, and shall affix his name and seal of the Society to all official documents requiring them.

Section 6. He shall deliver to his successor in office, within ten days after the expiration of his term, all title deeds, books papers and other property in his possession belonging to the Society.

IV.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT.

In the absence of the President the Vice-President shall perform all the duties required of the President, and shall be entitled to the same privileges.

V.

THE TREASURER.

Section 1. The Treasurer shall give such security for the faithful discharge of his duties as the Board of Officers may approve; and the bonds; executed according to their decision shall be deposited with the President; provided, that no member of the Board of Officers shall be accepted as such security.

Section 2. He shall receive all moneys belonging to this Society, and pay all orders passed by the Board and signed by the President and Secretary.

Section 3. He shall deposit all moneys in his hands in such place as may be directed by the Board of Officers, in the name and to the credit of "The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia."

Section 4. He shall make investments when so directed by the Board of Officers, but no investments shall be made in any other name than that of the Society.

Section 5. He shall keep all the certificates of loan, or any other securities in his possession, in a tin box, with the name of the Society thereon, and shall deposit it in such place of safety as may be directed by the Board of Officers. Whenever called upon by the Board he shall exhibit to them any of the securities.

Section 6. He shall render monthly reports to the Board of Officers. He shall furnish a detailed statement of all receipts and expenditures at the annual meeting of the Society, as well as a complete list of investments, in accordance with Article 7th of the Constitution, after first having had his accounts audited by a committee of two of the Board.

Section 7. Within ten days after the expiration of his term of office, he shall transfer to his successor all moneys, securities, books and other property in his custody, belonging to the Society.

VI.

THE SECRETARY.

Section 1. The Secretary shall keep a roll of the members, shall issue notices of all stated and special meetings of the Board and Society, specifying the time and place of assembling, and shall cause the same to be delivered at least forty-eight hours before the time of a special meeting of the Society and three days before a stated meeting.

Section 2. He shall be present at all meetings of the Board and Society, and keep a correct record of all proceedings.

Section 3. He shall open a regular set of books and keep a correct account with all the members of the Society.

Section 4. He shall make out all bills for dues and hand them to the collector appointed by the Board, taking a receipt for the same.

Section 5. He shall (in a book provided for that purpose,) draw all orders for the payment of money authorized by the Board, and attest the same with his signature.

Section 6. He shall perform such other duties appertaining to his office as shall be required by the Board or Society, and shall be paid such compensation for his services as the Board may determine from time to time.

Section 7. He shall deliver to his successor in office all books and papers in his possession belonging to the Society, within ten days after the expiration of his term of office.

VII.

THE BOARD OF OFFICERS.

Section 1. The Board of Officers shall enter upon their duties immediately after the adjournment of the meeting at which they shall be elected, and shall continue in office until their successors are chosen.

Section 2. They shall hold stated meetings in the first week of every month.

Section 3. They shall fix the salaries of all paid officers or employees.

Section 4. They shall have the power to fill all vacancies in the Board until the next annual election.

Section 5. The seat of any officer shall be declared vacant who shall be absent at three successive stated meetings of the Board, without satisfactory excuse.

Section 6. In case of the absence or inability to act of both the President and Vice-President, the Board shall elect a President pro tem.

Section 7. Seven members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 8. The Board of Officers shall have power to appoint such executive officers of the Home as they may deem expedient, and to make rules and regulations defining their duties and responsibilities.

Section 9. The Board of Officers, at their first meeting after each annual election, shall, by ballot, elect three of their number and two of the Associate Board of Ladies, who, in conjunction with the President and Treasurer, shall be an Executive Committee for one year.

Section 10. They may, at the same meeting, elect a clerk, who shall perform such of the duties of the Secretary and receive such compensation as may from time to time be determined by the Board.

Section 11. They may also, if found necessary, elect an attending Physician, for the care of any sick or disabled children.

Section 12. Whenever the Board shall deem it expedient to establish an Industrial School, in conformity with the Constitution, they shall have power to make all needful rules and regulations for carrying this object into effect.

Section 13. They shall have the power to establish such rules and regulations for the good government of the Home as they may deem expedient, together with such sanitary laws and restrictions for admission of visitors as may be found necessary, and such rules must receive the assent of two-thirds of their numbers; and no rule shall be changed, altered or abolished except by the consent of a like vote.

VIII.

COMMITTEES.

The President shall appoint, as soon as the Board shall be organized, the following standing committees for the year :

a. Monthly Visiting Committees, to consist of three members of the Board and three of the Associate Board of Ladies.

b. Committee on Education and Discipline, to consist of three of the Board and two of the Associate Board.

c. Committee on Admission and Dismissal, to consist of four members of the Board and three of the Associate Board.

d. Committee on Indenturing, to consist of three members of the Board and two of the Associate Board.

e. Committee on Industrial School to consist of three members of the Board and two of the Associate Board.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee shall have special management of the Home, and the property and grounds appertaining thereto. They shall have power to make any necessary repairs at once, but all permanent improvements shall first receive the sanction of the Board. They shall make and supervise all purchases, under the direction and control of the Board, and shall enforce all rules and regulations. They shall examine and approve all bills against the Society before being acted upon by the Board. They shall have power to suspend any executive officer or other employee of the Home until the next meeting of the Board, when they shall report their action to the Board. They shall meet at least twice in every month at the Home, and report their proceedings at every stated meeting of the Board.

MONTHLY VISITING COMMITTEES.

The Associate Board of Ladies shall be divided into monthly committees, consisting of three of their number, who shall, in conjunction with the monthly committees of the Board of Officers, visit the Home at least once in each month. They shall see that the children are kept in a cleanly condition; that they are properly educated; that they are provided with sufficient and healthy food; that the wardrobe is always supplied with proper clothing and all the rules and regulations made by the Board of Officers are strictly enforced. They shall prepare and hand to the chairman of the Executive committee at least once in every month a list of all necessary supplies, clothing or furniture required for the use of the Home. They shall report any violation of the laws, rules and regulations to the Board of Officers or the Executive committee at their first meeting thereafter.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND DISCIPLINE.

This committee shall attend particularly to the business of the school, examine into the progress of the children, reward those who are deserving, and report quarterly to the Board.

COMMITTEE ON ADMISSION AND DISMISSAL.

Section 1. All applications for admission shall be referred to this committee. They shall report to the Board every application for admission to the Home, at the next stated meeting after the same shall have been received, together with all the circumstances of the applicant; Provided, however, that in urgent cases the committee shall have power to admit until the next meeting of the Board.

Section 2. This committee shall keep a book of Registry, provided for that purpose, stating the name, age and birth-place of every child received, the nearest connections of the child and their residences, the date of admission and of discharge, and if indentured, when and to whom, and the deaths occurring.

Section 3. They shall report monthly to the Board as to the population and condition of the Home.

Section 4. No child shall be dismissed, unless by a vote of the Board, except in cases of an aggravated nature, and only after due examination of the case has been made, when such dismissal must receive the sanction of a majority of the members of the committee in writing, who shall report their action in such cases to the next meeting of the Board.

COMMITTEE ON INDENTURING.

Section 1. It shall be the duty of this committee to procure suitable places for the children when they shall arrive at a proper age, attend to their indenturing, and report their action to the next stated meeting of the Board.

Section 2. All articles of indenture shall be signed by the President, Vice-President or President pro tem., and by the party taking the child.

COMMITTEE ON INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

This committee shall organize and superintend an industrial school, when required by and under the direction of the Board of Officers; and they shall adopt, with the sanction of the Board, such rules and regulations for the proper government of this department as may be required from time to time.

IX.

COLLECTOR.

Section 1. The Board of Officers shall elect a suitable person to collect all bills due to the Society for membership or otherwise, and they shall fix the amount of compensation for his services.

Section 2. He shall give such security for the faithful performance of his duties as they may deem sufficient, but no member of the Board shall be accepted as security.

X.

THE SUPERINTENDENT.

Section 1. The Superintendent shall have the general charge of the Home and of all the premises, and see that the regulations of the Board and the directions of the Executive and other committees are carried into effect.

Section 2. He shall diligently and carefully attend to the diet and health of the children; shall supervise their education and attend to their moral training; shall see that they are as far as practicable employed in some domestic or other useful labor, and shall allow them such recreation as will conduce to their health and pleasure.

Section 3. He shall assemble the children in a suitable room, and commence and close each day with family worship; the prayers to be alternately in Hebrew and English and Hebrew and German. He shall be present while the children are taking their meals and see that a blessing is given before and thanks returned after meals.

Section 4. The Superintendent shall keep in a book provided for that purpose, a regular account of all moneys received and disbursed by him on account of the Home, and also a record of all such contracts as he may have been authorized by the Executive committee to make, which book with the vouchers, shall be laid before the committee every month for examination.

Section 5. He shall keep a record of admissions into, discharges from and deaths in the Home, with the names and residences of the nearest relatives of the child, and with any other necessary information appertaining to the case; and he shall make monthly reports to the Board, and annually to the Society.

Section 6. He shall engage and discharge all male servants, subject to such orders as the Executive committee may think proper to give; and no employee shall leave the premises without his permission. He shall submit monthly to the Board a census of all persons employed on the premises, their rate of wages, and of all persons other than the children residing in the building. Servants employed in the Home shall be subject to the orders of the Superintendent and Matron.

Section 7. He shall not permit any person whatever, excepting the proper officers and servants of the Home and the members of his own family, to reside or board in the house, without express permission of the Executive committee

Section 8. On the decease of a child, he shall immediately notify the President, and cause the name of the child and time of the death to be entered in the register, and shall place the body at the disposal of the relatives or friends of the deceased for interment. Should the deceased be without relatives or friends he shall see to the proper burial under the directions of the President.

Section 9. The immediate relatives of a child who live in the city of Philadelphia, shall be notified of his or her decease in the Home; in case there are no known relatives in the city of Philadelphia, he shall send a certificate of death to the proper authorities of the place of birth or last residence.

Section 10. He shall prepare and present to the Board an inventory of all articles belonging to the Home by the first of April and October of each year, or sooner, if directed by the Executive committee.

(Until a Superintendent is appointed the duties devolving upon that office shall be performed by the Matron.)

XI.

THE MATRON.

Section 1. The Matron shall have general charge and supervision of all domestic arrangements of the institution; she shall see that cleanliness, order and propriety are uniformly maintained in it, and for that purpose shall engage and discharge the female servants and help, subject to such orders as the Executive committee may give. All articles requisite for and belonging to the Home shall be kept under her care.

Section 2. She shall have a maternal regard for the health and physical welfare of all the inmates of the Home.

Section 3. She shall see that proper economy is used in all departments and that the inmates are provided with sufficient and wholesome food, and shall assist the Superintendent in enforcing all laws, rules and regulations.

Section 4. She shall not leave the Home during the absence of the Superintendent, nor in any case without first reporting her wish to that officer, and during his absence she shall have charge of the Home.

Section 5. She shall be present at the meeting of the children with their relatives at the Home.

Section 6. She shall designate the larger girls to do housework, so that they may become acquainted with those duties.

Section 7. She shall see that the clothes of the Superintendent and employees are properly washed and cared for.

Section 8. She shall take particular care that no food of any kind, or any article is given to the children by visitors or others, without first passing through her hands.

Section 9. She shall, previous to retiring for the night, visit every dormitory and see that the children are properly cared for, and that all lights and fires in the house are in proper condition. Should any children require her special attendance, she shall visit them during the night and observe their condition and situation.

Section 10. The matron shall examine all trunks, valises and other packages brought into the Home by or for any child, and she shall exclude therefrom beds, bedding, bed clothes and all such other goods or articles as may be unclean or otherwise prejudicial to health.

Section 11. She shall see that the children rise and are properly dressed in season for family worship.

Section 12. She shall visit every part of the house at least once a day.

XII.

OF ARREARS.

No member in arrears for more than one year shall be allowed to vote or hold office, provided such person shall have been duly notified of his or her indebtedness.

XIII.

The culinary and dietary arrangements of the house shall be in accordance with Jewish laws.

XIV.

AMENDMENTS.

No addition, alteration or amendment shall be made to these By-laws, unless the proposition be submitted at a meeting of the Society or of the Board, and shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members present at a subsequent meeting of the Society. The purport of the proposed alteration, addition or amendment shall be inserted in the notices for the meeting for action upon the proposition.

ARTICLE VII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

PROPERTY AND INVESTMENTS.

Section 1. This Society shall have power and capacity to hold, take, acquire and receive real and personal estate by gift, bequest, devise or purchase, and to sell and convey in fee simple or otherwise, or to mortgage any part, or all the real estate now held or which may at any time hereafter be held by the Society, but the aggregate of the clear annual value of the real and personal estate shall not exceed the limit fixed by law.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The twenty-fourth annual meeting of "The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum" was held at Handel and Haydn Hall, corner of Eighth and Spring Garden Streets, on Sunday, April 27th, 1879, at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mr. I. Binswanger, President, in the chair.

In the absence of the Secretary, Mr. Philip Lewin acted in his place.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved.

The President having appointed Messrs. Simon Pfaelzer, Morris Stern and T. B. Potsdamer as tellers to conduct the election, requested them to take their places, and declared the poll open.

The following nominations were made: for President, I. Binswanger; Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; Treasurer, Philip Lewin; Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller. For Managers to serve for three years, Levi Mayer, H. Hamburger, Hart E. Berg, Marcus Katz. For Members of the Associate Board to serve for three years, Mrs. Henry Cohen, Mrs. I. Saller, Mrs. S. M. Fridenberg, Mrs. H. S. Frank, Mrs. P. Hart, Mrs. Adolph Rosenbaum.

The Secretary pro tem. then read the annual report submitted by the President and Executive Committee, also the Treasurer's annual report, which were, upon motion, approved.

On motion of Mr. H. Hamburger, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this association are eminently due and hereby tendered to Mr. Louis Mayer for the efficient and valuable services he has rendered as its Secretary during the last four years.

Resolved, That a copy of the above resolution be transmitted to Mr. Louis Mayer.

On motion of Miss E. Bomeisler, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted and a copy to be sent her.

Resolved, That the sincere acknowledgments of the members of the society of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum be tendered Mrs. A. Hart for her valuable services in behalf of the society since its organization.

Resolved, That the society experience much regret in being obliged to dispense with her active co-operation, which has been extended during her long term of office as Vice-President and efficient Manager of the society.

On motion, Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting, together with the several reports, be printed in pamphlet form for distribution.

The polls were ordered closed by the President, and the tellers reported all the nominees unanimously elected for their respective terms of office.

Adjourned.

PHILIP LEWIN,
Secretary pro tem.

ANNUAL REPORT.

Total,	42,—23	“ “	19	“

During the earlier part of the year numerous applications for admission had to be declined for want of room; the Admission Committee, however, has at present several applications under consideration, which, when acted upon, will fill the Home again to its utmost capacity. The inmates of the Home, thanks to our Heavenly Father, enjoyed almost uninterrupted good health during the past year, and our institution presents at this time a Home in its true sense.

The "Hebrew Education Society," which for the past twenty-two years kindly provided instruction for the inmates of our Home, and since their discontinuance of the daily school, had them instructed in Hebrew at the Home by Mr. H. Polano, had to withdraw the latter in consequence of his services being required at their own school-room. The profound thanks of your Board of Managers, so eminently due to the officers and managers of the Hebrew Education Society, are again most cordially tendered.

In consequence of the withdrawal of Mr. Polano, and of the resignation of the Matron, Miss Bertha G. Zalinski, on the 23d of October last, it was concluded to secure the services of a married couple, the husband capable of teaching Hebrew and German and to superintend the Institution, the wife to fill the position of Matron. On the 12th of December, Mr. and Mrs. S. Weil, of New York, were unanimously elected for the positions named. They have thus far discharged their duties to the entire satisfaction of the Board.

The invitation received from the Committee of the United Hebrew Charities for a Conference on the subject of creating a Union of the various Hebrew Charities, was responded to by the appointment of a similar committee on our part. Several meetings have been held, and after full discussion the following resolution was adopted :

"Resolved, That we recommend that the Board of Officers of the several Societies represented at this meeting, to wit: The U. H. Charities, the Jewish Hospital Association, Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum, the Temple Waisenverein, shall meet at least semi-annually to consider such matters as may more fully carry out the objects of their respective societies."

This resolution was submitted to your Board and unanimously approved by them. As some of our sister societies did not ratify this resolution of the Conference Committee, no further steps have been taken.

It affords us peculiar pleasure to note the universal desire of our Jewish community to foster the institution under our charge. The Society for Entertainment in aid of the Hebrew Charities of Philadelphia, ever mindful of the wants of the orphans, the aged, the sick and destitute among us, have made a preliminary arrangement for a grand fair to be held in December next; one-half of the net proceeds to be set aside for a building fund for the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum, and the other half to be divided in the same ratio as the proceeds of the last Charity Ball. We fervently trust that their efforts will meet the response from a generous community which they so richly deserve, and that next year, the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the establishment of the Home, may be celebrated by laying the corner-stone of a building suitable in every respect for an Orphan Asylum, and worthy of the Jews of Philadelphia.

The number of patrons and members of the Society has been decreased during the year by two patrons and thirty-eight members; but, through the combined exertions of the Board, and Ladies' Associate Board, and the Committee of Ladies under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. L. Strouse, twenty-three patrons and one hundred and twenty-three members have been added, while they also obtained quite a number of donations.

The offer of the Board of Governors of the H. U. College Cincinnati, to admit a boy of our Asylum possessed of the necessary preparatory knowledge to the benefit of a free scholarship, has been gratefully accepted by your Board. Mr. Simon Muhr, of the Education Committee, generously offered two prizes of ten dollars each to the most meritorious boy and girl, and two of five dollars each to the next best boy and girl. Mr. Lucien Moss has donated a large book-case with a fine and carefully-selected collection of books, which he hopes will be a nucleus to one of the best libraries of any Jewish institution in the country. May his hopes be realized! To the Managers of the Hebrew Charity Ball we are indebted for the handsome sum of $2,072.34. The following legacies have been received: $25—a dividend of the legacy from the late E. J. Greentree, and $200, less the collateral inheritance tax, from the estate of the late Miriam G. Etting. The following have been announced: $500 from the estate of the late Abr. Sussman, of Bellefonte, and $500 from the estate of the late H. Lazarus, of Paris, formerly of this city. The legacy of $1,000, made by the late Nathan Becker, failed in consequence of the testator's will having been made less than thirty days before his death. We also note with gratification that the late Dr. Isaac Hays recommended to his heirs in his will our cherished institution as one of the several societies devoted to education and charity to be remembered by them.

Mrs. A. Hart—one of the founders of the Home, and connected with its management since its organization—resigned as a member of the Ladies' Associate Board, to the unfeigned regret of her colleagues and the Board of Managers, who highly appreciated her valuable services on behalf of the Home.

The children learning various trades, and boarding outside of the Home, are now earning from $2.50 to $7 per week, and every effort is made by the Indenturing Committee to make them all entirely self-supporting. It is also contemplated to give some of the boys an education to fit them for agricultural pursuits, and as soon as one or more boys with the preparatory knowledge attain the proper age, he or they will be sent to the Agricultural College of the State to qualify themselves for this pursuit—above all others the most important and desirable. The education thus obtained, may in time not only be of great advantage to those boys, but also to the cause of the Colonization project, which will engage the attention of the Convention of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, to take place in New York next July.

Weekly sewing meetings have been held by the Ladies at the Home during the winter, under the management of Miss Esther Baum, who has been indefatigable in her attention to this new enterprise.

Before concluding this report we beg to tender our acknowledgments to the untiring services of our physician, Dr. A. Bournonville, to our dentist, Dr. Isaac Levy, to the Jewish Hospital Association, to Wills' Hospital, and to all who have lightened our duties by their liberal contributions to the Home in money and otherwise, as fully set forth in this and in the accompanying reports.

Respectfully submitted,

I. BINSWANGER,

President.

ANNUAL MEETING.

1880.

The twenty-fifth annual meeting, and the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the existence of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia, was held on Sunday afternoon, April 25th, at 2 o'clock, at St. George's Hall, corner of Thirteenth and Arch Streets.

The children of the Home and a number of invited guests, conspicuous among whom were Mrs. Anna M. Allen, of New York, the first President of the Home, Mrs. Henry Cohen, the last President of the old management under the ladies, and Mrs. B. H. Feustmann, the present President of the Ladies' Associate Board, being seated on the platform, the President, I. Binswanger, Esq., called the meeting to order, when the children sang "Adon Olam," after which a fervent and eloquent prayer was offered by Rev. S. Morais.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved.

The President having appointed Messrs. Isaac Rosskam, Simon Pfaelzer and T. B. Potsdamer as tellers to conduct the election, requested them to take their places, and declared the poll open.

The following nominations were then made: For President, I. Binswanger; Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; Treasurer, Philip Lewin; Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller. For Managers to serve for three years, A. E. Massman, H. L. Strouse, Mayer Frank, and A. Bacharach. For Members of the Associate Board to serve for three years, Mrs. Levi Mayer, Mrs. Henry Hahn, Mrs.

David Aaron, Mrs. B. H. Feustmann, Miss Esther Baum and Miss E. Bomeisler; to serve for two years, Mrs. Herman Myers.

The Secretary then read the annual report of the President and Executive Committee and of the Treasurer and, on motion, the same were approved and ordered to be entered on the minutes.

The Treasurer submitted a list of the legacies to the Home since its foundation, and the Superintendent presented his report for the year, the reading of which were, on motion, dispensed with.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to have all the reports, together with the proceedings of this meeting, printed for distribution amongst the patrons, members and contributors to the Building Fund.

The following communications were read and the Secretary instructed to enter them on the minutes.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23d, 1880.

Isidore Binswanger, Esq., President Jewish Foster Home:

DEAR SIR:—I am sorry to state that my health, although recovering, will not permit me to venture a public address on Sunday next.

It would have given me much pleasure to express my sentiments on an occasion so rare in the annals of American Judaism, and above all to offer to yourself and the able Board of Managers, as well as to your predecessors, my hearty congratulations on having established and carried on, with brilliant success, one of Philadelphia's noblest institutions.

May the Lord grant you the pleasure of seeing it soon re-established on a scale worthy of, and in keeping with the charitable disposition of our Jewish citizens.

Yours very respectfully,

M. JASTROW.

JEWISH HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION,
 PHILADELPHIA, April 20th, 1880.

I. Binswanger, Esq., President of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum:

DEAR SIR:—The Board of Officers of the Jewish Hospital Association tender you their congratulations on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of your institution.

May its shelter and care of the orphans be extended with increased vigor, and may it receive the assistance it so richly deserves, to enable it still further to advance its sphere of usefulness, and train those intrusted to its protection so that they may become good and useful members of society.

Very truly yours,

WM. B. HACKENBURG,
President.

S. A. STERN,
Secretary.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23d, 1880.

I. Binswanger, Esq., President Board of Managers of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum, Philadelphia, Pa.:

MY DEAR SIR:—On behalf of our ward Lena and ourselves accept our sincere thanks for the kind invitation extended and our regrets at the inability to be present at the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of your noble charity.

In having adopted one of the children left to the kind and gentle mercies of your humane society, we have in a measure become acquainted with the good treatment and superior training the orphan waifs committed to your care receive, and, as a consequence, though strangers to a charity in a measure local, yet with that feeling of humanity for our kind which makes all humanity kin, we witness with great pleasure the prosperity of your organization, and feel the deepest solicitude for its future permanent welfare.

Be assured, sir, of our deep sympathy with the noble cause you represent, and let me express the hope that this monument to your philanthropy may perpetuate your memories and be as a beacon light to suffering and helpless humanity in all time.

Respectfully,

MR. AND MRS. M. HOFFA.

The children then sang "We Come Again."

The President, in introducing the Rev. G. Jacobs, expressed the deep and sincere regret felt at the absence of Rev. Dr. M. Jastrow and its cause, whereby the meeting was deprived of the pleasure of his presence and co-operation on this happy occasion. The Rev. George Jacobs then delivered the following address :

ADDRESS OF REV. GEORGE JACOBS.

Ladies and Gentlemen :—There is no way in which we can better realize that the wheels of time never cease their revolution, than when we contrast what was, with what is—when we see childhood has passed into adolescence—youth into manhood.

Such are the feelings that must fill your hearts to-day, when you assemble to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of The Jewish Foster Home, an institution which has gained the love and regard of so many laborers in the walks of benevolence—an institution which has outgrown not its usefulness—not the sympathy of the community, but merely the proportions of the building which contains the objects of your solicitude.

On Sunday, the 4th of February, 1855, a few of our esteemed coreligionists assembled at the Synagogue of the Mickve' Israel Congregation, to devise a plan to succor needy orphans of Hebrew parentage, and secure for those not blessed with worldly means, the fostering care, the religious education, the moral training that would mould their characters into such permanent form, that no after influences, were they ever so adverse, could destroy the seeds that had been planted in early life.

See the venerable Rebecca Gratz presiding over the deliberations, and giving not only material support, but the moral influence which her presence never failed to inspire. Many of her co-laborers, like herself, have been summoned "to that bourne whence no traveler returns," but it is gratifying to think how many present then, are present to-day, and although time has weaved many a silver thread amid their locks—although many a frame may have become weak, yet are their spirits undaunted as ever, and their solicitude fully as great on behalf of their bantling, which has at length reached its twenty-fifth year, beloved and cherished by all, and claiming and receiving so much interest from our brethren of every shade of religious opinion.

Aye; benevolence is a platform on which every Hebrew can stand. It smooths away all difference of thought and action; it appeals to our highest and holiest sympathies; it teaches us again and again the grand lesson that "all Israel are brethren."

O spirits of our departed sisters! Were it possible for you to be cognizant of what passes on earth, how would you rejoice with us on this anniversary—how would you be cheered as you beheld from your Heavenly abode that the seed-corn you planted has grown and prospered; how your co-laborers and others have tended the sapling till it has become "like a tree planted by rivulets of water, which giveth forth its fruit in due season, and whose leaves will never wither."

But it is not alone in thinking of the founders of the Jewish Foster Home that we are reminded how time passes. It is when we realize that the little ones of twenty-five years ago have grown to man's and woman's estate, and are illustrating the teachings they received under your fostering care. It is when we call to mind how many have been rescued from a life of evil and sloth and ignorance, and reared as useful members of society; not brought up to become drones in the busy hive of humanity, young men of whom we can justly be proud for their possession of true culture and the moral virtues which refine the intellect; young women who are now mothers in Israel, and are making practical use of the sublime lessons they once received. This alone is sufficient to rejuvenate us even when we realize that so many years have elapsed. With hearts thrilling with joy and satisfaction we should become young again in spirit and feeling, not only to do good to those who now claim our attention, but to incite others to take a deep and abiding interest in our noble "charity."

It is a "charity," but not in the narrow signification of the word. It is a "charity," but not in the cold and lifeless form in which the term is often presented before us.

"It is that 'charity,' which exalteth a nation." It is that charity which, like the soul within us, is an emanation from the Divine Author of our being. It is a ray of light from the source of all light. It is the fire descending from Heaven upon the altar of our hearts to kindle therein the desire to perform those noble deeds which stamp us as being created in the image of God and fashioned after His sacred likeness.

Where can this emanation, this ray, this spark of charity find material for more grateful sacrifice to Him above, than when we look around and see who are the recipients of its benefits. Not the stalwart man or woman crushed under the weight of adverse fortune; not the sick and disabled who may hope for returning health; not even the aged and infirm who have had their joys and pleasures in life, and are satisfied to continue the last remaining stages on the journey to "the valley of the shadow of death" without murmur or discontent. No! We have before us a different class—one that presents the strongest claim on our sympathy and benevolence. There is truly something in the sight of helpless childhood to enlist every sacred emotion of which the human heart is capable, for, not alone do we feel a natural sorrow for those who have been bereft of father or mother, but this feeling is heightened when we consider that those to whom such sorrows have come, have not the means of mitigating the evils which gather around unprovided-for infancy or youth, who are thus exposed to temptations almost too dreadful for the mind to dwell upon.

It was for the purpose of spreading the mantle of protection around helpless innocence, that this noble institution was called into existence twenty-five years ago. It was to teach the little Hebrew waifs, if I may be allowed to use such a term, that even without a parent, they were not friendless on earth, that although deprived by death or otherwise of those who should watch over their childhood, there were yet those of their own faith who would care for them, and "train them up in the way they should go, so that when they became old they would not depart from it."

Such was the promise—the pledge to the orphans and to the community. Has it been fulfilled? Have the laborers worked faithfully and to the best of their ability to accomplish this? The sight presented before us is answer enough. Your deep and abiding interest in the noble cause is sufficient response, and I feel assured, it does not require any appeal on my part to induce you to continue your solicitude for these orphans and those who may, in future, be committed to your care. Let nothing daunt your energy to make the Foster Home one of our model institutions; to give it the means of extending its sphere of usefulness; to encourage all who labor on its behalf, so that its twenty-fifth anniversary may be the beginning of an era of increased prosperity, a still more general recognition of its manifest claims on the benevolence and good-will of our community, so that when we see reared the new "Home,"—aye, a Home, with all the sweet associations that cluster around it, and its sphere of usefulness enlarged, although cherishing pleasant recollections of the spot where our former labors were directed, we may feel the words of our Almighty Father addressed to us like to the seer of old; "the glory of this latter house shall be greater than that of the former," and pray to Him in all sincerity of heart, "to keep us alive and sustain us" to behold the return of another such festive anniversary of The Jewish Foster Home of Philadelphia.

The following recitations were rendered and greeted with much applause: "Nixie's Reverie," by Mamie Jacobs; "The Swallow and I," by Pauline Wollstein and Flora Bernstein; "Little Chick's Duty," by Tilly Werner and Abby Coster; "The 100th Psalm" in Hebrew, by Sam Pearlstein; "God's Care," by Sally Jacobs. Next came the singing of "The Sleigh Bells," by the children, after which, Edward H. Weil, Esq., delivered the following address:

ADDRESS OF EDWARD H. WEIL, ESQ.

Ladies and Gentlemen:—If we could turn back and look at the condition of the Hebrew charities twenty-five years ago, we would perceive that they consisted of a few alms-giving associations struggling for a feeble existence, having no centre of communication and thus, from necessity, very often working at cross purposes. To-day, we see the society of the United Hebrew Charities a strong and powerful organization, with a central office and radiating arms that reach the length and breadth of this great city, prompt and efficient in relieving every case of distress, its strength and capability having been fully tested by ten years of trial. To-day we also behold a noble Jewish Hospital, reared for the sick and the suffering, and a home for the aged and the feeble, which, in its management and its appointments, ranks second to none on the Atlantic slope of this continent. But the crowning point of our pride is seen to-day. We have learned by the annual report that has been just presented to us, that a fund has been subscribed for building a new Orphan Asylum, which will place this great charity, to befriend the friendless and to be a father to the fatherless child, upon a sure and permanent foundation.

One of the most common mistakes, is the belief that we can learn nothing new concerning the mode of charitable relief and the administration of the affairs of these societies. There was a time, not long past, when intelligent people in civilized countries, believed in the power of magic and of sorcery, in the machinations of witches and the appearance of ghosts. By the steady and increasing light of knowledge, magic and sorcery, witches and ghosts have all disappeared, never to return upon this earth. There was a time when men were racked and tortured and burned because of the faith they professed, as the history of the terrible persecutions of the Hebrew nation can vividly attest; but these things are rapidly passing away, and it is hoped that this earth will never witness their like again. There was a time when it was believed that the work of charity consisted in giving alms to the beggar and in supporting families in idleness, because they were poor; but a new light has been shed upon us and we have now learned that to give to the mendicant who goes from door to door and to raise up families as permanent paupers, is a curse to the recipient and a still greater curse to the whole community, and that the true mode of helping the deserving poor, is to aid them to help themselves—to make them self-dependent by honest industry which brings upon them the great blessing of self-respect. We also have learned that the true way to keep down pauperism and vice, is not to allow children to graduate from the schools of the slums, and that they must walk in the paths of industry, if we would fain have them walk in the paths of virtue. There are districts where proper industrial institutions have been established for friendless and orphan children, that have produced these results—a parish work-house almost deserted, and a county jail almost tenantless. And if it be that the great Creator of the universe requires from His creatures sacrifices and oblations and incense in His worship, surely to care for homeless and fatherless little ones, must be the sweetest of savors, the most fragrant of incense, the most holy of offerings that can be offered to propitiate His favor and to win His tender love.

One thought more and I have done. I look forward to the day when these three institutions, the United Charities, the Hospital and the Orphan Asylum, will be placed under one general management. In the main, those who help to support one, help to support all and I can see no good reason why it is necessary to have three separate and distinct boards of government to manage them. It is said that it would be next to impossible for one body to have general direction of the affairs, but I will answer this by simply pointing to the great British Empire, upon whose domains, it is said, the sun never sets—whose people are counted by the hundreds of millions—whose territory embraces not merely the British Isles in Europe, but also vast and almost illimitable spaces in Asia and North America, in the West Indies and Australasia—and yet the chief administration of its affairs is conducted around a council board in a small room in London, and the laws for its government are made in a House of Commons that sits in a room no larger than the one in which we are now assembled, and although the day may be distant, the accomplishment of union in the direction of our three great charities, is what I look forward to, as a measure required by every consideration of economy and careful attention, and evolving that power that concentration of energies is always sure to produce.

This was followed by a recitation, “The Choice of Trades,” given with amusing emphasis by Moses Fishgraber, Louis Phillips, Gussy Myers, Sammy Coster, George Fishgraber and Joseph Rosenberg; a German Poem “Israel’s Gerettete Fahne,” by Ernestine Glazel. “Moses’ Mother-in-law” was very prettily recited by Eddy Meyerson.

Mr. Isaac Feinberg, a former inmate of the “Home,” read an appropriate poem composed by himself. This young gentleman having learned his trade thoroughly, is now an expert lithographie engraver, well known in our community and deservedly esteemed for his consistent life as a Hebrew and his rapidly developing skill and talent.

The following is the poem :

Upon the east shore of the middle sea
 Whose waters roll between three continents,
 Once Israel dwelled. Hither his prophet-chief,
 The leader who had given him a law
 Of right and truth, the hope of all mankind,
 Had brought him from the darkness and the dread

Of the Egyptian bondage. Through the sea,
 Wherein his proud pursuers, whelmed and crushed,
 Sank 'neath the water's downward-roaring strength,
 In safety he had passed: and journeyed on,
 Through the dread wilderness, unto the mount
 Whose awful presence saw him take the vows
 Which sent him forth a teacher of mankind.
 Then sin brought punishment, but still upheld
 By the same Mighty Arm that freed the slave,
 At last through years of wandering, he came Unto that land of promise which his heart
 Had longed for during all the days of woe.

And here he made his home and here sat down,
 To learn by trial and by suffering;
 By fierce-waged war of aspiration high,
 'Gainst passion base; by test of peace and war:
 Victorious rule and burden of defeat,
 The mighty task which unto him was given.
 Then when his years of hard probation, deep
 Had graven in his heart the precious truths
 Of God's existence and man's debt to man,
 A great wave came and took him up and set
 Him down amongst the fields and towns of men,
 To teach the lessons he himself had learned.

And he took up his burden. Mocked and scorned,
 He cried unto a world that would not hear.
 He sang the love of knowledge in an age
 Sunk in dark ignorance profound, intense.
 He spoke of peace and brotherhood, unto
 A race whose feuds and strifes made many a house
 Divide against itself, whose cruel wars
 Filled the whole land with desolation, dark.
 He spoke of man's equality and rights,
 Of generous charity and helpful love,
 Unto a people, crushed and ridden down
 By an oppressive few, whose cruel strength
 Came from the very source which they abused.
 Still on he toiled, nigh broken down, yet strong:
 Until the eastern light, which for a time,
 Across the Pyrennees had faintly pierced
 The gloom of Europe, was extinguished. Then,
 When Israel's only refuge seemed the grave,

From out the west there blazed a glorious light,
 Not from the setting but on-moving sun.
 Unto that light men turned and were rejoiced.
 And Israel again took up his staff,
 And from the later bondage, he went forth
 Unto this second land of promise.

Here

Again he made his home and sat him down,
 To teach the lessons he himself had learned.
 And men now listened to his voice and he Took on a better and a nobler life ;
 Mingling as man with men and doing manly work.
 And when the evil thoughts and evil deeds
 Which still controlled the old world he had left,
 Sought fiercely to obtain admittance here,
 He also stood among the men whose strength
 And wisdom have built up this better world.

Four years ago, a nation's mighty voice
 Took up the echoes of one hundred years,
 Blended and bound them with harmonious chords,
 Into a hymn that rose from every heart.
 The long reverberations, pealing loud,
 Rolled o'er the eastward and the westward sea.
 The nations paused and listened. At the sound,
 They also trooping came to join the throng,
 Whose joyous song rose up unto the stars
 That trembled faint responses to their cry.

One-fourth the cycle of a century
 Has quickly drawn its partial arc of time,
 Since the commencement of the noble work
 Which causes your rejoicing on this day.
 Of those who planned it then and firmly laid
 Its first foundations, some are now no more,
 For, having filled their lives with usefulness,
 They have lain down within the arms of Death
 And now are resting in a quiet sleep.
 But those who of that goodly company,
 Do still remain with us unto this day,
 And those who later on the way, have joined In the good work, have reason to be glad.
 For, faithful to the memories of your race

Who practiced kindness in a cruel age;
 And faithful to the promise of this land
 Which offers an asylum unto all,
 You practice kindness to the orphan and
 You offer an asylum unto those Who, but for this, were helpless and alone.

Not with the sound of cannon nor the peal
 Of the great organ's voice, do you rejoice.
 Not for a nation's life, from tyrant power
 Won and exalted to a proud renown;
 But because that which makes a people's strength,
 Which builds up nations and preserves them pure,
 By you is saved from the destroying touch
 Of want and woe and poverty abject.
 You ask for no reward, for that you find
 In the results of the good work performed;
 You ask no recompense, for that your hearts
 Which prompt you to the deed do furnish you;
 But you shall have reward and recompense,
 Beyond desire or wish or hope or dream.
 And from the very ranks of those whom you
 Have lifted up and brought to use and worth,
 New workers shall arise, who will assist
 In bearing up the burden, self-imposed;
 And opening to others that retreat
 Which was to them a haven and a home,
 In their first days of early helplessness.

The tellers announced that all the nominees had been unanimously elected. The children then sang "Hallelujah," when, on motion, the meeting adjourned and the audience separated, much pleased with the events of the afternoon.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,
Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the Patrons and Members of "The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia:"

During the past year the admissions to the Home were ten children (six boys and four girls); the withdrawals, eight children (four boys and four girls); of the latter, one was indentured, two apprenticed, and five returned to their respective parents.

Of the apprentices, one was returned to his father, three became of age, leaving on roll in the Home thirty-four children (eighteen boys and sixteen girls); boarding outside of the Home, eight children (seven boys and one girl), who are all present this day to join in thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for the blessings bestowed upon our cherished institution during the first quarter of a century of its existence and to implore His Divine aid and protection, to enable us to properly discharge the duties devolving upon us.

The three apprentices (two boys and one girl) who, during the last few months, became independent of the Home by the attainment of their majority, have been a credit to themselves and to the system of our Home in rearing and educating children. They have learned useful trades and satisfactorily fill their positions at remunerative wages, with a bright future before them.

They are proud and grateful for the opportunities they enjoyed and feel that they are the peers of all good men and women. The remaining apprentices are all doing well and are earning very fair wages, as will be seen by the Report of the Treasurer.

The children at the Home are instructed in the primary class by the resident teacher, Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, a graduate of the Home. Those farther advanced attend our public schools, while religious instructions and Hebrew and German are imparted to all by the Superintendent, Mr. Solomon Weil. An examination was held on January 18th and 25th, which proved the zeal of the teachers and industry of the pupils.

The prizes donated by Mr. Simon Muhr, of the Committee on Education, were awarded as follows: The two first prizes, consisting each of ten dollars and a silver medal, to the most meritorious boy, to Samuel Pearlstein; and to the most meritorious girl, to Ernestine Glazel. The second prizes, consisting each of five dollars and a silver medal, to George Fishgraber and Carrie Wolf. A handsome umbrella, presented by Mrs. A. P. Schone-man, for the most diligent child, was awarded to Harry Bachenheimer. Mr. Muhr at the same time announced that he would yearly give the same prizes in money and that the medals would be transferred every year, to those children entitled to the prizes.

Our young student at the Union Hebrew College, in Cincinnati, is giving a good account of himself, his averages, during the last two quarters, ranging from 75 to 100.

The financial affairs of the Society are in a far better condition than at any time since its foundation. The Israelites of our city have awakened to the fact that our institution for the receiving and educating of orphans and waifs, is an absolute necessity in a city like ours, and are contributing handsomely toward its support, as patrons and members, as well as by donations.

The regular income, from dues, interest and donations, exceeded the expenditures by $1,859.80.

The following legacies have been received during the year:

$500 (less collateral inheritance tax), from the estate of the late Henry Lazarus, of Paris ; $500 (less collateral inheritance tax), from the estate of the late A. Sussman, of Bellefonte, Pa. ; $2,000 from Mr. Jacob Rosenberg and Mrs. Henrietta Rosenfelt, of Chicago, the trustees of the estate of the late Michael Reese, to be known as the "Michael Reese Charity Fund," conditioned that $25 of the interest be annually given to the best scholar among the orphans of our asylum ; $50 from the estate of the late Benjamin Loeb ; and $10, further dividend, from the estate of the late E. J. Greentree.

The $2,000 were invested in a mortgage on a valuable property. The mortgage on the house, now occupied by the Home, has been paid off, leaving the Society free of all indebtedness. The maintenance of the children during the year, including all expenditures, was for each of the 42 children, less than $3 per week.

A number of our co-religionists having noticed the liberal spirit evinced by the Society for entertainments in aid of the Hebrew Charities, in proposing to give a fair to raise a fund for a new building, so much needed by us, voluntarily stepped forward to make direct contributions for that purpose, instead of incurring the expenses of a fair and of taxing the public at large. The amount donated thus far by the Israelites of Philadelphia, has reached the sum of $19,118.

The Society did not, however, lessen their efforts in behalf of our, as well as all other Hebrew Charities, as is evidenced by the handsome sum of $2,931 allotted to us, as our share of the net proceeds of the last Hebrew Charity Ball. Our thanks are herewith tendered to them and all the kind donors as per annexed reports of the Treasurer and Superintendent and especially to our sister charity, "The Jewish Hospital Association," for the many supplies of vegetables sent us at various times. We also acknowledge our deep gratitude to Dr. A. C. Bournonville, for his unceasing attention and kindness to the children of the Home, since its organization, and our acknowledgment to E. H. Weil, Esq., and Dr. Isaac C. Levy for their valuable services.

We deeply regret the withdrawal from participation in our councils of our colleague, Mrs. Henry Cohen, the late efficient President of the Ladies' Associate Board and formerly the President of the Home, whose unceasing devotion to the interests of the institution since its organization, has been highly appreciated, not only by us and the Board of Managers, but by all who felt the influence of her experience and great abilities.

In December last, we were requested by District Grand Lodge, No. 3, of the Independent Order B'nai B'rith, to appoint a Committee of Conference, to consider the feasibility of uniting with them, instead of erecting a separate asylum for the orphans of the members of their Order.

The invitation was accepted, the two committees met and unanimously agreed to recommend: that the I. O. B. B. of District No. 3, by paying annually one dollar for each member unto the Treasurer of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum, be entitled to a representation in the Board and Associate Board, to the extent of one-fourth of their number and to the privilege of placing in the Home, one-fourth of the whole number of children who could be maintained and educated, subject to the general rules and regulations of the Home and to the ratification by the Society, provided that the necessary amendments would be passed and approved by the court. This was unanimously ratified by the Grand Lodge, subject to its adoption by two-thirds of the various Lodges.

The Committee on Sites have received quite a number of proposals, but deemed it proper to defer their consideration until a sufficient amount is subscribed to the building fund. The latter is now assured, as many of our co-religionists have not yet been called upon or been heard from, who will, no doubt, respond in a liberal manner.

It is the intention of the Committee and the Board to select two suitable locations—one in the city and one in the suburbs—and to submit the choice to the members and contributors to the Building Fund, at a meeting to be called at an early day.

The numerous-attended weekly sewing meetings, under the management of Miss Esther Baum, show the deep hold the cause of charity has on the women of Israel.

On the happy event we are celebrating to-day, we congratulate you most sincerely. The happy family we present to you and the good accomplished through your moral support and liberal aid, with the blessings of Providence, must cause a corresponding feeling of satisfaction to you. The noble women (many of them are with us to-day, who, twenty-five years ago, called the Foster Home into existence and for many years watched and fostered it with tender care), must feel no little pride and happiness at its having grown up to mature age, full of health and hope. Let us, fellow-Israelites, continue to demonstrate that we still hold dear the Divine Law which commands us to take care of the poor, nurse the sick and to educate and protect the orphans.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The twenty-sixth annual meeting of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum was held on Sunday morning, April 24th, 1881, at 10 o'clock, at the Mercantile Hall, 849 Franklin street, I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the Chair; Benjamin F. Teller, Secretary, about eighty-five members being present.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting was dispensed with, and were approved as printed in the report sent to the members.

The President having appointed Messrs. Isaac Roskam, Simon Pfaelzer, and T. B. Potsdamer, as tellers to conduct the election, requested them to take their places, and declared the poll open.

The following nominations were then made:—for President, I. Binswanger; Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; Treasurer, Philip Lewin; Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller; for Managers to serve for three years, Simon Muhr, Louis Pollock, Leo Loeb, and Samuel Sternberger. For Members of the Associate Board to serve for three years, Mrs. Charles Bloomingdale, Mrs. Emilie S. Van Beil, Mrs. I. Binswanger, Mrs. I. Hyneman, Mrs. Henry L. Strouse, and Mrs. Simon Pfaelzer.

The Secretary then read the annual report of the President and Executive Committee and the Treasurer submitted and read his annual report, which were on motion approved and ordered to be entered on the minutes.

The Treasurer submitted a list of the legacies to the Home since its foundation, a list of the contributors to the Building Fund, and the Superintendent presented his report for the year, the reading of which were, on motion, dispensed with.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to have all the reports, together with the proceedings of this meeting, printed for distribution amongst the patrons, members, and contributors to the Building Fund.

The following resolutions offered by the Rev. Dr. M. Jastrow were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS the acquisition of the new building for the sacred purposes of this Association bids fair both to increase its usefulness and extend its sphere of action,

Therefore be it resolved, That the thanks of this Association are due and hereby tendered to the President and the Officers thereof who through their indefatigable efforts and wise circumspection have succeeded in procuring an unexcelled home for our orphans.

Be it further resolved: That, in order to make the task of our representatives in the work of charity an easy and pleasant one, action be taken forthwith to provide the means necessary for ridding our beloved institution of the burden of a mortgage debt.

Rev. Dr. Jastrow, addressed an earnest appeal to the meeting on behalf of the resolutions offered by him and was followed by Mayer Sulzberger Esq., who strongly advocated the same.

Whereupon the following additional subscriptions to the Building Fund were made :—

Meyer Guggenheim,	$500 00

Mrs. Henry Hahn,	25 00
Mrs. I. Hyneman,	25 00
Louis Pollock,	25 00
Arnold Kohn,	25 00

On motion of Mayer Sulzberger Esq. it was resolved that the President appoint a committee of the Board to obtain additional subscriptions to the Building Fund.

The tellers announced that thirty-six votes were cast for each of the nominees, whereupon the President declared them duly elected for their respective offices.

On motion,—adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,
Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the Patrons and Members of "The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum:"

The celebration of the Twenty-fifth anniversary at our last annual meeting, was, after its adjournment, continued at the Home by a sumptuous entertainment provided for the children and participated in also, by many of the former inmates of the institution, and by a number of the members of the Board, and of the Ladies Associate Board. The Home, which had been handsomely decorated, presented an appearance exceedingly creditable to the Committee in charge of the same.

The mirth and enjoyment of the children was one not easily forgotten by those who witnessed it. It was one of those occasions which touch the heart and leaves an impress of sweet recollections. The Home was kept open an entire week to the public, with the Reception Committee in attendance. Many of the friends of the Asylum visited it, and gladdened the hearts of the little ones by donations of various kinds.

During the past year, two boys and one girl were indentured, one boy returned to his mother, and one girl to her uncle. Three boys and two girls were admitted, leaving the same number of children on the roll as before,—thirty-four—eighteen boys and sixteen girls; and five—four boys and one girl, boarding outside. Of those boarding outside the Home two boys were returned to their respective parents, and Moses Sloop, for five years in the employ of Messrs. H. Muhr's Sons was drowned while bathing in the Delaware River. His death was deeply regretted by his employers, and by all who knew him, as he was greatly esteemed for his many good qualities.

In December last, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Weil tendered their resignations as Superintendent and Matron, and were succeeded by the Rev. N. Ruzanowsky and wife. The children's health has, thanks to our heavenly Father, been very good throughout the year with but few exceptions. Their progress in their studies has been very satisfactory. The examination held by the Board of Managers, on October 31st, reflected credit on the teachers as well as on the pupils. The Michael Reese prize was awarded to Ernestine Glazel.

The financial condition of the Society is gratifying; the income (without the legacies), exceeded the expenditures two thousand, three hundred and sixty-three dollars and fourteen cents, as will be seen by the report of the Treasurer.

The legacies received during the year were as follows: from the Estate of the late Samuel Frank, one thousand dollars; from A. B. Loeb, the amount bequeathed to the Society by the late Abraham Adler, which had become inoperative in consequence of the will having been executed less than thirty days before his death,—two hundred and fifty dollars; from the Estate of the late Isaac A. Strauss, of Wilkesbarre, seventy-five dollars.

The subscriptions to the building fund amount to twenty-three thousand, three hundred and eighty-seven dollars, of which twenty-two thousand and thirty dollars and forty-seven cents, has already been paid to the Treasurer.

The amount realized from the Charity Ball, through the indefatigable exertion of the Society for entertainments in aid of the Hebrew Charities, has again exceeded our most sanguine expectations. The handsome sum of three thousand, one hundred and eighty dollars, and ninety-nine cents, has been handed to us for our share of its net proceeds. We tender them our heart-felt thanks, and likewise to the many kind friends, whose donations are reported by the Treasurer and Superintendent. We also acknowledge our indebtedness to the Jewish Hospital Association, and to the Wills Hospital, for the prompt attention our wards always receive from these noble institutions, whenever occasion calls for it, and our high appreciation of the continued care and attention to our children on the part of Dr. August C. Bournonville, and Isaac Levy, D. D. S. The valuable professional services rendered by our solicitor, Edward H. Weil, Esq., and our Conveyancer, Mr. Benjamin F. Teller, call for our thanks, which are herewith tendered.

The weekly sewing meetings have become quite a useful feature at the Home, and have been well attended by the Ladies of our Jewish community. The energy and zeal shown thus far by the Superintendent, leads us to hope that the religious and moral training of the children, will receive that attention from his hands, and those of his wife (as matron), so essential to the true prosperity of our institution.

The resident Teacher, Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, continues to fill her position as Teacher, and as Assistant Matron, in a very acceptable manner.

The death of Mrs. Abraham Hart, one of the founders and one of the warmest supporters of the Home, who for twenty-four years, as Vice-President and member of the Board, was untiring in the discharge of her duties, has called for our warmest sympathy with her bereaved family. May she enjoy in the realms above, the bliss which awaits the truly charitable and benevolent.

In accordance with the announcement made in our last annual report, a meeting of the Contributors to the Building Fund, and of the Members and Patrons, was held on Sunday, October the seventeenth, to determine upon the selection of a site for the new Home, whether in the city proper or in its suburbs. The question was fully, warmly and ably discussed on both sides, and then decided by a large majority in favor of a rural site. It affords us peculiar pleasure to report to you, that your Board of Managers have purchased a property comprising upwards of four and a half acres, an exceedingly well built, commodious house with all modern improvements, water, gas, steam-heaters, ice-house, stable and coach house, beautiful grounds and gardens in the best state of cultivation, and situated in a fine, healthy location on Mill Street, about ten minutes' walk from Wingohocking station, on the Germantown Railroad, and about fifteen minutes' walk from the Jewish Hospital.

The price paid for the same was thirty-five thousand dollars; the necessary additions and improvements to make this property complete for its purpose, have been authorized.

The Building Committee have retained the services of our co-religionist, Mr. Charles I. Berg, as Architect, and have visited a number of kindred institutions here, and in New York, to profit by their experience. The Committee are doing all in their power with due regard to economy, to supply all that is wanted to promote the health, comfort, and cleanliness of the children. The grounds will give your managers the desired opportunity to have the boys instructed in gardening and farming, to give the children useful and healthy exercise during the Summer vacation, and in due time, to establish an industrial school.

Every effort will be made to have the Home ready for dedication and occupancy early in June.

The amount yet required to pay for the building and improvements, with the necessary Furniture, in addition to what may be realized from the sale of the property now occupied, is estimated at ten thousand dollars.

We appeal to you, Israelites of Philadelphia, who have so liberally and encouragingly responded already, to further aid us to make good our promise:—that the new Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum, of Philadelphia, shall be dedicated to its holy purpose free of debt.

We beg you to devote an hour or two to visit this cheerful and healthy site selected for the Home, wherein to rear and educate the little waifs and orphans, and to fit them to become good and useful men and women.

We feel then assured that our appeal will not be in vain. May Providence bless our efforts to make this new Home and Asylum, a source of pleasure and pride to you and your posterity.

Respectfully submitted,

Philadelphia, April 24th, 1881.

I. BINSWANGER,

President.

ANNUAL MEETING.

1882.

The twenty-seventh annual meeting of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum was held on Sunday afternoon, April 30, 1882, at 3 o'clock, at the Home, I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the chair; Benjamin F. Teller, Secretary, about one hundred and twenty-seven members being present.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting was dispensed with, and were approved as printed in the report sent to the members.

The President having appointed Messrs. Simon Pfaelzer, T. B. Potsdamer and M. M. Newman as tellers to conduct the election, requested them to take their places, and declared the poll open.

The following nominations were then made:—for President, I. Binswanger; Vice President, Mason Hirsh; Treasurer, Philip Lewin; Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller; for Managers to serve for three years, Levi Mayer, H. Hamburger, Hart E. Berg and Marcus Katz; for Members of the Associate Board to serve for three years, Mrs. Levi Mayer, Mrs. Henry Hahn, Mrs. B. H. Feustmann, Miss Esther Baum, Miss E. Bomeisler and Mrs. A. P. Schoneman.

The Secretary then read the annual report of the President and Executive Committee, and the Treasurer submitted and read his annual report, which were on motion approved and ordered to be entered on the minutes.

The Treasurer submitted a list of the legacies to the Home since its foundation, a list of the contributors to the Building Fund, and the Superintendent presented his annual report, the reading of which were on motion dispensed with.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to have all the reports together with the proceedings of this meeting printed for distribution amongst the patrons, members and contributors

The following amendment to the By-Laws .—

Amend SECTION 2, ARTICLE VII of the By-Laws, so as to read: "They (the Board of Managers) shall hold stated meetings on the second Sunday of every month," was on motion amended so as to read: SECTION 2, ARTICLE VII. "They (the Board of Officers) shall hold monthly meetings on such a day as they may fix at their first meeting after the annual meeting of the Society." And on motion the Amendment as amended was adopted.

The tellers announced that fifty-seven votes were cast for each of the nominees, whereupon the President declared them duly elected for their respective offices.

On motion, adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,

Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the patrons and members of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum:—

The first annual meeting since the dedication of the new Home has been called here in order that you may have the opportunity to inspect it and to judge of its condition and adaptability for its purpose, and at the same time be gladdened by the healthy and happy appearance of the little ones under our charge. We sincerely congratulate you on the selection of the site chosen, the buildings erected thereon and the grounds surrounding it. It will, we believe, compare favorably with all kindred institutions. To make the Asylum in every other respect what it should be has been our aim in the past and will be in the future, and we appeal to you for your further aid and encouragement.

The dedication ceremonies which took place on the twelfth of June last were fully described in the daily papers, so that a repetition here is superfluous.

The removal of the children from the old Home took place on the first of July last and the consecration of the Synagogue on the following Sunday.

During the year ending the 1st inst. seven children left the Home; two (girls) were indentured; two (one boy and one girl) were placed out to learn trades; two (one boy and one girl) were returned to their respective parents, and one boy was expelled. Admitted during the same period were sixteen, fourteen boys and two girls; leaving forty-one children—twenty-seven boys and fourteen girls—at the Home, and six (five boys and one girl) boarding in the city, total forty-seven children.

The health of the children is all that could be desired. The examination held in October by the Board of Managers showed that the children have attained much proficiency in their various studies. The "Michael Reese" prize was awarded to Leon Strouse for the highest average in his studies; the two first "Simon Muhr" prizes were awarded to Gussie Myers and Carrie Wolf, and the two second "Simon Muhr" prizes to George Fishgraber and Abbie Coster.

The report of the Treasurer herewith annexed shows the ordinary receipts during the year to have been $10,946.26, and the current expenditures $10,183.28, and a balance in the hands of the Treasurer on the 1st inst. of $1,888.60, and a balance in the Building Fund of $121.48. The amount subscribed to the Building Fund is $30,825.75, of which only $599. remain uncollected. The building on Fifteenth street was sold for $9,000. The improvements made including the furniture, &c. cost $12,242.62 and have all been paid for, the further sum of $12,000 was paid on account of the mortgage, leaving but $8,000 remaining on the buildings.

The munificent sum of $3,505.25 for our share of the net proceeds of the Hebrew Charity Ball attests the energy, zeal and devotion to the cause of charity of the members of that noble society. To them and to all the kind donors whose donations are enumerated in the reports of the Treasurer and Superintendent our heartfelt thanks are tendered. Also to our sister institution, The Jewish Hospital Association.

Dr. Aug. C. Bournonville and Isaac Levy, D. D. S., ever anxious for the best interest of the Home, offered again their valuable services, but suggested the appointment of a physician and dentist nearer the institution. In accordance therewith the Board unanimously elected Dr. A. Shapringer, the resident physician of the Jewish Hospital, with the consent of the Board of Officers of said Hospital, as the attending physician, and Dr. A. D. Rosenthal as attending dentist, and at the same time elected Dr. A. C. Bournonville as consulting physician and Dr. Isaac Levy as consulting dentist ; for the kind services rendered by them our best thanks are due.

The sewing meetings of the ladies have been held during the winter at the rooms of the Hebrew Education Society and were as usual well attended. The Superintendent and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. N. Ruzanowsky have realized the expectation of the Board of Managers, and Miss Amelia Rosenbaum continues to give entire satisfaction as teacher. Mr. W. Ruzanowsky who assisted his father in teaching has shown much tact and ability.

The number of members now on roll is 665 (an increase of 69); of patrons 57 (an increase of 6); of the former, however, we regret to say 76 have not yet paid their dues, though frequently called upon by Mr. L. Schlesinger, the collector ; the amount of five dollars is so small yet so necessary to the proper maintainance of this worthy institution that we trust that every member and patron will not only promptly pay the small amount due by them, but will kindly aid us by inducing their friends and neighbors to enroll their names as patrons or members.

With grateful hearts we again invoke the blessings of our heavenly Father on this, our cherished institution, and its inmates.

Respectfully submitted,

I. BINSWANGER,

President.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28th, 1882.

To the President of the Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN :—I respectfully submit herewith a report of the various donations received by me during the year ending this day and the accompanying letter just received from the principal teacher of the S. Robert's School, Mr. E. Neville, and would add that the children show much proficiency in their studies of Hebrew, Religion, and German. Divine service has been held in the Synagogue on the eve and morning of every Sabbath, and Holiday, sermons were delivered by me every Sabbath in English and German alternately. The devotion and participation in the chanting of the prayer by the children is worthy of all commendation.

Respectfully submitted,

REV. N. RUZANOWSKY,
Superintendent.

SPENCER ROBERT'S SCHOOL.

PHILADA., April 28th, 1882.

REV. N. RUZANOWSKY.

Dear Sir :—All of the children from the "Home," who are in my Division, are doing very well, both in conduct and lessons. Barney Allegro deserves special mention for his industry.

Your co operation is heartily appreciated.

Respectfully Yours,

E. NEVILLE,
Principal.

ANNUAL MEETING.

1883.

The twenty-eighth annual meeting of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia was held on Sunday afternoon, May 6th, 1883, at 3 o'clock, at the Home, on Mill street, Germantown. I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the chair, Benjamin F. Teller, Secretary, and about three hundred members being present.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting was dispensed with, and were approved as printed in the report sent to the patrons and members.

The President having appointed Messrs. Simon Pfaelzer, Isaac Rosskam and Herman B. Blumenthal tellers to conduct the election, requested them to take their places and declared the polls open.

The following nominations were then made:—for President, I. Binswanger; Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; Treasurer, Philip Lewin; Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller; for Managers to serve for three years, A. E. Massman, Mayer Frank, Henry L. Strouse and A. Bacharach; for Members of the Associate Board to serve for three years, Mrs. Henry S. Frank, Mrs. Isaac Saller, Mrs. Adolph Rosenbaum, Mrs. Isaac Rosskam, Mrs. Herman M. Myers and Mrs. Fannie Muhr.

The Secretary then read the annual report of the President and the Executive Committee, the Treasurer's report, the reports of Rev. N. Rosenau, Superintendent, and of the Committee on Education with the communication of the Principal of the Public School attended by the children of the Home.

The Treasurer submitted a list of Legacies to the Home since its foundation.

On motion the several reports were accepted and ordered to be entered on the minutes.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to have all the reports together with the proceedings of this meeting printed for distribution amongst the patrons, members and contributors.

The polls were closed and the President announced that the various nominees for their respective offices were unanimously elected.

On motion, adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,
Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE
PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the patrons and members of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum:—

At the date of our last annual report, the number of children on roll at the Home was 41 (27 boys and 14 girls), boarding out of the Home 6 (5 boys and one girl). Since then 22 children (12 boys and 10 girls) were admitted, and 15 withdrawn, of whom 4 girls were indentured, 6 girls and 5 boys were returned to their parents, leaving 48 children now at the home (34 boys and 14 girls). Of those boarding in the city 2 boys were indentured to learn trades, one was released as he became self-supporting, leaving but three on the roll—a total of 51 children.

Their health has been good throughout the year, and though Diphtheria has prevailed to an alarming extent for a few months in our city, our Home has, under the blessings of Providence, escaped this dreadful disease. Much credit is due to the Superintendent and Matron for their great care and watchfulness, and to our Physician for his prompt attention whenever called upon.

We had but two children seriously ill, who were at once removed to the Jewish Hospital, where they received that care and attention so essential to their speedy recovery.

The progress in the children's education is fully set forth in the accompanying reports of the Committee on Education and of the teachers. The introduction of the Kindergarten system is quite a feature; the exhibition of the little ones at the annual examination was very gratifying. The Michael Reese prize of $25 has been awarded to Gussie Myers; the first Simon Muhr prizes of $10 each with a silver medal were awarded to Henry Bachenheim and Flora Bernstein; the second Simon Muhr prizes of $5 each and silver medal, to Louis Cohen and Tillie Werner.

The discipline in the Home is all we can desire.

Of the 565 members on roll April 1882, 4 resigned, 4 died, 69 became patrons, and 15 were stricken from the roll for non-payment of Dues, leaving 489 members, to which 18 new members were added, as also two new life members, but, through the indefatigable exertions of your Board, and especially one of its members, the number of patrons has been more than trebled, 172 against 57 last year. The gentleman alluded to has by his own individual exertions procured 111 new patrons and 6 new members, thereby increasing the annual income for the future about $3000.

The receipts and expenditures during the past year are fully set forth in the Treasurer's report.

The ordinary receipts were \$10,233. The current expenditures for the maintenance of the Home were \$10,207 $\frac{31}{100}$. Amongst the former was the handsome sum of \$3,555 $\frac{62}{100}$ for our share of the proceeds of the Hebrew Charity Ball.

The following legacies were received during the year.—

From the Estate of Seligman Maas,	$	61.90
“ “ “ Mayer Arnold, $100 less $5 tax,		95.00
“ “ “ Fanny Lowenstein,		188 77
“ “ “ Sol. Eckstein and Wife [9 shares of Pa. R. R. Stock]		555.75
“ “ “ B. H. Feustmann,		250.00
Received for 2 Life memberships,		200.00
“ “ $1,500—City 6 per cent. Bonds,		1,961 25
“ “ 1,000—Pa. R. R. Bonds,		1,220 00
“ “ 1,000—C. and Amboy R. R. Bonds,		1,120.00
“ “ 2,000—4 per cent. U. S. Bonds,		2,392.50 which amounts have been used to pay off the balance of $8,000 due on the mortgage of the Mill St. property.

Dr. A. Shapringer and Dr. A. D. Rosenthal having removed from the city, resigned their positions as Physician and Dentist of the Home. Such were accepted with regret. Dr. Jos. B. Potsdamer was elected in the place of the former with the consent of the Board of Officers of the Jewish Hospital, he being the resident physician of said Institution, and Dr. C. H. McNaughton was elected in the place of the latter.

The Ladies Sewing Circle under the management of Miss Esther Baum has again extended its usefulness, many ladies having joined the same. Their meetings were held at the houses of the participants in the work and were largely attended.

Miss M. A. Gay, of Germantown, has very kindly extended many courtesies to the children of our Kindergarten and their teacher.

Dr. Mansbach, the Veterinary Surgeon, has frequently given his professional services to the stock of the Society free of charge.

The cash donations are detailed in the Treasurer's report, the many other donations in the report of the Superintendent.

To all who have so kindly and liberally aided us, to our Solicitor and Medical Staff, who are ever ready promptly to respond when called upon, we tender our cordial thanks.

We also take pleasure in expressing our appreciation of the manner in which the Superintendent and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. N. Rosenau, and the resident teacher, Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, have discharged their arduous duties to the Home and its inmates.

In thus presenting you the annual summary of our stewardship, we recognise with grateful hearts the blessings bestowed by our Heavenly Father upon this Asylum, and on our humble efforts on behalf of the waifs and orphans entrusted to our care. We also acknowledge our thanks due you Patrons and members of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum for the very generous aid and encouragement given us, which enables us to announce to you, that this beautiful Asylum with its healthy and comfortable surroundings, unsurpassed by any of its sister institutions of our city, is now yours free of all encumbrance, with an increased annual income which will at least be fully equal to all the expenditures for the maintenance of the same ;—but this is not all we have to thank you for,—the universal interest manifested by you and all the Jewish public of our city, their vieing with each other in adding comfort and enjoyment to the children, stimulates us to further exertions in extending the usefulness of the Home.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

To the President and Managers of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN :—The Committee on Education take pleasure in presenting the following report :

There are in the Home School, under charge of Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, 21 pupils. The children are interested in their studies, and give evidence of the moral as well as mental discipline exercised in the School-room. Within the past year Kindergarten work and preparatory drawing lessons have been introduced. 26 children, 21 boys and 5 girls, attend the Spencer Roberts Public School, the visits of the Committee to the School and the reports of the Superintendent have been entirely satisfactory, many of the pupils exceeding the general average, both in conduct and mental attainments.

On returning from Public School, the children are instructed by the Superintendent of the Home in Hebrew, German and Vocal music, also in Bible History and religious duties, in which latter branches they take special interest.

At the annual examination, the Reese prize was awarded to Gussy Myers. The Muhr prizes, two $10 gold pieces and two $5 gold pieces, were awarded to Harry Bachenheimer, Louis Cohen, Tillie Werner and Flora Bernstein.

Respectfully submitted,

LEVI MAYER, Chairman,
LOUIS POLLOCK,
SAMUEL STERNBERGER,
MRS. H. HAHN,
E. BOMEISLER, Secretary.

Philadelphia, April 24th, 1883.

To the Chairman of the Committee on Education, of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

DEAR SIR:—I take pleasure in submitting my annual report.

During the past year the boys and girls, with a few exceptions, have shown a desire to improve their opportunities at home as well as at the Public Schools; their deportment is all that can be desired.

From 48 inmates 26 attend different grades in the Public Schools, and 21 are instructed at home by Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, the teacher of our Home, and our scholars are doing very well. It is only due to her to acknowledge that, with unabated zeal and praiseworthy energy, she does not merely advance the gifted scholars, but she pays a marked attention to those children who are weak in intellect and slow of comprehension, and it is delightful to see how fondly the little ones are attached to their teacher.

One girl (Fannie Glasel) is at home learning housekeeping and sewing.

When the children return from the Public School I instruct them in Hebrew, German and Vocal music. They, however, take special interest in Bible History and Religious instructions; these studies go hand in hand, every opportunity is taken to draw the attention of the children to the manifestations of Providence in great nature, and to moral teachings of history. The children are attentive, diligent, and their progress is also satisfactory.

Respectfully submitted,

REV. N. ROSENAU,
Superintendent.

Philadelphia, April 17th, 1883.

SUPERINTENDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT.

To the President of The Board of Managers of The Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN :—In compliance with the usual custom I submit to you my yearly report, with a list of the various donations received during the year ending April 22d, 1883.

The general health of the children during the past year has been, thanks to our Heavenly Father, very good, with but a few exceptions.

About the progress of the children in their studies, I respectfully refer to my report addressed to the Committee on Education.

The girls have also a share of housework to perform before they go to school in the morning. They also take quite an interest in sewing, darning and tatting, taught by the seamstress, Miss Josephine Brown.

The boys have their special duties to attend, and they do every thing cheerfully.

During the vacation the older boys are instructed by the gardener in farm work.

On Saturdays and Holidays I continue to address the children in English and German alternately ; the boys and girls are attentive and well behaved during the hours of devotion.

During the services Hymns are rendered by a chorus of 54 voices.

On Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur we had services in our Synagogue with Minjan, as the Jewish residents of Germantown joined us in our prayers. Mr. A. I. Rosenthal kindly assisted me on these occasions.

Respectfully submitted,

REV. N. ROSENAU,

Superintendent.

ANNUAL MEETING.

1884.

The twenty-ninth annual meeting of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia, was held on Sunday afternoon, April 27th, 1884, at 3 o'clock, at the Home on Mill street, Germantown. I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the chair, Benjamin F. Teller, Secretary. About four hundred and fifty members being present.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved.

The President appointed Messrs. Isaac Roskam, Benj. W. Fleisher, and Theodore B. Potsdamer, tellers to conduct the election, requested them to take their places and declared the polls open.

The following nominations were made: for President, I. Binswanger; Vice President, Mason Hirsh; Treasurer, Philip Lewin; Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller; for Managers to serve for three years, Leo Loeb, Simon Muhr, Louis Pollock, and Simon Kohn; for members of the Associate Board to serve for three years, Mrs. I. Binswanger, Mrs. Isaac Hyneman, Mrs. Simon Pfaelzer, Mrs. Henry L. Strouse, Mrs. Emilie S. Van Beil, and Mrs. Moyer Fleisher.

The Secretary read the annual report of the President and Executive Committee, the Treasurer's annual report, and that of the Committee on Education.

The Treasurer submitted a list of Legacies to the Home since its foundation to date, a list of the Assets and Liabilities, and the Superintendent's report of Donations, which were received and on motion ordered to be filed and the reading thereof be dispensed with.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. M. Jastrow, Rev. S. Morais, Rev. George Jacobs, and Rev. E. Eppstein.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to have printed for distribution amongst the patrons, members and contributors the various Reports together with the proceedings of this meeting.

On motion the several reports were accepted and ordered to be entered on the minutes.

The polls being closed the President announced that the several nominees were duly elected for their respective offices.

On motion, adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,
Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the patrons and members of the "Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum :"—

In presenting to you our Annual Report, we recognize with profound gratitude the blessings of health and prosperity bestowed upon us by our Heavenly Father.

At the date of our last Annual Report there were 48 children in the Home (34 boys and 14 girls) since then 12 children (6 boys and 6 girls) have been admitted, making 60 children (40 boys and 20 girls). During the year 4 children (1 boy and 3 girls) have been withdrawn, of which 2 girls and the boy have been indentured and one girl returned to her parents, leaving 56 children (39 boys and 17 girls) at the Home, and 4 children (3 boys and 1 girl) learning trades and boarding in the city, making a total of 60 children (42 boys and 18 girls) under our immediate care.

Their health has been good until recently, when a number of the children were taken sick with the measles, but they have again fully recovered.

The accompanying report of the Committee on Education is certainly very gratifying, the annual examination proved how zealously the teachers have attended to their duties, and how commendable was the conduct and industry of the children.

The Michael Reese prize of Twenty-five Dollars was awarded to Abram Cooper. The Simon Muhr first prizes of Ten Dollars each, to Gussie Myers and Abby Coster ; the Simon Muhr second prizes of Five Dollars each, to George Fishgraber and Gazelle Sachs.

For the purpose of affording the Rabbis and Teachers of our various Congregations a better opportunity of being present at our public examinations, it has been decided to hold them in the month of June, in the afternoon, in place of the forenoon as heretofore.

The Life Members now number 11, the Patrons 178, and Members 453, the latter should be increased to at least 1000. During the year 11 members have died and 52 resigned, most of the latter having become Patrons.

The income and expenditures of the Society are fully set forth in the Treasurer's report. The ordinary receipts were $13,174.90. The current expenditures (including permanent improvements and furniture) $12,650.12. The former includes $726.76 for the wages received by the children learning their trades, and the latter their cost of maintenance for board and clothing, which very nearly balance each other and reduces the expenses of the Home proper about $800.

The legacies received during the year were as follows:—

Estate of Seligman Maas,	-	-	-	(balance)	$ 33.10
Estate of Louis Dannenbaum,	-	-	-	-	237.50
Estate of Mrs. Sophia Gerstley,	-	-	-	-	50.00
Estate of Sarah Levy,	-	-	-	-	50.00

These amounts together with $100.00 received from Mrs. Benjamin F. Teller for Life Membership have been invested in a well secured mortgage.

By the resignation of Messrs. Samuel Sternberger and Hart E. Berg as members of the Board (the latter having removed to New York), the Society has lost the efficient services of devoted and active workers. Messrs. Simon Kohn and Solomon Blumenthal were elected to fill the vacancies for their unexpired terms.

Dr. Isaac Levy, the Dentist to the Home for upwards of a quarter of a century, withdrawing from active practice during the year, tendered his resignation, which was accepted with sincere regrets, and our thanks were tendered him for his kind and valuable services rendered during that period.

Drs. G. W. Lutz and W. Harvey Roop, of Germantown, kindly tendered their services, and were unanimously elected Dentists to the Home. They have been unremitting in their attention to the children.

On October 14th, 1883, Dr. J. B. Potsdamer resigned his position as attending physician, and was temporarily succeeded by Dr. M. Engelsman until January 13th, when Dr. M. S. Cohen, the Resident Physician of the Jewish Hospital, was, with the kind consent of the Board of Managers of our sister Institution, elected to fill his place. We are also indebted to Drs. Thomas G. Morton and H. F. Hansell for valuable professional services, and to the ladies of the Sewing Circle who have continued their generous work during the winter on behalf of our Institution.

The liberal donations in cash and of articles of every kind during the year are specifically mentioned in the annexed report. The former includes the munificent sum of $3,449.48 allotted to us for our share of the net proceeds of the Hebrew Charity Ball.

Too much praise cannot be given to the managers of the Ball for their arduous labors in behalf of the various "Hebrew Charities" of our City; to them, as well as to all the kind donors above mentioned, to our solicitor, to our medical staff, and to all who have so kindly aided us, our best thanks are due, not less so to you, who have so liberally supported the Institution, and encouraged your Board of Officers in the discharge of their duties.

The zeal and efficiency of the Superintendent and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. N. Rosenau, and the devotion of Miss Amelia Rosenbaum to her duties as teacher, deserve our highest commendation.

The influx of our co-religionists from foreign shores who seek an asylum in our midst, and with it a demand for admission of many a waif and orphan in our Home, will call for increased expenditures. It becomes therefore our duty to exert ourselves to further extend the usefulness of our Home. We earnestly invite you and the public at large to frequently visit the Home, which is so beautifully situated and of so easy access from all parts of the city.

We pray that a kind Providence will continue to watch over and protect our Home, and that the children will ever look back to it with as much pride and pleasure as you do in assisting us to uphold it and increasing its usefulness.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

I. BINSWANGER,

President.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—The Education Committee report, that of the 56 inmates of the Home 34 children (27 boys and 7 girls) attend the Spencer Robert's Public School, and one girl attends the Germantown Public Grammar School. They were recently examined and their averages, with few exceptions, entitled them to promotion to higher grades. During the past two months, 35 "distinguished notes" have been given to the children for perfect lessons and punctual attendance. After dismissal from public schools, the children in common with the children of the Home School are instructed by the superintendent, Mr. Rosenau, in Hebrew, German, Biblical History, Religious duties, and Vocal Music. The children are reported attentive and their progress is satisfactory. 22 children (10 boys and 12 girls) are taught in our Home School by Miss Rosenbaum; they are doing admirably, and as they are qualified, they are promoted to the public schools. The introduction of the Kindergarten System mentioned in our last report received favorable notice, and since then it has proved quite a success. During vacation it has been specially advantageous, as the children are interested in the work, and are happily occupied while they at the same time receive instruction in a pleasant and entertaining form. Benches have been made to be placed on the grounds, in order to give them the benefit, as the season advances, of open air exercises and instruction.

At the annual examination the Michael Reese prize was awarded to Abm. Cooper, and the Muhr prizes of two $10 gold pieces and two $5 gold pieces were awarded to Gussie Myers and Abby Coster and to Geo. Fishgraber and Gazelle Sachs. The work of educating and training the children outside of school-work has received careful attention from the Superintendent and assistants of the home, with gratifying results.

Respectfully submitted,

LEVI MAYER, Chairman,
SIMON KOHN,
LOUIS POLLOCK,
CLARA HAHN,
E. BOMEISLER, Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA, April 27th, 1884.

SUPERINTENDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—The season has again returned when it becomes my pleasant duty to submit to you my Annual Report, including a list of the donations received from April 22d, 1883, to April 12th, 1884. During the past year the health of the children was all that could be desired, until the month of March, when twelve of the children were taken sick with the measles. They have entirely recovered, under the treatment of Dr. Morris S. Cohen, the resident physician of the Jewish Hospital.

The boys and girls are progressing satisfactorily with their studies in the Public and Home schools. The girls are taught needle-work and sewing, their progress in this branch shows how interesting it is to them; they also assist with the house-work and perform their duties cheerfully. The boys have their several vocations to perform, it is indeed gratifying to see how desirous they are to do farming during vacation.

Divine services are held in our synagogue on the Sabbath and Holidays. The children take special delight in singing the Hymns.

Their behavior is very gratifying, and when addressed by me during the hours of devotion, in English as well as in German, they listen attentively.

Respectfully submitted,

REV. N. ROSENAU,

Superintendent.

ANNUAL MEETING.

1885.

The thirtieth Annual Meeting of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum, of Philadelphia, was called for Sunday, April the 2th, 1885, at the Home, Mill Street, Germantown, I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the chair.

There being no quorum present, it was on motion resolved to adjourn until Sunday, May the 10th, 1885, at 3 o'clock.

JOSEPH R. TELLER,
Assistant Secretary.

The adjourned Annual Meeting of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia was held on Sunday afternoon, May the 10th, 1885, at 3 o'clock, at the Home. I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the chair. Benjamin F. Teller, Secretary. About five hundred members and patrons were present.

The minutes of the last Annual Meeting and the minutes of the meeting of April the 26th were read and approved.

The President appointed Messrs. Isaac Roskam, Simon Pfaelzer, and Oscar B. Teller, the tellers to conduct the election, and declared the polls open.

The following nominations were then made: for President, I. Binswanger; Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; Treasurer, Philip Lewin; Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller.

For Managers to serve for three years, Levi Mayer, Herman Hamburger, Marcus Katz, and Solomon Blumenthal.

For members of Associate Board, to serve for three years: Miss E. Bomeisler, Miss Esther Baum, Mrs. B. H. Feustmann, Mrs. Henry Hahn, Mrs. Levi Mayer, and Mrs. A. P. Schoneman.

The Secretary read the annual report of the President and Executive Committee.

The Treasurer's annual report, a list of the legacies since the foundation of the Home to date, a list of the Assets, the report of the Committee on Education, and the Superintendent's report were received, ordered to be entered on the minutes, and the Secretary instructed to have them printed for distribution among the patrons, members, and contributors, together with the proceedings of this meeting.

On motion of Rev. Dr. M. Jastrow, seconded by Mr. R. Brunswick, and after some remarks by Rev. J. H. M. Chumaceiro, it was unanimously resolved that the matter of the extension of the Home be referred to the incoming Board, with full power to act.

The polls were closed and the tellers made their report; whereupon the President declared the several nominees duly elected for their respective offices.

On motion, adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,
Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the patrons and members of the "Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum, of Philadelphia :"—

By the Divine blessing of Providence, we are again permitted to report the Home you have entrusted to our care in a prosperous condition, the children in good health, under good discipline, making fair progress in their studies in the Home school as well as in those of the public schools. The larger girls are instructed in the domestic duties of house-keeping.

The number of children on roll at the date of our last Annual Report was 56 (39 boys and 17 girls). Since then, 10 (2 boys and 8 girls) have been admitted, and 6 (4 boys and 2 girls) were withdrawn. The latter were indentured, and of the former, one was returned to his father on account of misconduct, and the other three were placed in the city to learn trades, leaving 60 children (37 boys and 23 girls) in the Home.

Of the four children boarding in the city, learning trades, one has become of age, but still continues with her instructress as a dressmaker, and is entirely self-supporting.

The three boys above mentioned have been added to those remaining, making the total number of children under the care of the Home 66.

Benjamin Meyersohn, one of our indentured boys, has also attained his majority during the past year, and in tendering his thankful acknowledgment to your Board, sent a donation of fifty dollars ($50). He still continues with his employer, and has a very remunerative position.

The Report of the Committee on Education, herewith annexed, shows in detail the gratifying progress made by the children.

The Michael Reese prize was awarded to Gussy Myers, the Simon Muhr first prizes to Gazelle Sachs and Henry Bachenheimer, and the Simon Muhr second prizes to Rosa Friedman and George Fishgraper. Six silver medals presented by a visitor, Mr. John L. Payne, for good behavior and good scholarship were awarded to Rachel Ellis, Gazelle Sachs, Alexander Cohen, Bernard Bloomfield, and David Ellis. The remaining medal has not as yet been awarded.

Sixty-one new members and sixteen new patrons have been added to the list during the year. Four patrons and four members died, leaving the number of the former now on roll five hundred, and of the latter one hundred and ninety.

By the removal of Mrs. Emilie S. Van Beil to New York, your Board of Managers and Ladies' Associate Board have been deprived of an active and useful co-laborer. She has the best wishes of her colleagues. Miss Ida Cohen was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

The Treasurer's Report sets forth the receipts and disbursements during the year. The former were fourteen thousand one hundred and eight dollars and thirty-nine cents ($14,108.39), including the balance on hand from the previous year of fourteen hundred and five dollars and twenty-four cents ($1,405.24); and the latter, twelve thousand six hundred and two dollars and sixty-nine cents ($12,602.69),—leaving a balance in the Treasurer's hands of fifteen hundred and five dollars and seventy cents ($1,505.70).

The amount paid for board of the children learning trades in the city is nearly covered by the wages earned by them.

Among the expenditures is included one hundred dollars for addition to mortgage on 916 North Eighth Street, two hundred and fifty dollars for a new carriage, and six hundred and fifty-eight dollars and seventy-four cents for improvements to property and furniture.

It is with grateful acknowledgment that we report the untiring efforts on behalf of the children, of Dr. M. S. Cohen, of the Jewish Hospital, of Dr. G. W. Lutz and Dr. Harvey Roop, of Germantown; and especially our faithful friend, the consulting physician, Dr. A. C. Bournonville.

To the solicitor, Edward H. Weil, Esq., and the Ladies' Sewing Circle, who have continued their generous work for the Home, our acknowledgments are due, and herewith sincerely tendered.

Our thanks are also rendered to the Jewish Hospital Association for their continued favors.

The donations in cash and the articles of various kinds are specified in the report herewith attached. The former amount to four thousand six hundred and eleven dollars and nineteen cents ($4,611.19), and comprise the sum of three thousand eight hundred and ten dollars and forty-four cents ($3,810.44), as our allotment from the net proceeds of the Hebrew Charity Ball, an increase from that of the preceding year, despite the depression in business, showing how earnestly and zealously the Managers of that noble Society have worked to provide funds for the various Hebrew Charitable Institutions of our city. To one and all we tender our best thanks.

The Superintendent and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. N. Rosenau, and the Teacher, Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, continue to devote their best energies to the responsible duties devolving upon them.

The children now in the Home fill every available space, while several pressing applications are before the Committee on Admission, which will have to be deferred until vacancies occur, or additional accommodations are provided.

The kitchen and laundry would have been extended, and other necessary alterations made during the past year, but it was deferred, as your Board of Managers deemed it judicious to submit the question to your consideration, whether it is expedient to make an addition to the building, to enable them to increase the present capacity of the Home. It will undoubtedly be conceded that the object of our Society, to take care of the helpless waifs, the orphans and those whose surviving parent cannot provide for them, is one which appeals most strongly to the generous impulses of the heart.

To give them a home, a good moral and religious education, and to rear them to become useful members of society, is not only one of the greatest charities, but by doing so they lighten, in a measure, the burden of such of our sister Societies, who would have to support them, under all circumstances, without the advantages accruing to those children who are placed under the fostering care of this your cherished institution.

While offering our grateful thanks to the Heavenly Father for the divine favors bestowed on our humble efforts, we invoke His protection and blessings in the future, so that the children reared here may become God-fearing, useful men and women.

Respectfully submitted, April 24, 1885.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

To the President and Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—The reports of the teachers of the respective schools which the children attend, fully sustain the committee in reporting favorably of their educational standing and progress. Forty-two (42) children attend the public schools. Mr. E. Neville, the Principal of the Spencer Roberts Public School, in a recent report, commends their scholarship, deportment, and neatness. Equally satisfactory accounts have been received from Mr. Willard, Principal of the Germantown Grammar School, where the more advanced children attend.

In the school at the Home, of which Miss Amelia Rosenbaum is the teacher, there are fifteen (15) children, who, when prepared, are promoted to the public schools. An interesting feature of this school, and for which Miss Rosenbaum has been assiduously qualifying herself, is the introduction of the Kindergarten system. Benches have been placed under the trees, so that the children can be instructed in the open air during the summer months--thus to the delight of the little ones, combining recreation with instruction.

Hebrew reading, Grammar and Translation, Biblical and Post-Biblical History, and Catechism are taught daily by the Rev. N. Rosenau, after the public school hours. His earnest, persevering zeal is rewarded by the interest his pupils manifest in their studies, and by their familiarity with these sacred and time-honored subjects. Mr. Rosenau has organized three German classes, the junior department being conducted by Miss Martha Rosenau.

The Michael Reese prize of $25 was awarded to Gussie Myers; the $10 Simon Muhr prizes to Henry Bachenheimer and Gazelle Sachs; the $5 Simon Muhr prizes to Rosa Friedman and George Fishgraper. The girls are taught to sew, one morning of the week being devoted to this useful branch, under charge of Miss Rosenbaum.

From the public schools, thirty-seven (37) "Distinguished" and ten (10) "Meritorious" notes, and with few exceptions excellent averages, have been received.

Respectfully submitted.

LEVI MAYER, Chairman.

SUPERINTENDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT.

To the President and Members of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—

It is eminently proper to pronounce the benediction usually said on the occurrence of a happy occasion:

“Blessed be Thou, O Lord our God, who has permitted us to live, supported us and allowed us to reach the day when we can once again assemble to celebrate this our thirtieth anniversary of our beloved Home.”

It becomes my pleasant duty to submit to you my annual report, including a list of donations received from April the 12th, 1884, to April the 22d, 1885.

There are now sixty children in the home, namely, thirty-seven boys and thirty-three girls. Their general health during the past year has been, thanks to our Heavenly Father, all we could wish.

Forty-two of our children attend public schools and fifteen are taught in our Home school. As to the progress of the children in their studies, I respectfully refer you to my report to the Committee on Education, including reports received from the principals of the public schools. Several of the larger girls are at the home, learning housekeeping, and are making rapid progress.

The children indentured to parties living in different sections of the country are doing, as far as I can learn from the letters which we frequently receive, very well.

The Divine services in the Synagogue are continued as heretofore, and sermons were on the Sabbath and Holy Days delivered by me in English and German alternately.

I have the honor to remain,

Yours very respectfully,

REV. N. ROSENAU,

Superintendent.

Philadelphia, May 25th, 1885.

ANNUAL MEETING.

1886.

The thirty-first Annual Meeting of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum was held on Sunday afternoon, May the 2d, 1886, at three o'clock, P. M., at the Home, Mill Street, Germantown. I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the chair. Benj. F. Teller, Secretary. About five hundred members and patrons were present.

The minutes of the last Annual Meeting were read and approved.

The President appointed Messrs. Simon Pfaelzer, Henry S. Louchheim, and William Gerstley the tellers to conduct the election, and declared the polls open.

The following nominations were then made: for President, I. Binswanger; for Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; for Treasurer, Philip Lewin; for Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller.

For Managers to serve for three years, Augustus Bacharach, Meyer Frank, A. E. Massman, Henry L. Strouse.

For members of the Associate Board, to serve for three years, Mrs. Henry S. Frank, Mrs. Jacob Kaufman, Mrs. Adolph Rosenbaum, Mrs. Isaac Roskam, Mrs. Isaac Saller, Mrs. Eva Wolf.

The Secretary then read the Annual Reports of the President and Executive Committee, the Treasurer, the Superintendent, and the Committee on Education.

The Treasurer submitted a list of the donations received during the year, including the donations received on Donation Day, a list of the legacies bequeathed to the Home since its foundation, and a list of the assets of the Society.

On motion the several reports were received, and the Secretary instructed to have them printed for distribution among the patrons, members and contributors, together with the proceedings of this meeting.

While the tellers were preparing their report, Dr. Morris Jastrow, Jr., addressed the meeting upon the subject of education.

The polls were ordered closed, and the tellers reported that the several nominees were duly elected for their respective offices, whereupon the President declared them elected, and on motion the meeting adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,

Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the Patrons and Members of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum, Philadelphia.

With profound gratitude to the Heavenly Father of the Orphans, we again report to you that the children of the Home are in enjoyment of good health, under proper discipline, and making fair progress in their studies.

The Michael Reese Prize was awarded to Gussie Meyers, the two Simon Muhr First Prizes to Barnet Allegro and Rachel Ellis; the two Simon Muhr Second Prizes to Benjamin Bloomfield and Gazelle Sachs, the Payne Medal for good behavior to Henry Lyons.

The number of Children on Roll on April 1st, 1885, was 60—37 boys and 23 girls.

Boarding in the city while learning trades 6 boys; since then 5 girls were indentured to learn trades and housekeeping, 5 boys were placed in the city to learn trades who still remain under the charge of our Institution, 4 boys and one girl were returned to their respective parents, having attained the age of 13 years and upwards, one boy was reclaimed by his mother as her circumstances had improved and she deemed it her duty to relieve the Association of this charge. Your Board were thus enabled to admit 9 boys and 4 girls, leaving 61 children at the Home, 38 boys and 23 girls, and 10 boys boarding in the city, in all 71 children under their charge.

This result was accomplished by extra efforts made by the Indenturing Committee to find places for the children immediately after their attaining their 13th year, to make room for others.

Your Board of Managers did not deem it prudent to avail themselves of the authority granted to them by you to extend the buildings at present, but only made such necessary additions to the kitchen and improvements as could not have been dispensed with. The desirability of erecting additional buildings as spoken of at our last report however still exists, and it is hoped that the generous and charitable spirit of our Jewish community, which so nobly manifests itself on all occasions, will prompt them to voluntary subscriptions to the Building Fund for such amounts as may in the near future justify your Board of Managers in making the necessary improvements and extensions.

The Treasurer's Report sets forth the receipts and disbursements made during the past year. The receipts were $20,212.57, including $1505.70 balance on hand April 1st, 1885, and the expenditures amounted to $18,757.31, leaving a balance of $1455.26 in the hands of the Treasurer on the 1st inst.

Included in the receipts were the following:

$2000.00 legacy from the estate of Leon Berg, dec'd.

$1000.00 legacy from the estate of Martin Seidenbach, dec'd.

$500.00 legacy from the estate of Myer Gans, dec'd.

$150.00 legacy from the estate of Zadock L. Eisner, dec'd.

$50.00 legacy from the estate of Hannah Emanuel, dec'd.

$300.00 for three life memberships of Mrs. D. Triest, Miss Louisa S. Teller and Henry A. Loth of New York, and the sum of $111.20 from Mrs. D. Triest, in memory of her son Sydney Triest, for the creation of a fund yielding $5 annually to be expended as a prize to the best behaved child of the Home and to be called the Sydney Triest Prize; of which $4000.00 were invested in a Bond and Mortgage.

The donations of $5079.14 and of many useful articles are fully detailed in the annexed reports. Among the cash donations we especially mention the sum of $4250.64 for our share of the net proceeds of the Hebrew Charity Ball and $813 received on donation day held on the 1st day of Chanukah (Dec. 3d), 1885.

The ordinary expenditures for the year were	-	$12,873	25
The amount expended by the Building Committee for improvements and repairs was	-	-	1,814 06

Making a total of	-	$14,687	31
The ordinary receipts were	-	14,647	11

This proves how necessary it was to institute a Donation Day, to make up the difference caused by the increased expenditure in the support of the large number of children boarding in the city for their maintenance and clothing, which will continue until they earn enough to become self-supporting.

During the year 3 life members, 12 patrons, and 42 members were added, while 7 patrons and 17 members resigned, and several died. Among the latter the society deplors the death of one of its foremost members, the late Abraham Hart, who had been untiring in his devotion to the Home as President of the Board of Counsel, and as first president of the Home after the adoption of the new Constitution.

Proper resolutions of the feelings of your Board at the bereavements the Home sustained were adopted and placed on the records of the Society.

Dr. Frederick S. Isett was elected "Eye Physician" to the Home. Dr. M. S. Cohen, of the Jewish Hospital, Dr. G. W. Lutz, and Dr. Harvey Roop, Dental Surgeons, of Germantown, continue their best efforts on behalf of the Children, not less so Dr. A. C. Bournonville, to whom our best thanks are due and are herewith tendered, also to all the kind and generous donors.

On January 1st Mr. and Mrs. N. Rosenau, our former Superintendent and Matron, left their respective positions. Mr. Melvin G. Winstock kindly accepted the temporary position as superintendent and Hebrew teacher, and has received the thanks of your Board for his prompt readiness in accepting the onerous duties, and for the able and faithful manner in which he executed them. He was ably assisted by Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, the English teacher, who proved again her zeal, ability and lively interest she always felt for the institution in which she was educated.

The ladies of the Associate Board, and especially the ladies of the Executive Committee, were unceasing in their efforts during that time, supervising the domestic duties of the Home.

The Rev. S. M. Fleischman and wife, lately from Akron, were unanimously elected Superintendent and Matron. They entered upon their duties on January 24, 1886. We heartily commend to your attention the Superintendent's first report, which is herewith annexed. Their excellent record in the past and their amiable qualities justify the belief that their labors will be productive of much good to the Home and its inmates.

Thanking you for the warm support given us, we pray that Providence may further bless our humble efforts to forward the best interests of our Institution, and to rear the children intrusted to us to become good men and women in Israel, and creditable members of society.

Respectfully submitted.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

To the President and Members of the Board of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—The Education Committee take pleasure in endorsing the favorable reports of the children from the various educational departments connected with the "Home."

Thirty-seven children, twenty-four boys and thirteen girls, attend the Spencer Roberts Public School; their high averages, according to their records, give evidence of diligent and respectful attention during school hours, as also of due preparatory home study. The Superintendent of the Home, our new incumbent, Mr. Fleischman, reports that the children give evidence of having received careful Hebrew and Biblical instruction, and that during the brief period of the organization they are steadily improving. He also reports healthfully and encouragingly of the moral discipline of the institution. Mr. Fleischman has instituted the "Roll of Honor" as a stimulus to their moral and intellectual ambition, upon which fourteen are already enrolled.

Mrs. Fleischman has entire charge of the German department, devoting part of every day to instruction in this important branch.

Our Home School numbers twenty-three children, under the judicious care of Miss Rosenbaum. These children are retained at the Home until they are prepared for the Secondary School. The Kindergarten work, the delight and diversion of the little ones, is chiefly the occupation of their leisure hours, during the warm weather in the open air under the trees, where benches and other facilities are prepared for this interesting occupation.

The Committee would respectfully suggest that some arrangement be made for a separate play-room for the girls, which during the cold weather is specially needed.

The Michael Reese prize of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) was last year awarded to Gussie Myers; the First Simon Muhr Prize of ten dollars ($10.00) was awarded to Barnet Allegro, the Second Simon Muhr Prize of five dollars ($5.00) was awarded to Leon Bloomfield. Among the girls, the First Simon Muhr ten dollar ($10.00) Prize was awarded to Rachel Ellis, the Second Simon Muhr five dollar ($5.00) Prize was awarded to Gazelle Sachs.

The Payne Prize, or Medal, was awarded to Henry Lyons.
Respectfully submitted,

L. MAYER, Chairman.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—I believe it my duty to place before you at the very beginning of my official connection with this, our beloved Home, the moral convictions, the motives and the policy upon which my government of the institution and its inmates is to be based, so that there may be a perfect understanding between the Managers and the Superintendent, which cannot be otherwise than conducive to the happiness of the inmates. I recognize the high duties and the responsible position which the superintendent of an Orphan Asylum occupies, as the moral, intellectual, religious, and physical educator of children, who by virtue of their birth, relations, and former surroundings, as well as their future position in society, require peculiar and well studied treatment to make of them not merely no disgrace, but an ornament to society, and an honor to Judaism and the Home. I also recognize the obligation which the superintendent assumes towards the President and the Managers of the Home, as the representatives of the benevolent people who support it, in so far as it is his duty to shape his course so that the institution may lose no old friends, but gain new ones, and that by his government the already high standard of the Home shall be so raised that its claim to moral and financial support shall be unquestioned, and its worth as a Model Institution recognized throughout the land. Basing my motives upon the moral conviction herein expressed, I begin with the Home.

Men and women who have for years identified themselves with a benevolent object, which through their labor of love has enlarged in proportions and has proportionately grown dear to their hearts, are apt, because of their love and admiration for it, to overlook its faults and shortcomings. But the stranger, who enters with opinion unbiased, and whose judgment is modeled by experience and a good insight into the proper government of public institutions, recognizes these defects, because he comes into daily contact with the unpleasant results which arise therefrom. I would therefore respectfully call your attention to the fact that there are serious objections to the use of our second floor hall as a play-room for the girls. A play-house for the girls is an important necessity.

The physical development of our children is a very important subject, and should receive due consideration. Health is the pre-requisite of all success in life, and health is the outgrowth of physical endurance. We should therefore be careful to develop the strength, and harden the physical organization of our children by proper physical training. Arrangements for that purpose should therefore be made.

The moral instruction of all children in an Orphan Asylum must be directed to two points: the eradication of bad and the development of good traits. The first pre-requisite of success in the education of such children is, that superintendent and matron secure their affection. Love is a far more effective motor than fear, and while discipline must be enforced and order maintained, yet sternness must ever be a plant drawing its life from a heart full of love for those whose character it endeavors to improve. Children are children, and must be treated as such whether born in a hovel or cradled in a palace, their treatment (making allowances for social position) must ever be the same. Throwing aside corporeal punishment as an unfit means to the end in view, it seems but natural that its place must be supplied by some other better and more powerful influence.

My policy is not to suppress by force, but to develop by kindness, constant watchfulness, and by moral suasion. A bad boy may be kept in check by the constant fear of the rod (and temporary punishment of this kind must at times be inflicted), but it will only suppress, but never eradicate his evil inclinations. Kindness and moral teachings, supported by affection and respect for the guardian, will develop noble qualities in the human heart, which by constant growth must crowd out evil inclinations and arouse that self-respect and ambition which is the ne plus ultra of all self-government. It may be put down as a true maxim, that what you want children to do, you must first do yourself. If you want them to be prompt, you must be so yourself; if you want them to be neat, you must set the example. It is thus by example and precept that we hope to arouse and develop their self-respect and pride, so that neatness, promptness, truthfulness, honesty, and capability may become prominent features of our children's character.

With this object in view, I have introduced a system of credits and demerits, and a Roll of Honor. Credits and demerits will determine their right to prizes at the end of the year (for good behavior). On the Roll of Honor the names of those children are inscribed whose conduct in school and at home entitles them to meritorious or distinguished notice. A year is a long time to wait for a prize, while by holding out to them the promise of a certificate of good behavior as a reward, I obtain excellent results.

I believe that every child leaving this Home should carry with it a certificate of good behavior, as a recommendation and moral support in its struggles for success in life. I believe that this inducement held out to the children will aid in proper discipline, while the fear of being deprived of this will restrain the more unruly ones.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

S. M. FLEISCHMAN,

Superintendent.

ANNUAL MEETING.

1887.

The thirty-second Annual Meeting of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum was held on Sunday, May 1st, 1887, at 3 o'clock, p. m., at the Home, Mill Street, Germantown. I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the chair. Benj. F. Teller, Secretary. About four hundred patrons, members and contributors were present.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved.

The President appointed Messrs. Henry S. Louchheim, William Gerstley, and Alfred Myers the tellers to conduct the election, and declared the polls open.

The following nominations were then made: For President, I. Binswanger; for Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; for Treasurer, Philip Lewin; for Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller.

For Managers to serve for three years: Leo Loeb, Simon Kohn, Louis Pollock and Simon Muhr.

For members of the Associate Board, to serve for three years: Mrs. I. Binswanger, Mrs. Moyer Fleisher, Mrs. Isaac Hyneman, Mrs. Simon Pfaelzer, Mrs. Henry L. Strouse and Mrs. Samuel N. Hyneman.

The Secretary then read the annual reports of the President and Executive Committee, the Treasurer and the Committee on Education.

The Treasurer submitted a list of the donations received during the year, including the donations received on Donation

Day, a list of the legacies bequeathed to the Home since its foundation, and a list of the assets of the Society.

The Superintendent submitted his report.

On motion, the several reports were received and the Secretary instructed to have them printed as heretofore for distribution among the patrons, members and contributors, together with the proceedings of this meeting.

While the tellers were preparing their report, the Rev. S. Morais and the Rev. Dr. M. Jastrow, Sr., addressed the meeting, and called the attention of the ladies and gentlemen present to the good work that had been accomplished by them through the Society.

On motion it was resolved to appoint a committee of five young men for the purpose of receiving additional patrons and members.. The President thereupon appointed Messrs. M. G. Winstock, E. L. Rothschild, O. B. Teller, Herman Loeb, and Julius Levy as said Committee.

The polls were ordered closed, and the tellers reported that the several nominees were unanimously elected for the several offices. The President thereupon declared them duly elected, and on motion the meeting adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,

Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the Patrons and Members of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum, of Philadelphia.

In presenting to you our thirty-second annual report, we tender you our sincere congratulations at the continued prosperity of the Home, the almost uninterrupted enjoyment of good health by its inmates, and the great improvement of our little ones in their studies and deportment.

The wholesome influence of the Superintendent and Matron, by their excellent methods of instruction and by their zeal to advance the children in all that is elevating and useful, is very noticeable. Since they have assumed their duties, not a single complaint has reached us from the Principal and teachers of the public school, while their monthly reports show an exceptionally gratifying record. The religious and Hebrew instruction is imparted by the Superintendent, the teaching of German and singing, and also of knitting, has been voluntarily assumed by the Matron. The tact and ability shown by her has received the highest recognition of your board of officers. At the urgent solicitation of the Superintendent, a teacher of gymnastics has been engaged; the children have been greatly benefitted by their physical exercises and the development of their muscles. The smaller children have been instructed in the kindergarten system and in the primary department, by Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, with equally good results. The public examination was held on June 2d, and reflected credit on teachers and pupils. The Michael Reese Prize of $25 was awarded to David Ellis; the two Simon Muhr Prizes of $10 and silver medal each, to Barney Allegro and Rosie Coster; the two Simon Muhr Prizes of $5 and silver medal each, to Moses Fishgraper and Clara Wenistock; the Payne Medal, for good behaviour, to Tillie Vogel; the two Mrs. H. S. Frank Prizes of $5 each, to Charles Lefgowitch and Herbert Solomon; the Sydney Trieste Prize of $5 to Louis Cohen. One of the most pleasant surprises on the occasion was the receipt of a beautiful piano, with stool and cover, from Miss Agnes Stern, Master David I. Stern and Frank Muhr (niece and nephews of Mr. Simon Muhr).

During the summer the children visited the Zoological Garden, and had two picnics in Fairmount Park; and during the winter several suitable entertainments were provided for them. On Chanukah religious services were held in the Synagogue, a large number of the friends of the home being present, when a poem composed for the occasion by Mr. Fleischman was recited by eight children, representing the eight lights, in a very acceptable manner. The sale of the poem realized $56, to be used as an amusement fund for the children. On Purim the children were again kindly invited to the annual Purim entertainment given by the Ladies' Hebrew Sunday-School Society, which was greatly enjoyed by them.

During the past year 13 children left the Home, of whom 1 boy and 1 girl were indentured, 5 boys were placed to learn trades and are boarding in the city at the expense of the Home, and 6 children were returned to their parents. During the same period 14 were admitted—9 boys and 5 girls, leaving 62 children at the home on the 1st inst. and 11 children boarding in the city under our charge while learning trades; 3 having been returned, 2 to their mother, 1 to his uncle, and one has been discharged and returned to his mother, making in all 13 children.

The Donation Day was held on Thanksgiving Day, when many of the patrons and friends of the institution visited the Home. Quite a number of useful articles were received and $954 in cash, all of which are reported by the Treasurer and Superintendent.

The Treasurer's Report, herewith submitted, shows the total receipts to have been $21,090.80, including a balance from last year of $1,455.26; and the total disbursements, $19,438.54, leaving a balance on hand of $1,652.26. The ordinary receipts were as follows:

The hoped-for additions to our buildings had again to be deferred. It was not deemed judicious to incur any expenditures beyond the annual income of the Society, except for such purposes as are essential to the health and comfort of the inmates of the Home and to the preservation of the buildings and grounds. To keep this institution in its present good condition, to promote the high standard of education and the mental and physical development of the children, to prepare them for life's arduous duties, must be our principal aim.

An improved drainage, the removal of the closets in the yard, an enlargement of the laundry, and a play-house for the girls are, however, improvements which are imperatively necessary.

We appeal to you to aid us in increasing the number of patrons and members. With the steady increase in the Jewish population of our city, we ought to have a much larger number of members and patrons, especially among our young men and women, so as to enable us to maintain and extend the usefulness of our Home.

Recognizing the almost universal desire of our coreligionists to have Kaddish said on the anniversary of the death of a parent or relative, the following resolution was unanimously passed by your Board:

Resolved, That Kaddish be said by the orphans of the Asylum, at the anniversary of the death of the legatees to the Home, whenever the surviving relatives of the legatees so desire it, and send the date of the anniversary to the Superintendent.

Our thanks are due, and herewith tendered, to all the kind donors, to our physician, Dr. M. S. Cohen, of the Jewish Hospital; our consulting physician, Dr. A. C. Bournonville; Dr. T. S. Isett; to Dr. G. W. Lutz, and Dr. Harvey Roop, dental surgeons, of Germantown; also to our Solicitor, E. H. Weil, Esq.; to our Conveyancers, to our sister institution, the Jewish Hospital, for gratuitous attention at all times when such were needed. We are also indebted to Dr. Mansbach, veterinary surgeon, for his professional services freely given.

The report of the Superintendent is heartily commended to your attention. May our Heavenly Father continue to bless and protect our Home, and strengthen its officers in the performance of their duties.

Respectfully submitted,

I. BINSWANGER,
President.

Annual Report of the Committee on Education.

To the President and Members of the Board of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—The Education Committee have every reason to report favorably of the various educational departments of the Home.

Thirty-five of the children, 22 boys and 13 girls, attend the Spencer Roberts' Public School—the official report of the principal, Mr. Neville, and their stated records, are gratifying testimonials of their good standing and mental progress. The Committee endorse the proposition that in special cases where a boy's assiduity and moral integrity warrant a higher education, that he be afforded the opportunity of attendance at the High School for such time, and in furtherance of such vocation as his subsequent development may determine. German is taught daily, and very successfully by Mrs. Fleischman.

Our Home School, under charge of Miss Rosenbaum, has during the past year promoted twelve children to the Public School, and with the aid of Object Lessons and Kindergarten, succeeds in pleasantly blending instruction and amusement. Sewing and mending are an essential branch of the girls' training.

Hebrew and the religious training of the children constitute an important element, through the instruction of the Superintendent, Mr. Fleischman. The moral and intellectual atmosphere of the institution give evidence of a judiciously conducted household and a happy home.

Through the generosity of our Board, a course of gymnastics was initiated, which the children, both boys and girls, enjoyed with such earnest enthusiasm, that it was subsequently deemed advisable by the Board to incorporate Physical Training as an important feature of the Home discipline.

The school prizes last year were awarded as follows: The Michael Reese prize, $25, to David Ellis; First Muhr Prize, $10, to Barney Allegro; Second Muhr Prize, $5, to Moses Fischgraper; First Muhr Prize, $10, to Rosie Coster; Second Muhr Prize, $5, to Clara Weinstock; Sydney Trieste Prize, $5, to Louis Cohen; Frank Prize, $5, to Charles Lofgowitch, and Frank Prize, $5, to Herbert Solomon; the Payne Medal, to Tillie Vogel.

Respectfully submitted,

LEVI MAYER, Chairman.

Superintendent's Report.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—At the close of his first year's administration, it is your Superintendent's pleasant duty to place before you the results of the past twelve months' work, together with such explanations and recommendations which the experience of that period warrants and demands. In his first report, made to your honorable body last April, he framed the platform upon which he proposed to stand, and distinctly announced the principle which would guide him in the education of our children. It is there stated: "My policy is not to suppress by force, but to develop by kindness;" "Kindness and moral teachings, supported by respect for the guardian, will develop noble qualities in the human heart, which by constant growth must crowd out evil inclinations, and arouse that ambition and self-respect which are the ne plus ultra of all self-government." He has taken particular pains to thus emphasize this principle, because he desires it to be known that the "Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum," of Philadelphia, with its 62 inmates, is conducted, and successfully conducted, on the principle that "love is stronger than fear." He believes that the influence of our "Home" ought to extend beyond the limit of its direct usefulness. Proscribing corporal punishment, yet allowing the child greater liberty and ample scope for the full development of individuality, it should stand a powerful argument against the use and necessity of military discipline in an orphan asylum. Foster homes and orphan asylums are established to provide homes for necessitous children; the more closely such an institution, by its manner of construction, its appointments, and through the spirit which pervades it, approaches in manner and effect an ideal home, the happier will its inmates be, and the more effective and lasting their education. For, in fitting a child for a life of future usefulness, we dare not lose sight of its present happiness and everything that can conduce to this, and is in harmony with the laws of health, morality, and common sense ought to be employed to secure that desirable end. It is therefore with feelings of gratitude and satisfaction that he can report to you that this policy pursued during the past year has borne its golden fruits. There have at no time (during the year) been less than sixty children in the "Home," yet home-sickness is a feeling entirely unknown to us. Of the thirty-seven children which have been in constant attendance at the public school, not one has been tardy during the past year, neither has there been a single suspension for disorderly conduct or any other cause.

THE SEMI-ANNUAL EXAMINATIONS

Showed much proficiency, and of the thirty-seven children, all but three were promoted. Hand in hand with their school conduct has been their

"BEHAVIOR AT HOME."

Their conduct toward one another is fraught with kindness and forbearance, and while little misunderstandings are naturally of frequent occurrence, a fracas or a fight is entirely unknown. Their behavior towards their superiors is respectful and affectionate; in fact the confidence and affection exhibited by most of the children towards Superintendent and Matron, is one of the richest results of the course pursued.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.

Religious exercises are held every Friday evening, on the Sabbath, holidays, and during the holy seasons, in which the children actively participate. Short sermons, suitable to the occasion, and to the understanding of the children, are delivered by the Superintendent during the service.

THE HEALTH

Of the children during the past year has been most excellent; there has not been a single case of serious illness, and the three children who at different times were for a brief period patients at the Jewish Hospital, were sent there at the request of our "Home" doctor, who as resident physician at the hospital, found it more convenient to have them near at hand. In accordance with your unanimous action,

GYMNASTIC EXERCISES

Have been added to our curriculum. Instruction has been given to the girls and boys in separate classes, every Sunday afternoon, by Prof. F. Stahl, principal of the "Turn-Shule," on Sixth and Noble Streets. The propriety of this addition to our course of study, is shown first of all by the fact that the question which invariably confronts us in our endeavor to place our children is: "Are they strong and healthy?" secondly: at the exhibition of gymnastic exercises given at the Academy of Music last winter, by the German Turn-Gemeinde, Professor James McAllister, Superintendent of Public Schools of Philadelphia, in a lengthy address advocated the introduction of gymnastics as a part of public school instruction. While our children have been much benefitted by these exercises, their progress has been somewhat retarded for want of sufficient space, the teacher being compelled to confine himself to such lessons as the limited space of the play-room would allow. Your Superintendent therefore respectfully suggests that in the contemplated enlargement of the building, some provision be made for this purpose. In the arduous duties of his position, the Superintendent has had the faithful support of the matron and of the teacher, Miss Amelia Rosenbaum. The former, besides the onerous duties incident to her position, has taught the German classes, her few leisure moments have been utilized in teaching the girls how to knit. Of the latter, he can truthfully say that her heart and soul are in her work, and the "Home" (of which she was once a ward) is harvesting a hundred-fold the seed it planted.

In conclusion, your Superintendent wishes to express to the President, the Board, and to the ladies of the Associate Board, his sincere thanks for their active and hearty co-operation.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

S. M. FLEISCHMAN,

Superintendent.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18th, 1887.

Spencer Roberts School.

Mr. S. M. Fleischman.

DEAR SIR :—The boys and girls from the Home have shown such a marked improvement since my last report, that I find the writing of this one a pleasant duty.

The improvement is not only in their studies and the obedience and respect shown to their teachers, but is even more marked in their intercourse with each other, and with the other pupils of the school.

Of the boys and girls in my room, I can say they are, as a rule, studious and ambitious to do well in all their lessons. They do not desire to excel other pupils merely for the sake of being at the head of their classes, but have acquired a fondness for some, at least, of their books. Under the "New Course of Study," pupils are encouraged to read a great deal at home, and thus add to their general knowledge. We, the teachers and myself, are thankful to you for the opportunities you give the boys and girls under your charge.

In the matter of discipline, I may say that the teachers rarely complain to me of any child from the "Home." Some of those who formerly gave us a real deal of trouble, have developed into right good boys.

Contrary to my usual custom, I will not make special mention of any child, as it would now seem unjust to give praise to one more than another.

Thanking you for your co-operation, I remain,
Yours truly,

E. NEVILLE.

ANNUAL MEETING.

1888.

The thirty-third Annual Meeting of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum was held on Sunday, April 29th, 1888, at 3 o'clock, p. m., at the Home, Mill Street, German-town.

I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the chair.

About five hundred patrons, members, and contributors were present.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved.

A letter of regret from Jacob Tuck was received, expressing his inability to attend the meeting on account of sickness, and enclosing his check for twenty-five dollars as a donation to the Home.

The President announced that he had appointed Messrs. M. G. Winstock, William Gerstley, and Henry Hirsch as tellers to conduct the election.

The following nominations were then made: For President, I. Binswanger; for Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; for Treasurer, Philip Lewin; for Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller.

For Managers to serve for three years: Mr. Levi Mayer, Mr. Morris Liveright, Mr. Sol. Blumenthal, Mr. Marcus Katz.

For member of the Associate Board to serve for two years: Mrs. M. M. Newman.

For members of the Associate Board to serve for three years: Miss E. Bomeisler, Miss Esther Baum, Mrs. B. H.

Feustmann, Mrs. Henry Hahn, Mrs. Levi Mayer, Mrs. A. P. Schoneman.

The President declared the polls open.

The Secretary read the annual reports of the President and Executive Committee, of the Treasurer, of the Committee on Education, with the letter of Mr. Neville, the principal of the public school.

The Treasurer submitted a list of the donations received during the year, including the donations received on Donation Day, a list of the legacies bequeathed to the Home since its foundation, and a list of the assets of the Society.

The Superintendent submitted his report.

On motion, the several reports were received and the Secretary instructed to have them printed as heretofore, for distribution among the patrons, members, and contributors, together with the proceedings of this meeting.

While the tellers were preparing their report, Rev. Dr. M. Jastrow, Sr., Edward H. Weil, Esq., Gen. Louis Wagner, and Rev. S. Kaufmann addressed the meeting, and called the attention of the ladies and gentlemen present to the good work that had been accomplished, and the good work that they expected to be accomplished through the Society.

The tellers reported that all the several nominees were unanimously elected for the several offices.

The President thereupon declared them duly elected, and on motion the meeting adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,
Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE
PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the Patrons and Members of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia.

In conformity with the duties devolving upon us, we herewith respectfully submit our thirty-third annual report.

The number of children on roll at the Home on April 1st, 1887, was 62, and employed in the city 11, making a total of 73. Since then 7 have left the Home, 2 girls who were indentured, 2 boys who were returned to their respective parents, and 4 boys who were placed in the city to learn trades; of those so employed 2 were returned to their mothers as they became self-supporting.

5 boys and 2 girls have been admitted, leaving the number at present in the Home 62; 13 board in the city and in North Wales, Pa., who are still under the charge of our institution, making a total of 75 children.

It is a source of sincere congratulation that, under the blessings of our Merciful Father, we had no case of sickness amongst the 75 children during the entire year.

The progress of the children in their physical and mental development has been very satisfactory. Their training under the watchful and judicious care of the Superintendent, Matron, and Teacher has been such as to show most excellent results. Order and discipline, attention to lessons, cleanliness and tidiness characterize the inmates of our Home, and that they are content with their surroundings is shown by their faces, which beam with health and happiness. The annual examination and the report from the principal of the public school, which is hereto annexed, give evidence of their proficiency.

Michael Rees prize of $25.....to Louis Cohen.
Simon Muhr prizes, $10 each, to Chas. Lefgowitch and Kate Gottlieb.

Simon Muhr prizes, $5 each, to Harriet Trottnor and Louis Newman.

Sydney Trieste prize, $5.....to Simon Neoran.
Mrs. H. S. Frank prizes, $5 each, to Annie Berkowitz and Tillie Vogel.

The Payne Medal.....to Annie Newman.

The introduction of gymnastic exercises has proved to be conducive to the health and strength of the children. An exhibition of their proficiency was given on the grounds of the institution in August last before a large audience ; on which occasion Prof. Hahn and his orchestra kindly furnished the music.

During the summer months the children, accompanied by the Superintendent and Miss Rosenbaum, greatly enjoyed a picnic tendered to them by Doctor and Mrs. J. Solis Cohen, at Mount Airy ; as also one at the Zoological Gardens, M. A. Dropsie, Esq., having provided the tickets of admission. The third picnic was given at Belmont, in Fairmount Park, special cars having been furnished for their going and returning, by the People's Line, through the kindness of Mr. Meyer Siedenbach.

On Chanukah and Purim many presents were received. Both festivals were duly celebrated by religious services in the Synagogue and by the usual enjoyment incident to the occasions. The children also greatly appreciated the Purim Celebration given by the Ladies' Hebrew Sunday School Society, to which they were invited.

The many liberal donations received on these occasions and on Donation Day evidenced the strong hold of the Home on the affections of the community.

The Treasurer's report shows the total receipts, including $1,652.26 balance on hand April 1st, to have been $20,311.96.

The total disbursements, 18,397.93.

Leaving a balance on hand this day of 1,914.03.

Amongst the sundry donations received during the year were two of $50 each from two of the boys reared at the Home, who, at the expiration of their indentures, sent the amount accompanied by a letter of thanks and their application to become members of the Home.

From the foregoing synopsis of the Treasurer's report it will be seen that the income was not quite up to the current expenses. The Home being for several years filled to its utmost capacity, none of the many applicants could be admitted until vacancies occurred. Your Board has therefore made, and is making, every exertion to indenture or find employment for the children as soon as possible after they have attained their thirteenth year ; but those who learn trades or are otherwise employed still remain under the charge of the Home, and for the first few years are of considerable expense to the Society, for the difference in the cost of their board and clothes and the wages they receive. By pursuing this course, however, the welfare of the children is greatly promoted, and we are enabled to admit other children into the Home in their stead.

The contemplated improvements of a proper drainage, the removal of the out-house from its present location, and the enlarging of the play-house, have been placed in charge of the Building Committee, who were only delayed in carrying out their plans by their inability to secure the proper outlet for the drainage at a reasonable cost. The Board sincerely hopes that your liberality, which has so beautifully manifested itself on all occasions, will enable them before long to increase the scope of the usefulness of the Home and supply the necessary additional buildings so very much needed.

The death of Mrs. Henry Cohen, who has been for many years identified with the management of our institution, having served as President of the Society before the adoption of the new Constitution, and subsequently as President of the Ladies' Associate Board, with great zeal, ability, and devotion to its best interests, has called forth the heartfelt sympathy of the Board of Officers and of the Ladies' Associate Board.

In consequence of the resignation of Dr. M. S. Cohen as physician of the Jewish Hospital, his successor, Dr. B. R. Lee, was, with the consent of the President and the Board of Managers of our sister institution, elected in his place.

Marble tablets in memory of those who have endowed the Home have been erected in the vestibule of the main building. We specially commend to your attention the reports of the Committee on Education, of the Superintendent, and the letter of Mr. Neville, Principal of the Spencer Roberts Public School, which will be submitted to you.

In conclusion, we tender our thanks to our medical staff, and all those who have so kindly aided in our work ; to the Hebrew Charity Ball Association for the liberal allotment of the net proceeds of the Ball, and to all the kind donors, a list of whose donations will be found in the Treasurer's and Superintendent's reports.

May our Heavenly Father continue to bless our efforts in behalf of the orphans and waifs entrusted to our care ; and may our patrons, members, and contributors realize the far-reaching results of their beneficence.

Respectfully submitted,

I. BINSWANGER,
President.

Annual Report of the Committee on Education.

To the President and Members of the Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN :—The favorable statements of those having in charge the moral, physical, and intellectual training of the children of our Home render the task of your committee unusually agreeable.

The wholesome influence exercised by the Superintendent, the Matron, and the Teacher is evidenced in many ways, but none more so than is shown by the letter from Mr. Neville, Principal of the Spencer Roberts School. Mr. Neville writes, " I have not had a single charge of disobedience made against a pupil during the whole term."

Your committee feels that so much is implied in these few words, that it remains only to state what the educational work of the Home has been during the past year.

Of the sixty-two children (forty boys and twenty-two girls), thirty-three entered the Spencer Roberts School at the beginning of the fall term, one boy, the High School, and twenty-eight remained in that of the Home. Seven children, about to leave the institution, were withdrawn from the public school, and six others transferred thereto—making the number in attendance thirty-two.

The Kindergarten, under Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, has proven of marked benefit to the younger children, and her primary pupils are well prepared for advancement.

Mrs. Fleischman's classes in German give evidence of excellent teaching. In Hebrew and religious instruction Mr. Fleischman has effected happy results. His Sabbath morning addresses to the children have not only added an agreeable feature to the service, but aided in imparting many moral lessons.

Gymnastic exercises, directed by Professors Perteuch and Stahl, have been much enjoyed, and contributed materially to the healthful development of the girls and boys.

Sewing and knitting have been regularly taught the girls, and some good work accomplished.

Last year the following prizes were awarded: The Michael Reese Prize of $25, to Louis Cohen; the Simon Muhr Prize of $10, to Charles Lefgowitch; the Simon Muhr Prize of $5, to Louis Newman; the Sydney Trieste Prize of $5, to Simon Neoran, boy's prize for best behavior. To the girls. The Simon Muhr Prize of $10, to Kate Gottlieb; the Simon Muhr Prize of $5, to Harriet Trottnner; the Mrs. H. S. Frank Prize of $5, to Tillie Vogel, for best scholarship in German. The Mrs. H. S. Frank Prize of $5, to Annie Berkowitz, for having done the most knitting. The Payne Medal to Annie, Newman, for good behavior and diligence.

Respectfully submitted,

LEVI MAYER, Chairman.

Superintendent's Report.

To the Honorable President and the Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN ;—Your superintendent, recognizing the Almighty's had in the Home record of the fiscal year just closed, and fully aware that the joyful incidents and events he is enabled to narrate are visible evidences of God's mercy and protection, takes pleasure in submitting to you the following report.

THE METHOD OF EDUCATION,

Namely, that of conversion or moral suasion, adopted as the policy of the Home, has been closely adhered to, and is fraught with the happiest results. Under its benign influence our institution is a home to all its inmates, uniting them through a whole-souled sentiment of sympathy and affection into one large family. Warmed by the rays of its kindly spirit, the crust which adverse circumstances and bad associations were rapidly forming around our children's hearts melts, and fostered and encouraged by constant attention and watchfulness the germs of a nobler character begin to sprout, giving promise of the flower and fruit of a useful and worthy life.

OUR HEALTH.

The wisdom displayed in the selection of our present beautiful Home, with its ample grounds and healthy location, made possible by the large-hearted benevolence of the Philadelphia Jewish community, has probably never been so strikingly proven as during the year just closed. With sickness, such as diphtheria, scarlatina, and other diseases in our suburb, with a case of spotted fever within one block of us, and with an unprecedentedly severe winter just over, we are, through the grace of God, permitted to state that during the entire year, from April, 1887, to April, 1888, we have not had a single sick child.

THE BEHAVIOR

Of the children in school and at home is a source of much satisfaction. The mutual confidence which exists among the children themselves, as well as between the children and their guardians, has made discipline a comparatively easy matter, while their esprit de corps makes itself beneficially felt in the school. The best endorsement of their conduct at home came to me some time ago in the form of an entirely unsolicited letter from a near neighbor, a Quaker lady, which among other things contains this. "I can do no other than say, that what in former years was a continual trial to me has become a source of kindly interest." No child has been tardy at school during the entire year, none has ever been sent home for misbehavior, while the time lost in school by temporary absence, by all the children on different occasions, would not, if added, constitute two (2) weeks of the whole school year. As to their deportment and record in school, and their schoolwork and its results at home, you are respectfully referred to the report of the Committee of Education and to the letter of Mr. Edward Neville, Principal of the Spencer Roberts School, where all but one of our public school children attend.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.

To preserve our faith and imbue our children with an enthusiastic and deep-seated love and veneration for our holy religion has always been considered one of the great missions of our Home, and your superintendent can say that he has endeavored, as far as lay in his power and ability, to promote this grand object of our noble institution. The Sabbath is strictly observed as a day of rest, the culinary department is conducted on a strictly Kosher basis, and the holidays and holy seasons are celebrated with fervor and gratitude. In the religious service all the children participate, singing the Hebrew and English responses with animation and pleasure. Every Sabbath two boys of the advanced class alternately read the Scriptural portion from the Torah, and of late the boys of the same class alternately officiate at the Friday evening service. Magid, the former Philadelphia correspondent of the American Israelite, and himself a minister, has this to say of a service which he attended: "Readers for Jewish congregations could not have done better; the fluent manner in which the prayers were recited proved that the boys were accustomed to offering up their daily devotion in the holy tongue, while the young worshipers, by their ready responses and excellent singing, would have been a credit to any congregation in the land. The reading of the portion of the week, Lech, lecho, from the Torah, was almost faultless." The short sermons regularly delivered to the children every Sabbath morning are published in the Jewish Exponent.

GYMNASTICS.

Thanks to the recommendation of our Committee of Education and the liberal action of our Board, gymnastic exercises have become a permanent feature of our Home instruction. Not only is our excellent health record in part due to these exercises, but they have greatly aided in the proper discipline of the children. Unconsciously the boys have grown manlier in their bearing, quicker in their movements, and more orderly and trained as a collective body, while the girls are more graceful and rapid in their carriage, and have had a larger field of pure enjoyment opened to them. All the children receive instruction once a week from Professor Perteuch, a graduate of the Milwaukee "Seminar," and the teacher of gymnastics at the Turnschule, 6th and Noble Streets. We are still laboring under the disadvantage of insufficient accommodations, an evil which we hope will eventually be removed.

CONCLUSION.

Your superintendent must again acknowledge the helpful and never-flagging assistance of both the matron and the teacher, Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, whose unselfish devotion to the children and the Home so largely contributes to the happiness of our wards and the success of our institution. To the president of the Board and to the lady president of the Associate Board, and respective bodies, as well as to the different committees, your superintendent owes his heartfelt thanks for the unreserved confidence bestowed, and for that ready and hearty co-operation which has enabled him to demonstrate that, at least in the education of children, love is stronger than fear. In conclusion, he desires to remind you that in his declaration of principles (Report of 1886) he stated: "I also recognize the obligation which the Superintendent assumes towards the President and the Managers of the Home as the representatives of the benevolent people who support it, in so far as it is his duty to so shape his course that the institution may lose no old friends, but gain new ones, and he thankfully accepts the kindly encouragements which he has received from the whole Jewish community, as an incentive to pursue the same course in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

S. M. FLEISCHMAN,
Superintendent.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18, 1888.

Spencer Roberts School.

April 19th, 1888.

Mr. S. M. Fleischman,

DEAR SIR:—The boys and girls under your charge have been so uniform in conduct and lessons that I have but little to report.

Of those who are in the grammar grades I have to say, that during the past term more interest has been shown in all studies than ever before. Except in a very few cases there has been no disposition to shirk the regular work of school. Some have made not only steady, but rapid and thorough, progress.

Those in the secondary grades are, generally speaking, industrious.

Nearly all were advanced at the beginning of the spring term, having made fair averages.

The class you sent us in February was the best we have admitted; not the farthest advanced, but the best prepared in the studies of their grade.

Their standing in the class has been maintained from the first.

I have not had a single charge of disobedience made against a pupil from the Home during the whole term.

Thanking you for your aid in the discipline, and your interest in the studies, of the children, I remain,

Yours truly,

E. NEVILLE.

The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum was held on Sunday, April 28, 1889, at 3 o'clock P. M., at the Home, Mill Street, German-town.

I. Binswanger, Esq., President, in the chair.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved.

The President appointed Messrs. Henry S. Louchheim, William Gerstley and Bernard Selig as tellers to conduct the election, and declared the nominations in order.

The following nominations were thereupon made: For President, I. Binswanger; for Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; for Treasurer, Philip Lewin; for Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller; for Managers (to serve for three years), Isaac Blum, A. E. Massman, Henry L. Strouse, Meyer Frank, Augustus Bacharach.

For members of the Associate Board, to serve for three years: Mrs. Henry S. Frank, Mrs. Isidor Coons, Mrs. Adolph Rosenbaum, Mrs. Jacob Kaufman, Mrs. Isaac Roskam, Mrs. Isaac Saller.

On motion the nominations were closed. The President declared the polls open.

The Secretary then read the annual report of the President, the Executive Committee, the Treasurer, the Committee on Education, and submitted a list of the donations received on Donation Day, a list of the legacies bequeathed to the Home since its foundation, and a list of the assets and liabilities of the Society.

The Superintendent read his report.

On motion the several reports were received and the Secretary instructed to have them printed as heretofore, for distribution among the patrons, members and contributors, together with the proceedings of this meeting.

While the tellers were preparing their report, the Rev. Dr. S. Morais and the Rev. Dr. M. Jastrow, Sr., addressed the meeting, giving an outline of the Home from its foundation, and showing the good work accomplished by the Society.

The tellers reported that the following were elected: President, I. Binswanger; Vice-President, Mason Hirsh; Treasurer, Philip Lewin; Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller; Managers (to serve for three years), Isaac Blum, A. E. Massman, Meyer Frank, Augustus Bacharach.

Members of the Associate Board (to serve for three years), Mrs. Henry S. Frank, Mrs. Isidor Coons, Mrs. Adolph Rosenbaum, Mrs. Jacob Kaufman, Mrs. Isaac Roskam, Mrs. Isaac Saller.

The President thereupon declared them duly elected, and on motion the meeting adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,
Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT.

OF THE
PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the Patrons and Members of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia :

In presenting to you our thirty-fourth (34th) annual report, we are filled with gratitude to an all-merciful Providence for being again enabled to report all our inmates in good health. The children were almost free of all sickness during the year past; they were attentive to their studies; had full scope afforded them for the development of their mental and physical faculties under the care of their devoted Superintendent, Matron, and Teacher.

The number of children at present at the Home is 63 (23 girls and 40 boys); there are boarding in the city and in North Wales 13 boys; making 76 children in charge of the Home. Four girls were indentured and 2 returned to their parents. One boy was placed with his brother-in-law, and one is preparing to become a pharmacist, while two were returned to their parents. During the year 11 children were admitted, 4 boys and 7 girls. One of the boys is attending the Manual Training School, and is attaining a high average. Fifty-two children are attending the Spencer Roberts Public School, and 10 are in the kindergarten, under the tuition of Miss Amelia Rosenbaum; and all are fully sustaining their good record—the particulars of which will be found in the report of the Education Committee. The annual examination was held on June 24th, when prizes were awarded as follows: To Louis Cohen, the Michael Reese prize of $25 for the best general scholarship. The two Simon Muhr $10 prizes and silver medals were awarded to Robert Myers and Goldie Wirtshafter; the Simon Muhr $5 prizes and gold medals were awarded to Max Siegel and Annie Newman. The Sidney Trieste prize of $5 for good behavior was awarded to Moses Cohen. The Mrs. Henry S. Frank prizes of $5 each for proficiency in German and knitting were won respectively by Ella Myers and Annie Berkowitz; and the Payne medal was won by Tillie Sheps.

The gymnastic exercises are continued, and prove of great advantage to the children, who also enjoyed their annual picnics in Fairmount Park and at the Zoological Gardens.

Chanukah and Purim were, as usual, celebrated at the Home, when the children were the recipients of a large number of presents from the generous friends of the Home. They also attended, by invitation, the Purim entertainment of the Hebrew Sunday School Society, which was highly appreciated.

The committee appointed to increase the number of patrons and members have been indefatigable in their exertions, having added 201 members and 12 patrons during the year, increasing the yearly income of the Society $1325. The resignations of 10 members and 2 patrons have been received during the same period.

The Treasurer's report shows the receipts, including the cash balance on hand April 19, 1888, of $1914.03, to have been $34,221.42, and the total disbursements $32,392.47, leaving a balance on hand this day of $1828.95. The ordinary receipts were the following:

In addition to the above, was received in trust from the young friends of the late Morton M. Newburger a $500 bond of the Union Passenger Railway Company, to be called the Morton M. Newburger Memorial Fund, for the promotion of the study of elocution, the interest thereof to be equally divided in two prizes for the best elocutionists among the boys and girls of the Home.

Your Board of Managers, while looking for ground to afford the necessary drainage, learned that the site immediately in the rear of our present property, with a frontage of 186 feet

2 inches on Penn Street, and about 227 feet deep, was for sale. They embraced the opportunity to acquire the same for $10,000, which amount was borrowed temporarily from the bank, until the long-deferred appeal is made to the Jewish public to provide the means to extend the usefulness of the Home. Recognizing the great urgency of additional buildings being erected for the many applicants for admission to the Home, we earnestly appeal to you and to the Jewish community in general for a generous contribution to the Building Fund. We feel that our appeal will not be in vain, for our institution is the pleasure and pride of the Jews of Philadelphia and of our fellow-citizens of other creeds. The example recently set us by the small number of Jews in Atlanta, Ga., and in Rochester, N. Y., by the erection of an orphan asylum in the former city, and in the latter the extension of its Home; and the great liberality shown by you in contributing to the erection of the needed buildings by our sister institution,—lead us to hope that you will enable your Board of Officers to have such additional buildings and improvements made as the Home requires. The Jewish population of our city has greatly increased within the last decade, especially by the emigration from Russia, Roumania, and other countries from which our co-religionists fled from persecution. Let us unite, Jews of Philadelphia, to continue in affording the benefits of our Home to the deserving orphans and waifs applying for the same.

Only recently we had occasion to apply to the United Hebrew Charities to make temporary provision for two children who had been taken in charge by the Society to Protect Children from Cruelty, and for whom we have since made room at our Home.

On Donation Day the needs of our institution received not only the kind consideration of the Jewish community, but our neighbors and fellow-citizens of other creeds have contributed generously to swell the list of donors. Our sincere thanks are tendered to them, and to all who have so kindly aided us in promoting the interests entrusted to us, and especially to the managers of the Hebrew Charity Ball Association for the liberal share of the net proceeds of the ball.

May our Heavenly Father continue to bless you, our Home, and its inmates !

Respectfully submitted,

I. BINSWANGER,
President.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in the context of public administration or corporate governance. The text highlights how detailed records can help identify trends, detect anomalies, and ensure compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the role of technology in enhancing record-keeping processes. It explores various digital tools and systems that can streamline data collection, storage, and retrieval. The author argues that leveraging technology not only improves efficiency but also reduces the risk of human error and data loss. Examples of such technologies include cloud-based databases, automated reporting tools, and secure communication channels.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges associated with implementing robust record-keeping systems. It identifies common obstacles such as resistance to change, limited resources, and complex regulatory requirements. The author provides practical advice on how to overcome these challenges, including the importance of training staff, securing management support, and conducting regular audits to ensure system integrity.

4. The final part of the document concludes by reinforcing the message that effective record-keeping is a cornerstone of good governance and operational excellence. It encourages organizations to adopt a proactive approach to managing their records, ensuring that they are always up-to-date, accurate, and accessible. The author notes that while the initial investment in a good system may be significant, the long-term benefits in terms of improved decision-making and risk management are substantial.

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to define the objectives and goals of the project. This helps to clarify what needs to be achieved and provides a clear direction for the team.

3. The third step is to develop a plan or strategy to address the problem. This involves breaking down the problem into smaller, manageable tasks and determining the resources needed to complete them.

4. The fourth step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the strategy into action and monitoring progress to ensure that the project is on track.

5. The final step is to evaluate the results of the project. This involves assessing the outcomes against the objectives and goals and identifying any areas for improvement.

Annual Report of the Committee on Education.

To the President and Members of the Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—It again becomes the pleasant duty of your committee to render a favorable report of the moral, mental and physical condition of the children of our Home.

Of the 51 attending the Spencer Roberts School, 42 were promoted and 4 advanced on trial, as the result of the last examination. One boy—Joseph Weis, a pupil of the Second Grade—reached the highest average of the whole school; three of the four prizes offered in four different rooms for the attainment of the best averages therein were won by the children of the Home.

In short, only 5 of the 51 failed.

During six months, but 1 child was tardy and 1 absent longer than a day.

With such a record, the unfailing vigilance of Superintendent and Matron becomes apparent; for without a firm, kindly, judicious home-influence, these children could not have equaled—indeed, surpassed—their competitors.

They have, under Mr. and Mrs. Fleischman's instruction, progressed steadily in Hebrew, Bible History and German. Moral teachings have not been ignored, but imparted in daily lessons, besides constituting a portion of the weekly Sabbath service.

Miss Amelia Rosenbaum has, in her kindergarten department, ten pupils, who will, no doubt, be well prepared—as Miss Rosenbaum's classes have heretofore been—to rank creditably with those of the public school, when sufficiently advanced to enter it.

Louis Cohen is attending the Manual Training School, and doing well.

The girls continue their sewing and knitting.

Notwithstanding their various duties, which keep them fully occupied, the boys and girls give every evidence of good health and wholesome development. This may, in a measure, be attributed to their regular indulgence in gymnastic exercises, which have become part of their education.

In the autumn, it was deemed advisable by your committee to dispense with a portion of the usual examination in the English branches, and to substitute reading, recitations, singing and kindergarten exercises—the yearly averages and good conduct of the pupils being considered in awarding the following prizes :

The Michael Reese prize of $25.00, to Louis Cohen; the Simon Muhr prize of $10.00, to Robert Myer; the Simon Muhr prize of $5.00, to Max Siegel; the Sidney Trieste prize of $5.00 for best-behaved boy, to Moses Cohen; the Simon Muhr prize of $10.00 for girls, to Goldie Wirtshafter; the Simon Muhr prize of $5.00, to Annie Newman; the Mrs. Henry S. Frank prize of $5.00 for German, to Ella Myer; the Mrs. Henry S. Frank prize of $5.00 for knitting, to Annie Berkowitz; the Payne medal for good behavior and diligence to Tillie Sheps.

Respectfully submitted,

LEVI MAYER, Chairman.

APRIL, 1889.

Annual Report of the Superintendent.

To the President and the Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—Through the grace of God, and by virtue of His care vouchsafed to our beloved institution during the fiscal year just closed, I am again enabled to present to you a report which, while gladdening your hearts with the satisfaction of a duty well performed, and filling us with gratitude to our Heavenly Father, must also inspire us and others with renewed efforts in the great cause of humanity. It is needless to refer to the pursued in the Home. The course mapped out in my first annual report to your Honorable Board has been closely followed, and by an administration uniform in kindness, but tempered with firmness and decision, excellent results have been secured. The fact that no child has clandestinely left the Home, that none have been expelled, that no pupil has been suspended from school for any cause whatsoever, and that none of our neighbors have uttered the least complaint, is the best proof of its utility; while the health and happiness of our children, attested by their appearance and their free and easy bearing, demonstrate its beneficial influence on our wards.

THE HOME

during the entire year has been filled to its utmost capacity; the few vacancies which occurred were no sooner made than filled, while the pressure for admission has been far beyond our ability to satisfy.

THE HEALTH

of the children has been all that could be desired. There were, of course, now and then, cases of indisposition ; but with three exceptions—one a case of irritability of the stomach, one other a mild attack of croup, and the third an accident—a small boy falling in a bucket half full of hot water—none ever rose to the dignity of sickness, and the three cases just mentioned complete the whole list from April, 1888, to April, 1889. There was an operation for strabismus or squint performed on Rebecca Leberman by Dr. F. Isett, oculist, assisted by Dr. Le Brewer Hall. Both gentlemen gave their services gratis, and we owe them thanks for their kindness. Dr. Pragheimer, the newly-elected resident physician at the Jewish Hospital, who is also the attending physician at the Home, has been very attentive. His advice and professional services, freely given without compensation, have been of much benefit to us, and are deserving of our personal acknowledgments.

THE BEHAVIOR

of the children continues very satisfactory. The most prominent feature in this respect is the rapid and complete amalgamation of these many children, representing almost every nationality of Jews, into one homogeneous American element, exhibiting the same feeling of proprietorship in their Home that other children have for the residence of their parents, all their varied traits and peculiarities blending in the unity of good-fellowship, the feeling of family affection so strongly developed that even the monthly visit of their parents or relatives, while it jars, does not loosen this spiritual bond. It is pleasant to state, in connection with this, that the boys and girls from the Home indentured or placed in situations retain a love for the institution which seems to grow rather than diminish, and which often brings them under its shelter to enjoy its hospitality and be benefited by the spirit which pervades it. Tardiness at school is a very rare occurrence, and suspensions are entirely unknown. For information concerning the progress in their studies in the Home and public schools, you are respectfully referred to the report of the Committee on Education.

It affords me much satisfaction to state that last July, during a two weeks' absence of both the Superintendent and Matron, the Home was temporarily in charge of Miss A. Rosenbaum, assisted by Miss Esther Baum, and that the conduct of the children won the unqualified praise of both ladies.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES

are a feature to which great care and attention are given. The children constitute both congregation and choir, and participate actively and joyously in divine services. The short sermons delivered to them on the Sabbaths and holy days are published weekly in THE JEWISH EXPONENT. During the past year Dr. G. Gottheil, of New York, attended divine services at the Home and addressed the children; and at different times Rev. Edward Calisch, of Peoria; Dr. Mendelsohn, of Wilmington, N. C., and Dr. M. Jastrow, Sr., occupied the pulpit of our little synagogue.

KINDERGARTEN.

This very important branch of our institution is still in charge of Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, who devotes much of her time and her best efforts to its interests.

GYMNASTIC EXERCISES.

Instruction in gymnastics is regularly given once a week, Prof. Perteuch still being the instructor. The beneficial results of these invigorating exercises are so very apparent in the healthy and graceful development of our children's physical and mental organizations, as well as in their increased appetite, that the expense incurred seems insignificant compared with the results obtained. The second annual exhibition, given last May, was witnessed by fully four hundred people, and received the unqualified praise of the large audience. We are still minus a gymnasium, and are much hindered for want of the necessary apparatus, being without room wherein to place it. We trust that in the prospective enlargement of the Home this important subject will be fully considered.

CONCLUSION.

The untiring assistance of the Matron in every branch of our work, from the kitchen to the schoolroom, and the helpful co-operation of the teacher and assistant, Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, dare not be passed unnoticed. Their work, as well as that of the Superintendent, is very hard, performed as it is with a comprehensive view of their duties and with an earnest consideration as to ultimate results. Yet the difficulties are lessened and the work often is a positive pleasure because of the whole-souled and liberal support given us by the President, the Lady President, the various committees, and also by each individual member of the Board and the Associate Board of Managers. For this we desire to express our heartfelt thanks; likewise for the many kind words and acts of encouragement shown us from all quarters of our honored Philadelphia Jewish community.

All of which I beg respectfully to submit.

S. M. FLEISCHMAN,
Superintendent.

ANNUAL MEETING.

1890.

The thirty-fifth Annual Meeting of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum was held on Sunday, April 27th, 1890, at 3 o'clock P. M., at the Home, Mill Street, German-town.

In the absence of the President, Mason Hirsh, Vice-President, in the chair.

Rev. Dr. S. Morais opened the meeting with prayer.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Secretary read the annual reports of the President, of the Treasurer, and of the Committee on Education, and submitted a list of the donations received, including those received on Donation Day, a list of the legacies bequeathed to the Home since its foundation, and a list of the assets and liabilities of the Society.

The Superintendent then read his report.

On motion, the reports were received and the Secretary was instructed to have them printed in book-form, as heretofore, for distribution amongst the patrons, members and contributors, together with the proceedings of this meeting.

The following communication, addressed to Mr. Mason Hirsh, the Vice-President, was received from the President:

"As my absence from Philadelphia is likely yet to be prolonged for an indefinite period, I deem it my duty to you and to the Home we so dearly love, to resign the position of President of the Home and to decline being a candidate for re-election at the next Annual Meeting. To you and all the members of the Board, and of the Ladies' Associate Board, my sincere thanks are due for their kind indulgence, support and co-operation in the discharge of my duties, and such are sincerely tendered. May our Heavenly Father further extend His blessings to our beloved institution, and they be enabled so to rear the children entrusted to you and them that they may become a credit to the Home and its President and the Board of Officers.

“ I shall ever cherish the most pleasant relations that have always existed between you and your presiding officer, and the happy hours—nay, years—he has enjoyed with you and the inmates of the institution. I deeply regret my absence from the city at the next Annual Meeting, but I feel assured that the duties devolving upon me will be fully as well attended to by you as if I were present. I only regret that I cannot lend my aid in the contemplated improvements and additions to our present buildings; but I sincerely trust that the Board will submit acceptable plans for the consideration of the members, patrons and contributors to the Building Fund. It should be borne in mind that such will not again be altered in the coming twenty-five years, but be sufficiently large to increase the number of children which can comfortably be placed in the Home to one hundred or one hundred and fifty. Our constituents, I am sure, have confidence in the Board of Managers and in the Committee on Admission that they will adhere to the conservative course they have ever pursued and not admit any children except the application is a meritorious one. For the expense of adding a gymnasium, the noble gift in memory of the late Morton M. Newburger can and should be used in conformity with the wishes and stipulations of the donor. Should it be your wish that I make the annual report, I will do so with pleasure. I have made the necessary extracts from the minutes, and would only require the Treasurer's and Superintendent's reports.

“ Pardon me for the extended letter of resignation and declination. My only wish is to render service to the cause we have all so much at heart. Your appeal to the Jewish community for liberal aid to make the necessary improvements and additions will no doubt be handsomely responded to as the merits of the institution are acknowledged and the appreciation by the Jewish community of the management and their efforts on its behalf.

"I would have written sooner, but I thought I should probably be able to be personally present at the next Annual Meeting. As such is not likely to be the case, I beg you to submit this, my resignation, to the Board at their stated meeting on Sunday next.

"Please accept for yourself and all the members of the Board of Officers, and the Ladies' Associate Board, my best wishes and regards, and thanks for their support and co-operation in the discharge of my duties; likewise to the Superintendent and the Matron, Mr. and Mrs. Fleischman, and to Miss A. Rosenbaum."

On motion of Mayer Sulzberger, seconded by Rev. Dr. Marcus Jastrow, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Mr. Isidore Binswanger, the venerable President of this Society, has after fifteen years of faithful and efficient service determined to decline a re-election; therefore,

Resolved, That this Society regrets the expressed determination of Mr. Binswanger to retire from the office which he has borne with so much honor to himself and advantage to the Society's cause.

Resolved, That the best wishes of the Society and its grateful thanks are due to Mr. Binswanger for his long and faithful service.

Resolved, That an engrossed copy of these resolutions be sent to Mr. Binswanger, and that the same be published.

Mr. Sulzberger, in presenting the resolutions, said it was an occasion fraught with interest when an active worker in the cause of charity for fifty years retires from service, and it was the least his fellow-workers and the community could do to mark their appreciation.

Rev. Dr. Jastrow, in seconding the resolutions, said he felt it his duty to add a few words, and hoped that this friend of the helpless and needy, this adherent of the Jewish faith in such a noble sense, would soon return to this city.

On motion, Mr. Binswanger was elected a life member of the Society.

The President appointed Messrs. Oscar B. Teller, Henry Hirsh and Henry Jonas as tellers to conduct the election, and declared the nominations in order.

The following nominations were then made: President, Mason Hirsh; Vice-President, Leo Loeb; Treasurer, Philip Lewin; Secretary, Benjamin F. Teller.

Managers (to serve for three years): Simon Kohn, Simon Muhr, Harry A. Jeitles, Nathan Snellenburg.

Members of the Associate Board (to serve for three years): Mrs. I. Binswanger, Mrs. M. M. Newman, Mrs. I. Hyneman, Mrs. Simon Pfaelzer, Mrs. Henry L. Strouse, Mrs. Samuel M. Hyneman.

On motion, the nominations were closed and the Secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the Society for the respective nominees. This being done, the President declared them duly elected.

Mr. Barnett Binswanger offered the following:

Amend Section 1 of Article IV. of the Constitution so that the same shall read as follows:

“The officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary and sixteen managers, to be elected from the male members, who shall together constitute the Board of Officers; and eighteen ladies who shall constitute the Associate Board, and they shall be elected in the following manner:

“The President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary shall be elected annually for one year.

“At a special meeting to be called after the adoption of this amendment, four managers shall be elected to serve for four years, to be computed from the day of the Annual Meeting in April, 1890, and at every subsequent election four managers for the Board of Officers shall be elected to serve for four years, and six ladies shall be elected for the Associate Board to serve for three years."

On motion of Rev. Dr. M. Jastrow, the thanks of the Society were tendered Mr. Fleischman, Mrs. Fleischman and Miss Amelia Rosenbaum for their kind and attentive work to the children.

The President then exhibited a plan of the proposed addition to the Home, and stated that the cost thereof, together with the cost of the ground recently purchased, would be about sixty thousand dollars.

On motion, the Board of Managers were authorized to solicit subscriptions for the improvements to be made to the Home and to proceed with the work as soon as they deemed proper.

On motion, the Society adjourned to meet at the call of the President for the purpose of acting on the amendment offered by Mr. Binswanger.

BENJAMIN F. TELLER,
Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE
PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

To the Patrons and Members of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia :

Owing to a continued absence from your city, I deemed it my duty to send to your Board my resignation as President of our beloved institution ; but as such has not been accepted, it devolves upon me once more to report the work of the past year and the present status of the society.

In so doing I desire to express my high appreciation of the arduous labors which have devolved upon the Vice-President and Board of Managers, and which they have so ably and conscientiously performed, with the faithful assistance of the Superintendent, Matron and Teacher.

Through the Divine Blessing of Him who has prospered, shielded and guided the orphans under our charge, we are enabled to report all now in good health, those who suffered from the prevailing sickness having entirely recovered.

There are at present at the Home sixty (60) children, thirty-nine (39) boys and twenty-one (21) girls ; and boarding in the city and in North Wales are eighteen (18) children ; making in all seventy-eight (78) children in charge of the Home. Six boys and six girls were admitted during the year, four girls were indentured, three boys and one girl were placed in situations, eight boys and girls were returned to their relatives, and one boy was discharged.

On May 19th the gymnastic exercises were given before a large number of friends, and the great enjoyment and physical benefit derived therefrom were plainly noticed in the happy faces of the children.

The public examination in Hebrew, English and German was held on June 16th, when the following prizes were awarded: Michael Reese prize of $25.00, for the best general scholarship, to Moses Lefcowitsch; the Simon Muhr $10.00 prizes and silver medals, to Louis Newman and Tillie Sheps; the Simon Muhr $5.00 prizes and silver medals, to Joseph Weiss and Pauline Goldsmith; the Sidney Trieste prize of $5.00, for good behavior, to David Harris; Mrs. Dora Trieste's prize of $5.00, to Annie Newman; Mrs. Henry S. Frank's prizes of $5.00 each, for proficiency in German and knitting, to Della Sachs and Katie Gottlieb; the Morton M. Newburger prizes of $12.50 each, to the best elocutionists, to Clara Weinstock and Moses Cohen, and the Payne medal to Fanny Ochser.

The exhibition of Kindergarten work done by the little ones under the tuition of Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, at the Home, was very creditable; as also the reports of progress received from the principal of the Spencer Roberts Public School, in Germantown, where the older children are in attendance.

Through the kindness of many friends, Purim and Chanukah were appropriately celebrated, and various other festive occasions brought happiness and joy to the hearts of the little waifs under our care.

Guiding and sympathizing in their pleasures as well as their childish troubles, our worthy Superintendent and Matron and Teacher are devoting their best efforts for the welfare of their charges, and enlist our hearty commendation.

Twelve (12) new patrons and one hundred and seventeen (117) new members were elected during the year, while two patrons and five members were taken from the list.

We have received from Mr. and Mrs. Morris Newburger the sum of $600 in memory of their son, the late Morton M. Newburger, to be used for a gymnasium, to be called the "Morton M. Newburger Gymnasium."

The drainage through the lot acquired by us last year has been completed. A small portion of the lot has been sold, and the money realized therefrom was used to pay for the drainage.

The Treasurer's report, herewith annexed, shows the receipts, including the cash balance on hand April 29, 1889, of $1828.95, to have been $28,075.22, of which Donation Day was held on November 12th, and netted the sum of $1774.20, and quite a variety of useful articles for the Home; the list of which, with other donations, will appear in the report of the treasurer.

Our sincere thanks are tendered to all donors, as well as to the managers of the Hebrew Charity Ball Association, through whose efforts we received the handsome sum of $4231.48.

The building committee will submit for your consideration a plan for the enlargement of the institution, to provide accommodation for one hundred to one hundred and fifty (100 to 150) children, so that no further additions may be necessary during the next twenty-five years.

The time has now arrived when it becomes necessary for us to make a public appeal for the needed funds to carry out these plans for the addition and improvements to our buildings, and we feel assured that the committee to be appointed to collect such funds will meet with a hearty and liberal response. We would respectfully request that authority be granted the board of managers to proceed with making the improvements as soon as $50,000 is subscribed. The building fund has been started with a subscription of $500.00 from Mrs. Simon Pfaelzer; $600.00 from Mr. and Mrs. M. Newburger for the Morton M. Newburger Gymnasium; $500.00 from Mr. Julius Sichel; $100.00 from the Franklin Club, and $100.00 from former inmates of the Home.

Your Board of Managers recommend that the constitution be so amended that the Board shall be increased by the addition of four (4) members.

In conclusion, allow me, personally, to tender to the Vice-President and to all the ladies and gentlemen of the Board, my sincere thanks for their unfailing kindness and co-operation, as well as to all those sympathizing friends who have so generously aided us. May the blessing of Divine Providence rest upon them and upon every inmate of our Home.

Respectfully submitted,

I. BINSWANGER,

President.

Annual Report of the Committee on Education.

To the President and Members of the Board of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN:—The statistics and general condition of the educational department meet with our warm endorsement. The progress, punctuality, and cheerful, respectful deportment of the children indicate clearly that the public school and the Home management, in their efforts to cultivate a proper stimulating interest and ambition, are in effective, earnest co-operation.

The pupils at the Home are progressing well in German under the care and good discipline of Mrs. Fleischman, and in Hebrew and religious teaching under Mr. Fleischman.

Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, in charge of the Kindergarten, continues to render it a pleasing, interesting feature of the Home. We would earnestly wish that the friends of the institution would visit our schools during the hours of instruction.

In sewing and in household matters, the girls are trained according to their ages and capacities.

The physical training has been regular and has proved of much benefit as far as practicable. Owing to lack of accommodation, the gymnastic exercises are necessarily limited. The unrestrained employment of the children during their play-hours, their frank, bright countenances, all denote the healthy moral atmosphere of their daily lives.

Forty-six of the children attend the Spencer Roberts Public School, twelve are in the Kindergarten, one at the Manual Training School, and one not attending school, making the total of sixty children at the Home. Seven have been admitted to Kindergarten, and seven promoted from Kindergarten to public school; one returned from Kindergarten to parents; eleven newly admitted children have been sent to public school, and sixteen who have left the Home have been withdrawn from the public school.

The list of prizes have been awarded to the following pupils: Michael Reese prize $25 to Master Moses Lefcowitsch; Simon Muhr prize $10 to Louis Newman; Simon Muhr prize $10 to Tillie Scheps; Simon Muhr prize $5 to Joseph Weiss; Simon Muhr prize $5 to Pauline Goldstein; Sydney Trieste prize $5 (best-behaved boy), David Harris; Mrs. Dora Trieste prize $5 (best-behaved girl), Annie Newman; Mrs. H. S. Frank prize $5 (for sewing), Della Sachs; Mrs. H. S. Frank prize $5 for German, Katie Gottlieb; Morton Newburger prize $12.50 to Moses Cohn; Morton Newburger prize $12.50 to Clara Weinstock; Payne medal to Fannie Ochser.

Respectfully submitted,

LEVI MAYER, Chairman.
SIMON KOHN,
CLARA HAHN,

Annual Report of the Superintendent.

To the President and the Board of Managers of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN :—Again, as is but natural in the course of human events when a cycle of man's usefulness is rounding itself to the completion of his allotted task, it becomes my sacred duty to submit to your inspection, and through you, to the kindly inquisition of the public at large, the annals of another year's history of our beloved institution. If it is true (and experience seems thus to testify) that, in the words of the "Fathers," "a regard to ultimate consequences is the path that leadeth to good," then the record of our last year's work ought to bear abundant testimony, not only that we have chosen "the path which leadeth to good," but also that we have found the good to which it leadeth. From the moment that we recognized the truth that "love is stronger than fear," and established as the underlying principle of the moral government in the Home, success, in the form of the health, happiness and a natural intellectual and moral development of its inmates as the "ultimate consequences," became but a question of time, and of patient, personal endurance. Tracing for the last four (4) years, during which time sixty (60) children constituted the daily average number of its family, the statistics prove conclusively the success of our efforts. Thus, during the four (4) years referred to not a single serious complaint has reached us from the teachers of the public school where the bulk of our children attend ; no complaint of any kind has been made by our neighbors, near or far. No child has been cited before your honorable body for misconduct, and none have been expelled for insubordination. From April, 1886, to April, 1888, a period of two years, there was not a single case of sickness ; from 1888 to 1889 but three ; while during the year just passed, the all-pervading influenza and the measles paid us but short and formal calls. The happy condition of affairs thus described has naturally influenced every member of our large household ; the blessed spirit of peace and harmony, the happy faces of the children, and the feeling of perfect security and ease exhibited daily in their actions, have affected the lowliest servant in the house to cheerfulness, making them all desirous to retain their places, thus enabling us with the aid of experienced and interested help to better fulfill our duties. There are at present in the Home. Of these, 39 are boys and 21 are girls. Of the seventy-eight (78) children in the Home and out of it under the supervision of your honorable Board, eighteen (18) are full orphans, forty (40) are the children of widows, eighteen (18) the children of widowers, and two (2) have both parents living. Of these seventy-eight (78) children, forty (40) were born in Philadelphia and eight (8) in other cities of the United States, seventeen (17) emigrated from Russia, ten (10) from Hungary, one (1) was born in Roumania, one (1) in England and one (1) in Austria. The not living in the Home, but still under the supervision of your honorable Board, are pleasantly situated in various branches of business, trades and professions, and without any exception are doing well. Quite a number of the boys are living with one family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Marcuse, 1731 Wylie Street, and your Superintendent, who meets all the boys at this house every two weeks, can testify to the excellent care bestowed upon the boys living with Mr. and Mrs. Marcuse and to the fatherly and motherly interest manifested by them in their wards. It should be noticed in this connection that it has been of the Indenture Committee to place the children leaving the Home, wherever practicable, in charge of their widowed mothers, thus in several cases of which I know serving a treble purpose : 1st, mother and child are united, and that at a time when the child, instead of being a burden, becomes a solace and a help to its parent ; 2d, the child being clothed by the Board, its earnings aid in the mother's support ; and 3d, the mother, who, until then, has often been an object of public charity, becomes gradually self-supporting and with it self-respecting.

SYMPATHY AND KINDNESS

SIXTY (60) CHILDREN

THE HEALTH

of the children during the first nine (9) months of the fiscal year just closed was excellent ; in the last three (3) months we have not been so fortunate. During the grippe epidemic as many as twenty (20) of our children were affected ; but with the exception of three, all recovered within twenty-four hours without the aid of a physician ; the other three in the course of a few days. We have had two (2) cases of pneumonia and one of St. Vitus' dance. Recently, the measles, which had been epidemic in Germantown, invaded the Home and we have eight cases to report. All our sick are now fully recovered. The presence of a contagious disease with its natural consequences of isolating the sick has clearly demonstrated at our disposal to combat it. The sick-room, by the force of circumstances so situated that all the children must pass it, can barely accommodate three children. The seamstress, whose bedroom adjoins the sick-room, was compelled to relinquish it and sleep on a cot in the sewing-room. Fortunately, the cases developed two or three at a time at intervals of several days, so that by moving the convalescent ones from one room to another, we managed to make room for the new ones. Had the cases, however, been more numerous, it is difficult to see just how we should have managed. We also have a boy suffering from granulated eyelids, who too is gradually getting well. An operation for strabismus or cross-eye was successfully performed by Dr. F. K. Isett, our oculist, on Mary Hart, and our thanks are due to the doctor not only for this special operation, but for other medical services rendered cheerfully and gratuitously during the past year. Dr. Wm. H. Teller, the resident physician at the Jewish Hospital, has been consulted quite frequently, especially during the measles period, and his valued and intelligent advice and attention deserve our thankful acknowledgments. To Drs. Steinbach, Stern and Jurist, who have gratuitously treated a number of our children residing in the city, our thanks are due; also to Drs. Roop and Lutz, our Germantown dentists, who have treated our children requiring their valuable services.

THE INADEQUATE MEANS

THE BEHAVIOR

of our children is all that we have a right to ask and expect. Perfection has not yet been attained, and probably never will be; but as long as a fight is an unknown occurrence and an oath something rarely heard on the premises, as long as deference and respect for their superiors and elders, and a proper consideration for one another remains (as now) a marked feature of our children's conduct, so long the fact that the boy or girl comes from the Foster Home will, we trust, be its best recommendation.* It may be well to say just here that to the in the Home we can largely attribute the excellent behavior of the children. The synagogue is to the Home what the heart is to the human body. It is the source from which the stream of spiritual life flows through the entire household, refreshing, strengthening and revitalizing its every member, developing through the power of our beautiful religious service (in which all the children participate) the germs of a true manhood and womanhood dormant in the human soul. It seems, therefore, almost superfluous to add that the Sabbaths and other religious and national holidays are appropriately observed, and that every opportunity is welcome which enables us to more deeply impress upon our wards the beauty and the grandeur of the Jewish religion.

THE KINDERGARTEN,

under the able supervision of Miss Amelia Rosenbaum, remains a pleasing and happy feature of our educational system. Nowhere is the beneficent influence of the Home more apparent than just here, for our experience has taught us that the little ones who have enjoyed the benefits of Kindergarten training enter school with happier hearts and better prepared for the systematic work of their maturer years.

GYMNASTIC EXERCISES.

In spite of the many disadvantages under which we labor in the comparatively new department of our educational system, the instructions have been continued, and the Third Annual Gymnastic Exhibition held last May on the grounds of the institution, under the direction of the teacher, Prof. R.

* For the result of the annual examination, you are respectfully referred to the Report of the Committee of Education.

Perteuch, was much admired by the large concourse of friends of the Home who witnessed it. A pleasing feature of these exercises was the musical accompaniment furnished by an orchestra under the supervision of Prof. H. Hahn, to whom we owe our sincere thanks for this valuable service, cheerfully and gratuitously contributed. Without proper accommodations to place the necessary apparatus, and with no room sufficiently large wherein to exercise in bad weather, the instruction has necessarily been confined to its simplest forms, being at times interrupted by the inclemency of the weather. The exercises have therefore simply been viewed as conducive to health, and as an aid in the general development of the body, with little or no regard to acrobatic performances.

PRINTING.

Desirous of making our education as practical as our limited room and our means will permit, I have encouraged every inclination on the part of our children toward practical and mechanical work, and have so far succeeded in establishing a miniature printing-office in the Home. Two pamphlets have been issued during the last year, viz. : "Methods and Means of Earlier Education," an essay, and "The Annual of the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum," just issued as a souvenir of this annual meeting, a copy of each having been mailed to the patrons and members of the institution. All the type-setting and printing for these pamphlets has been done by our Manual Training School pupil, Louis Cohen, assisted by one of the younger boys. Considering that the boy has had no special instruction, but has "picked up" what he knows of the art of printing, we feel quite encouraged at his apparent success.

CONCLUSION.

Your Superintendent believes that the history of the past year as here recorded will be a source of satisfaction and congratulation to the many friends of the institution. That it has at all been possible is due, next to God (whose divine protection is again so signally manifest), chiefly to the untiring energy of your honorable Board, and of the Ladies' Associate Board, who have been ever watchful of the best interests of our Home, and whose hearty support and unwavering confidence have encouraged and supported your Superintendent and Matron in many a trying hour. Difficult as the task of properly rearing so many children is of itself, the want of proper facilities, which has made itself felt more and more every year, has greatly increased these difficulties. With the dining-room jammed and crowded, with no play-house for the girls, thus forcing them to play in the hall adjoining the only private room of the Superintendent's family, without a sick ward, minus schoolrooms, and lacking proper sleeping accommodations for the higher assistants, while the house has been continually crowded to its utmost capacity, there has been a corresponding wear and tear of body and soul which is not a legitimate consequence of our sacred duties. We have been like workmen compelled to labor with dull tools, expending in extra physical and mental exertion the nervous force which proper facilities should and would have saved. The proposed enlargement of the Home, while it will throw additional work and responsibilities on our shoulders, will enable us to better perform our duties with less of personal sacrifice of strength and health. To the Honorable President and the Honorable Board of Managers, to the Lady President and Associate Board, to the various committees, and last, but not least, to the Jewish community of Philadelphia, the undersigned wishes to make his grateful acknowledgments. Perhaps he can give no better proof of his appreciation of the confidence bestowed, the encouragement given, and the increased interest manifested, than by assuring them all that the Superintendent and Matron are not working for the Jewish people of Philadelphia, but rather that they are working with them in promoting the great cause of humanity to which the Jewish Foster Home and Orphan Asylum was, is, and so please God ever shall be, dedicated.

Respectfully submitted,

S. M. FLEISCHMAN,

PHILA., April 27, 1890.

Superintendent.

NOTE.—During the past year the children have enjoyed a picnic at Fairmount Park ; they have also visited Forepaugh's Circus, and by special invitation of the manager, “ The Fall of Babylon. ” Recently they enjoyed “ Little Lord Fauntleroy ” at the Walnut Street Theatre.
